

Product & Material List "Waiting For The Moon"

9X12" Wood Canvas

Pencil, (any kind for sketching) Eraser, Ruler, and any type of sketching paper (copy paper works great to sketch on for practice)

Acrylic Paints - Americana (Multi Surface Satin Soft Jade, Coastal Waters DecoArt Traditions - White

DecoArt Media Fluids - Blue Green Light - Diarylide Yellow - Pyrole Red, Quinacridone Magenta, Phthalo Blue, Ultramarine Blue (You can substitute colors of your choice)

Pink Color Pencil

White Gesso

Use what ever brushes you like, I like to have some flat, & round of all sizes.(you can also use a sponge brush for the background washes)

Fresh Water

Paper Towels

Baby Wipes

Soft Sponge or makeup sponge

Fine Liners filled with Black & White Acrylic Paints (or very thin liner brush)

*Fine Liners can be purchased on amazon.com.

Acrylic Sealer (Matte or Gloss (any brand but this is for when you have finished your painting).

Pastels Optional... (these I use to add a touch of vibrant colors)

You can always substitute for what you have on hand... You do not have to use the same brands that I am using and you certainly can use oil paints, water colors, pastels, Etc. for this painting.

Enjoy and create with your heart and soul.