

Jake Nidiffer

SENIOR BROKERAGE ASSOCIATE

Jake Nidiffer works closely with the firm's Partners and brokers on their full-service listing portfolio. Jake primarily focuses on representing tenants and landlords, mostly with flex and industrial product in South Carolina. Jake also boasts the ability to identify and represent commercial real estate investment opportunities, as well as acquisitions, involving undeveloped commercial and recreational land tracts across the state.

Jake is committed to offering quality, full-service expertise with an individualized touch to every client he serves. His boots-on-the-ground workstyle means he knows the market inside and out. Thus, he is skilled at providing clients and colleagues unrivaled market insight and data.

Prior to joining Trinity Partners, Jake worked as an associate at NAI Avant. He quickly developed a strong client base, entrenched himself in the Midlands' commercial real estate industry and has maintained his strong rapport.

Jake earned his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Newberry College. As an undergrad, he also earned several athletic awards as a pitcher on the baseball team. He is actively involved in the South Carolina Economic Development Association, Columbia East Rotary, Junior Achievement of Greater SC, and Central SC Alliance.
