

TRAFFIC IMPACTS

2017 Larry H. Miller Tour of Utah
Stage 2 – Tuesday, Aug. 1
Brigham City to Snowbasin Resort
Race Time 9:45 a.m. to 1:45 p.m.

Listed here are probable impact areas and timelines for motorists who will be using the same roadways as the Tour of Utah.

Brigham City Impacts

- The race, which includes professional cyclists and race caravan, will begin at 1 S Main Street in downtown Brigham City.
- Expect a closure of a portion of Main Street to begin Monday at 4 p.m. between 100 North and 100 South for race structures. Closures will also be made on Tuesday morning on Main St. to 200 South, and on Forest between 250 West and Main.
- The race will make two non-competitive “neutral” laps in downtown Brigham City, traveling in a counter-clockwise direction and using E. 100 South, N. 200 East, E. 200 North and back to Main Street. Spectators can watch the race pass on this parade-like circuit between 9:45 to 10 a.m.
- The race then proceed along E. 100 South to 200 South (State Route 90) and head east on SR 90. Brigham City will see the race pass through on Main Street (Highway 13) a second time after completing a 51-mile loop around the Wellsville Mountains. Expect the race to pass on Main Street (Highway 13) for a Utah Sports Commission Sprint line approximately 11:35 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. All roads will remain closed until after this time and should reopen to motorists by 3 p.m. on Tuesday.

START DETAIL

Wellsville Mountain Loop

- The race will merge onto State Route 89 one mile outside Brigham City and cross Sardine Canyon for the first Utah Office of Tourism King of the Mountain climb between 9:55 to 10:10 a.m.
- Seven miles from the KOM, the race will travel northbound on State Road 23/US 89 and pass through Wellsville for a Utah Sports Commission Sprint line between 10:15 to 10:35 a.m.
- Expect delays along SR 23 until 10:45 a.m. as the race travels north through Mendon and Peterborough.
- The race will turn on SR 30 to enter Box Elder County, and continue on SR 30/ SR 38 in a southbound direction to pass through Honeyville between 11:10 a.m. to 12:40 p.m.

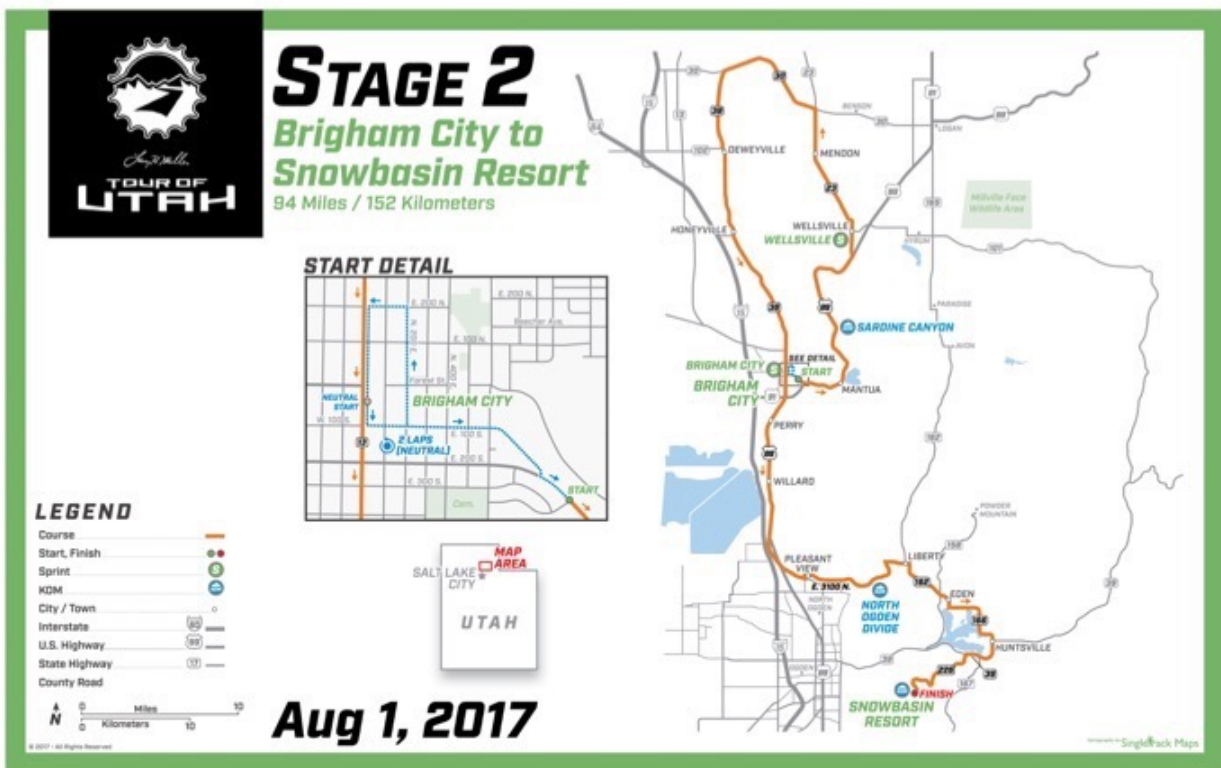

Weber County and Snowbasin Resort

- After passing through Brigham City a second time on Main Street (Highway 13) for a Utah Sports Commission Sprint line (11:35 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.), the race will continue southbound on SR 30/ SR 38.
- The race will proceed for 12.5 miles to merge onto US 89 at Pleasant View, passing through this area between Noon to 12:45 p.m.
- The race will use 600 West and Weber High Drive to cross the North Ogden Divide for the second Utah Office of Tourism KOM climb. Expect delays along N. Ogden Canyon Road between Noon to 1 p.m.
- The race will use N. 5500 East and E 1900 North to pass through Eden between 12:30 to 1:15 p.m.

- The race will use 7800 East to pass on the east side of Pineview Reservoir and Huntsville between 12:45 to 1:30 p.m.
- The race will follow State Route 39 to access Old Snowbasin Road and make the final seven-mile climb to Snowbasin Resort.
- The finish line is located at 3925 Snow Basin Road. Spectator traffic should use State Route 167 to access Harmons Healthy Living Expo, VIP Hospitality and other finish line activities at Snowbasin Resort.

Special Notice for Motorists

- Passing is NOT permitted by any motor vehicle along the road being used by the professional cyclists or authorized race caravan vehicles. Traffic is allowed to follow behind the race, but only at the same speed as the race, which averages 22 to 28 miles per hour.
- If you are traveling toward the race (in the opposite direction of the race), the Utah Highway Patrol will be controlling all traffic at certain intersections, treating this as a rolling road closure.
- Without alternate routes, please be patient as some delays may occur.

—tourofutah.com—

tourofutah.com