Francine Pizzimenti

Registered Representative

Francine Pizzimenti is a Registered Representative with Lighthouse Financial Network, LLC, located in Melville, NY. Fran began her career in marketing in 1983. She went on to become a Financial Representative in 1988 and in 2017 became a Registered Representative.

Fran focuses on working with physicians and other professionals, as well as individuals and families to evaluate different options in order to help achieve their goals and implement a strategy to meet objectives. She has been successful in doing this with her clients for over three decades. She understands that no single approach is the right one for every individual. She follows a process that builds a trusting relationship with all her clients. She works closely with a team of experienced professionals that assist in making investment and insurance solutions for her clients. Francine maintains her FINRA Series 6 & 63 registrations along with Life, Accident, Health and Long Term Health Care licenses in multiple states.

Fran is a unique individual with exceptional qualities. Her greatest strengths are creativity, drive, and leadership. Fran's fusion of real-life stories and her conversational techniques connect with her clients at an intimate, intense, and individual level. She understands that no single approach is the right one for every individual.

Fran is actively involved with community activities, charity events, and outreach programs. She volunteered for numerous charity events, helping children in need. She enjoys going to the gym and working with her trainer in order to maintain her healthy lifestyle. Fran currently resides in Merrick, NY with her family.

Fran has dedicated herself to understanding the complexities involved in the various aspects of planning and applying that knowledge for the benefit of her clients.
