Way back when, in 1927, the masonry constructed Insurance Center Building was home to Chicago's elite insurance companies. This historic, 16 story Neo-gothic beaut has been a long time "renaissance man" due to its vicinity to the precious L train and Loop commodities. Today, 330 South Wells has transformed into a multi-faceted, deliciously rehabbed space for co-workers and co-habitators.

Our 16 stories are separated into retail, offices, and apartments, yet all are able to enjoy the perks of a bike room, fitness center, and rooftop lounge.
