These services and this App comprise and are a part of the “Services,” as defined in the Connected Services Terms and Conditions. The App is available through your Device (as defined below) when it is within the operating range of a wireless carrier and through your Toyota Vehicle’s compatible multimedia system when the Vehicle is turned on. If the App is not available within your intended location, you agree that your sole remedy shall be to cease using the App and cancel your registration.

B. Scope of License. As noted in the Legal Terms, you understand and agree that the App is licensed, not sold, to you. We reserve all rights not expressly granted to you. Toyota and/or its licensors own, or have the right to license, the App and all underlying content, information, applications, and intellectual property. This license is limited to a non-transferable license to use the App only on the applicable mobile device that you own or control (e.g., iPhone, iPad, Android device), in accordance with these App Terms, and, as applicable, Google Inc.’s (“Google”) “Android Market Terms of Service” (<https://play.google.com/about/play-terms/>) or the Usage Rules set forth in the Apple Inc. This license is between Toyota and you (and not Apple or Google) and is effective until terminated by Toyota or by you. As between Toyota and Apple, Toyota is responsible for the App and the content therein, not Apple. This license does not allow you to distribute or make the App available over a network where it could be used by multiple devices at the same time. As between Toyota and Apple, Toyota is solely responsible for providing any maintenance and support Services with respect to the App as specified in these App Terms, or as required under applicable law; we and you both acknowledge that Apple has no obligation whatsoever to furnish any maintenance or support Services with respect to the App.
