

Informative Approach

Hey (Name) I don't have much time to talk right now but I just (discovered/ found) something that I'm really excited about and I'd love to show you what I'm up to. (SHUT UP)

This MAY or MAY NOT be a fit for you, but I found a way to earn some extra income showing people how to save money shopping online.

The transactions are between the customer and the store so you don't have to worry about selling anything yourself.

And the BEST part is: NO investment is required.

I have a 4-minute Video that does a MUCH better job of explaining how this ALL works than I can over the phone

If I send you the video, can you watch it sometime today and let me know if you see a fit for yourself?
