#RECHTHESUMMIT

April 24-26, 2021

Dear Participants, Fans and Friends,

Welcome to the 2021 Summit League Women's Golf Championship.

The Summit League appreciates the tireless work by the staff at the Sand Creek Station Golf Club to make this an outstanding event. The league and its member institutions recognize the importance of each of the 19 Summit League championship events for the 3,000 student-athletes competing across the league. Making every championship a first-class event for the student-athletes, coaches and fans involved is a priority for our league.

Since its inception in 1982, The Summit League has fostered a culture of perennially crowning champions in athletic competitions and academic endeavors. Over three decades of historic team and individual performances have laid the foundation for present day student-athletes to continue The Summit League tradition of excellence in competition and in the classroom. The competitive triumphs of Summit League student-athletes are eclipsed only by their engagement in leadership roles in academics and the campus community.

On behalf of the league staff, I wish all of this weekend's competitors the best of luck as they "Reach for the Summit" and compete for the 2021 Summit League women's golf crown this spring.

Sincerely,

Tom Douple
 Commissioner
 The Summit League

Currently in its 39th year of Division I athletics, The Summit League offers 19 championship sports and has a combined enrollment of more than 100,000 at nine institutions, including four located in top 60 U.S. metropolitan populations and two land-grant universities. Member institutions include: the University of Denver, University of Missouri-Kansas City, University of North Dakota, North Dakota State University, University of Nebraska Omaha, Oral Roberts University, University of South Dakota, South Dakota State University and Western Illinois University. University of Saint Thomas, located in St. Paul, Minn., will become the league's 10th full-time member starting in July of 2021.

The Summit League was previously known as the Mid-Continent Conference before undergoing a rebrand in 2007. The Summit League has produced 15 NCAA National Champions along with more than 125 All-Americans and 100 Academic All-Americans, including numerous student-athletes moving on to compete at the highest levels of professional sports.

Each year, approximately 3,000 student-athletes continue to raise the bar and help The Summit League reach exceptional success and development. Within its recent history, The Summit League has produced a national postseason tournament championship, an NCAA semifinal appearance, and over the last five years, South Dakota's Chris Nilsen and North Dakota State's Payton Otterdahl combined to win five individual NCAA Track and Field Championships.

In 2010, Chen Ni, a 2020 Summit League Hall of Fame Class inductee, became the league's first female student-athlete to win a NCAA individual national championship, winning the platform diving competition for IUPUI. She would go onto to repeat in 2012.

That level of success also carries into the classroom. The Summit League ranked first for NCAA Graduation Success Rate in women's basketball from 2014-16. A total of 21 Summit League teams achieved perfect NCAA Academic Progress Rate scores in the most recently released figures, while 23 other teams garnered NCAA Public Recognition Awards for top academic progress rates.

The Summit League also produces the highest quality in competition. In 2019-20, former Summit League student-athletes competed in the NBA, in MLB, on the PGA and PGA Tours and in Major League Soccer (MLS).

HISTORY

Since its inception in 1982, The Summit League has recorded several transcendent moments that resonated on the national stage. While known as the Mid-Continent Conference, the league's first two decades produced a pair of appearances in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament's Sweet 16 and the Women's College World Series as well as three individual NCAA Track and Field Champions. In the fall of 2019, the South Dakota volleyball team finished runner-up at the National Invitational Volleyball Championship.

Recently, the 2018-19 season was a banner season for the League. The Denver men's soccer team became the first program in Summit League history to be ranked No. 1 in a national poll. South Dakota and Denver became the first two volleyball programs in Summit League history to advance to the NCAA Tournament in the same season. South Dakota received the league's automatic bid to the 2018 event after knocking off top-seeded Denver in the Summit League Championship while the Pioneers earned the program's first at-large bid.

On the hardwood, two women's basketball programs from The Summit League earned bids into the NCAA field of 64 for just the second time. South Dakota State earned the automatic bid while South Dakota earned an at-large bid. The Jackrabbits became the first women's basketball program to reach the Sweet 16 in League history after defeating Quinnipiac in the first round (76-65) and No. 12 and third-seeded Syracuse in the second round (75-64). Individually, North Dakota State's Payton Otterdahl became the second man in NCAA history to sweep the shot put and weight throw events at the 2019 indoor event South Dakota's Chris Nilsen won his third individual NCAA pole vault title at the 2019 outdoor event.

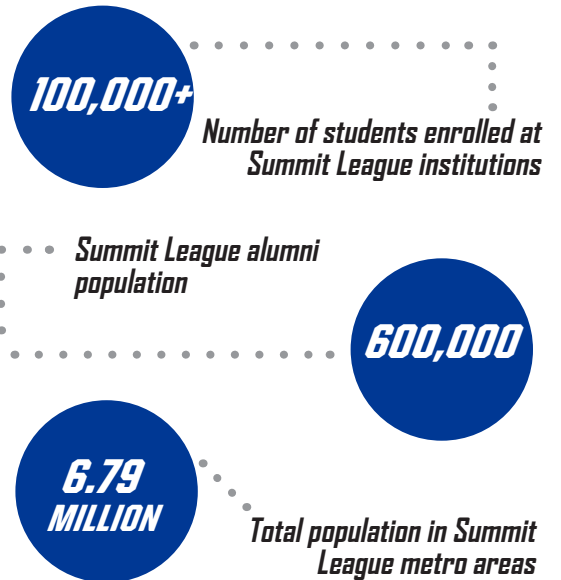

During the 2016-17 athletic year, Denver became the first Summit League team to reach an NCAA Final Four when its men's soccer team advanced to the College Cup semifinal round. Just one year earlier, South Dakota won The Summit League's first national postseason team tournament title by winning the WNIT in women's basketball. Oral Roberts gave The Summit League its initial baseball regional crown and Super Regional appearance in 2006 and three years later, North Dakota State became the league's first softball team to achieve the same feat in 2009. The 2008-09 season also saw South Dakota State's women's basketball team carry a national ranking throughout a majority of the year and cap its season with an NCAA Tournament first-round victory. In 2014, North Dakota State earned national attention with a victory in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Round of 64. NDSU finished in the national Top 25 softball rankings in 2015 and was one of seven league teams to achieve a national ranking in their respective sport that year.

Throughout its history, The Summit League has produced 12 NCAA Championships, three Olympic medalists and dozens of All-Americans. Several professional athletes and draft choices have come directly from The Summit League, including three Major League Baseball first-round picks, a pair of NBA first-round choices, a pair of Major League Soccer first-round choices and two WNBA selections.

In addition, Summit Leaguers compete on the PGA and LPGA Tours. Former Summit Leaguer Kevin Duckworth (NBA) was a two-time all-star during his professional career.

The Summit League announced the formation of its Hall of Fame during its 35th anniversary season in 2016-17 and the latest four-member class included North Dakota State's Amy (Anderson) Olson (women's golf), IUPUI's George Hill (men's basketball), IUPUI's Chen Ni (women's swimming and diving) and Oakland's Pete Hovland (coach; swimming and diving).

The display of the 2019-20 All-Sports Awards are dedicated to the student-athletes whose athletic seasons were impacted by the national shutdown of competition caused by the corona virus pandemic. The awards represent their earned right to compete and the legacy they leave behind.

Summit League Commissioner Tom Doule announced on March 23, 2020 that all five year-end trophies for the 2019-20 season, which are normally awarded to league members following the conclusion of the academic and athletic year, will be displayed permanently at the league office.

The following description will accompany the trophies: "The Display of the 2019-20 All-Sports Awards are dedicated to the student-athletes whose athletic seasons were impacted by the national shutdown of competition caused by the corona virus pandemic. The awards represent their earned right to compete and the legacy they leave behind."
