A WORD ABOUT:
OPENING ALL YOUR GIFTS

I don't like it when people snub their noses up at other religions; why not look at the wisdom of other beliefs. Be open-minded. The more you know the less you fear. The less fear you have the smarter you are. The more you understand things the happier you are. How can you see the whole picture if you don't have all the pieces? Go and look for all the beautiful pieces God made, he made it all for a reason, that reason is you, so why not open all your beautiful gifts?

That is why I decided to look into as many other rituals/tools/symbols as I could find. I have an open mind, I'll look into it but I will only take what I find to be true and kind. The things I like are the things that stay with me, all the rest I discard. Anything that is cruel, mean or tells you to kill, maim or hurt is evil. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Choose wisely, now go open and enjoy all your wonderful gifts.

DREAMS, WEEK TWO.

Before we start lesson two lets review your dreams for the week and see what they are trying to teach you. Start writing down your dreams for the next week. (IF THIS LESSON IS NOT BEING DONE IN A CLASSROOM SETTING, PLEASE TAKE AS MUCH TIME AS YOU NEED.)

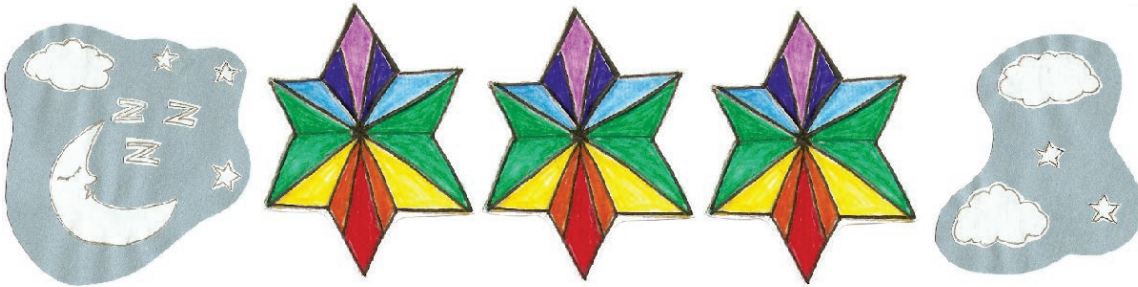

IT'S ALL IN THE WAY YOU INTERPRET THINGS; YOUR PERCEPTION.

LESSON TWO AND TEST.

THIS LESSON HAS TWO PAGES. THE SUPPLIES YOU WILL NEED ARE:

A blank book, a pen, and a dream book. I used The Dreamers Dictionary, by Lady Stearn Robinson and Tom Gorbett. I also used 10,000 dreams interpreted by Gustavus Hindman Miller. Or if you want, find your own dream book and use that.

BASIC LESSON ON DREAMS.
TRINITY

LESSON TWO, DREAMS.
Are you ready to dive in?

One night I had a dream that my brother John and I bought a house together. I ran it by him, he said sure. We got a nice house. I live up stairs with Ryan and John rented the down stairs to my roommates. Then John decided to move in downstairs. That is when I started my journals, March 1, 1993. Dreams was how I was going to get used to talking to the other side. I wanted to see if my dreams would play out in my real life. I got a dream book so I would understand what was being said to me by my guides while I slept. This is what I called our communication time, sleeping.

I found out that the beginning of sleep is a review of your life; the middle is your subconscious. The middle of the night, very often is also symbolism. The dreams you have in the middle of the night, those are the ones you will find with the most meaning. The answers to your life lessons wait for you in your dream book. And the end of the night is premonition. I had, like everyone does, my own personal signs that meant something to me but meant nothing to the next person. There is lots of symbolism in dreams. Dreams are really quite simple and fun to figure out.

When you are sick most of the time your dreams don't count. The best reader in the world is the owner and that's you. As long as you remember the feelings in the dream, you would experience somewhat the same feelings later in your real life, along with a good mix of symbols here and there. You know things like tulips means two lips have something to say to you or a phone ringing means a ring. The other side can be quite puny sometimes. I opened my mind in any way I could to communicate to the other side. Dreams are a fun way to talk to my angels, it's very personal, only you can do it, and only you will know the real truth. Look up your own dreams, remember the dream book isn't always right, but you are.

I had to say every night before I went to bed, I will remember my dreams, and then I had to say it again in the morning. In the beginning it was scary, when things started to happen to me that I had dreamed first. It was fear of the unknown. I did want to know more about where I was when I had my near death experience, I needed to know.

I would like you to see and feel how I learned to talk to the other side on a daily basis, on this earth. It was hard at first because it was so easy. It was difficult to believe that what I was receiving was true. I had to learn to believe in myself first. Once I got the hang of it, it was like riding a bike or driving, things you never forget. I'm sure I've used my sixth sense in a past life time also. So now it's just a way of life. Every day I learn a little more about my sixth sense, just like you will.

Dreams, a lifelong lesson. Meant for continuous communication with the other side, you and your guides getting to know each other. Also you getting to know yourself better, building your self-confidence and helping you grow.

It's a very personal experience between you and your guides, between you and yourself. Your guides have always been there for you and only want to help you grow. After all some of your guides used to be friends and family from one of your past lives and sometime in the future you will do the same for some of your friends and family too.

I dream in color but not all people do. If you don't, ask for color and see what happens. If you have a question, think about it all day and ask before you go to bed, remember if you were meant to know you will. The answer does not always come on the night you ask, it could come much later. Karma is always a surprise for the good and the bad, ask to learn in a good way, your guides are here to help you, they really do Love you and want nothing but the best for you.

Sometimes if you dream you are talking to someone, you are that someone talking to yourself, ex. Your mom talking to you is you talking to yourself. Mother also means Love and comfort, as you will learn from The Dreamers Dictionary. Father means authority and money. Another thing you will learn from The Dreamers Dictionary is that if you dream about someone, you will see them or some of their gang soon. The one thing I noticed as I was writing from paper to computer seven to ten and more years later, I noticed that some of the things were happening at that time. Dreams will come true even many years later. If you dream about someone that has passed away they are stopping by to say hello to you. If you dream about someone that has passed away and they have something to say to you, it is very important, listen carefully.

I also believe that there is a collective human consciousness that gathers around the earth, we can tap into that collective consciousness when we are sleeping, in our dreams. One for all and all for one. Sometimes that is also where we pick things up from the future, from the other side, warnings or special surprises from our guides. As humans we must always be open minded and be willing to grow. Growing means looking at things that are not the norm, knowing the difference between good and evil and then deciding what is best for us know matter what others say. What is right for one person at that time is not always right for another person at that time. We all learn at our own pace and that is the way God intended it to be. There are many things I believe now that I didn't think I would believe in ever but I do for now.

I would like you to find a favorite pen and a nice blank book, one that is just right for you. Write down your dreams, don't forget the date you dreamed it and leave a space for the meaning. Then get the dream book of your choice. Every morning write your dreams down along with the book meaning, after you can write down what it meant to you and how it came true later. There are nine chapters in this book, I wrote my dreams down for nine years when I could remember them, so with each chapter we will be reviewing our dreams, mine and yours. With practice you will get to know your guides and yourself so much better. You will see how much you have grown by learning about what your dreams mean to you. Have fun.

DREAM MEANING- REVIEW OF MY FRIENDS.

GAY, LESBIAN AND BI SEXUAL.

Julie told me she is a lesbian, from what I have heard we are all through reincarnation to be a man in some life times and a woman in some life times, so that we know what it is like to be both. Now sometimes we can be a man in 12 life times and never have been a woman. The next time your soul is ready to come back to earth you say I would like to be a man again. But the higher forces say no this time you must be a woman so that you know how it feels. You come back and you are not used to being a woman. There are things that you got used to while you were being a man in so many life times...like being attracted to women, so now you are a woman that likes women. And visa versa for men. Sooner or later after being in the body of a man and being in the body of a woman the soul will pick the sex that they are most comfortable with. What ever you like is what you are supposed to like at that time. Man with woman, woman with woman, man with man. Love is Love; it's all the same. Be who you are always and never let anyone tell you that your feelings are not true. Because you are the only one that knows who you are, not anyone else. You are the only one that knows what your soul needs, know your own feelings and listen to them. Always Love your heavenly self, God does. And remember God does everything for a reason.
