As part of your child's IEP review process, we need a little information from you to draft the best IEP possible prior to meeting as a team. The more specific you can be in your responses, the more individualized we can make the draft IEP. Thank you so much for your time!

1. What are your child's strengths?
2. What motivates your child to learn or behave well?
3. Do you have any concerns with your child's learning/grades?
4. Do you have any concerns with your child's behavior?
5. What's the number one goal you want your child to accomplish over the next year?
6. Is there anything else you would like the team to consider as we develop the new IEP?
