Paul Goldhirsch, CLTC

Investment Adviser Representative

Paul Goldhirsch, CLTC, is an Investment Adviser Representative with Lighthouse Financial Network LLC, in Melville, New York, serving hundreds of clients from Maine to Florida. Paul is in the business of helping clients for over 26 years to protect their assets and preserve their dignity by planning for long term care. He is a 1985 graduate of State University of New York (SUNY) at Oneonta with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and History.

Paul focuses on long term care and life insurance planning. He provides comparisons and plan designs customized to meet client's individual needs which are appropriate and affordable to the clients and their family. He holds the professional designation of CLTC (Certified in Long Term Care).

Paul has first-hand knowledge and understanding of the potentially significant impact long term care can have on an individual or their family. In a caring and supportive way, he provides advice to individuals looking to help protect their hard-earned assets and maintain their financial independence and dignity. Family experiences with long term care issues drove home to him the importance of early planning.

Paul's approach to long term care planning is to educate, inform, and present all available options. He knows the importance of providing the facts about long term care so that client can make an informed decision.

Paul is available to give public seminars and group talks on the issues involving long term care insurance in America.

Paul and his wife Susan have resided in Bellmore, New York for over two decades. Together, they have three children, Matthew, Zachary and Jillian.
