

Private Education Loan Disclosures

Trevecca maintains a list of private lenders at www.trevecca.edu/privateloans. This grouping of lenders is a historical list based solely on previous selection by Trevecca students. There is no other basis for the selection criteria and Trevecca does not receive any financial benefit from private loan lenders.

You are free to choose any lender even if they are not on the list. If you have borrowed previously, we suggest you remain with that lender. If you do select a different lender, be aware of the advantages and disadvantages of your decision.
