SUMMIT LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL WEEKLY NOTEBOOK

// NO. 9 (OCT. 21) //

// AROUND THE LEAGUE //

- South Dakota State took sole possession of first place in the league standings after a 2-0 week that saw the Jacks post victories against North Dakota State and South Dakota.
- The Jacks set a program record for a four-set match with 17 blocks in the win over the Coyotes.
- SDSU is rated 25th in the latest RPI rankings and is the No. 2 non-Power 4 conference team behind No. 10 Creighton.
- Denver has four players averaging 2.00 kills per set or more: Ava Reynolds, Genevieve Lewis, Jamia Johnson, and Alicia Thibodeau.
- St. Thomas coach Thanh Pham recorded his 500th career victory with the Tommies thanks to Saturday's 3-0 sweep of North Dakota State.
- The Pioneers, Tommies, and Bison all share second place in the standings with 5-2 records in Summit action.
- NDSU stays home this week for two matches against Kansas City and South Dakota. The Bison are 8-0 at home in the Bentson Bunker Fieldhouse. NDSU has also won 10 straight on their home court dating back to last season, which is the longest streak in the Summit League and is tied for the ninth-longest among all NCAA Division I programs.
- South Dakota drew 2,408 fans for its showdown with the Jackrabbits, marking the fourth consecutive year the Coyotes have hosted a home match with attendance topping 2,000.
- USD's Kamryn Farris notched her eighth match this season with 20 or more digs, recording 23 in the contest against the Jackrabbits.
- With 243 career victories, South Dakota head coach Leanne Williamson is just six wins shy of becoming the winningest coach in league history. Former Oral Roberts head coach Sheera Sirola holds the all-time record with 248 victories.
- Williamson is also five wins away from topping the list for most all-time Summit League wins. She enters this week with 142, which trails former IUPUI head coach Steve Payne (146) and Sirola (145).
- UND freshman setter Sadie White tallied 32 assists in the Fighting Hawks' match against the Tommies, surpassing the 500-assist mark for the season.
- Omaha senior Kali Jurgensmeier matched her career high with two solo blocks against Denver, while also recording 15 kills to bring her career total to 886. She now needs to average 13 kills per match over the final nine contests to reach the 1,000-kill milestone.
- Kansas City notched its first sweep of the season against Oral Roberts. Four Roos hit above the .300 mark -- the first time this season that that many players reached that figure in a single match.
- Oral Roberts is one win away from 1,000 wins as a program.
