

Ryan Causey

SENIOR BROKERAGE ASSOCIATE

Ryan Causey focuses primarily on office and industrial assets. Ryan assists his clients across multiple transaction types to include landlord and tenant representation, land acquisition for development, investment analysis, and investment purchase and sales. Ryan's strengths include providing value for his clients through a detail focused approach and quickly responding to client needs throughout the real estate process.

Prior to joining Trinity Partners, Ryan worked as a broker for NAI Columbia specializing in office and industrial sales and leasing. His previous experience also includes sales and operations management, giving him a strong understanding of the challenges business owners are faced with daily.

Ryan is a graduate of The Citadel in Charleston, SC. After graduating, Ryan served in the United States Army and South Carolina Army National Guard to include one tour to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom from 2011-2012.

Ryan serves the City of Columbia and the midlands of South Carolina through several roles outside of Trinity Partners. Ryan is a member of the City of Columbia Planning Commission, serves on the boards for both Kiwanis Club of Columbia and The Salvation Army of the Midlands. Ryan is also a member of the United Way of the Midlands Toqueville Society and a Trade Division Chairman for the 2022-2023 campaign.
