Options for Educators

Preliminary Credentials

Interested in becoming a social justice educator? Join our Preliminary Teaching Credential Program where you can obtain a Multiple Subject Teaching Credential or an Education Specialist Mild/Moderate Credential.

Program highlights:
• Completed in a 12-month period (4 quarters)
• Classes held on two nights a week from 4:00 pm–10:00 pm
• Small class sizes provide more individualized support from professors.

Master of Arts Degree

MASTER OF ARTS DEGREE IN EDUCATION

Candidates have the option to complete the Master of Arts Degree along with the credential, which is an additional 4 quarters of half-time work after the Credential is completed.

MASTER OF ARTS DEGREE IN EDUCATION, LEADERSHIP AND CHANGE EMPHASIS

Program highlights:
• Completed in 18 months or 6 quarters
• Half-time (six-nine units each quarter)
• 45 quarter units to complete the degree
• Monday and/or Wednesday evening classes between 4:00 pm–6:50 pm and 7:00 pm–9:50 pm
• Individualized, dialogue-based inquiry into education as leadership for social justice (for teachers, administrators, community-based educators, and other progressive leaders who seek to encourage inclusive and sustainable learning communities in their organizations)

Fast Track Program

Are you currently a Teacher’s Aide and have not yet earned your Bachelor of Arts degree? Our Fast Track program might be just what you are looking for!

Program highlights:
• Complete your bachelor’s degree by taking our teacher preparation classes
• Earn your teaching credential in just two additional quarters (as opposed to the full year required by most programs in California)
• We offer the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) Accredited Multiple Subject and Education Specialist credentials

Induction Credential Program

Are you a new teacher who has not yet cleared your Multiple Subject, Single Subject or Education Specialist preliminary credential? Antioch University’s Induction Credential program is California Commission on Teacher Credentialing accredited.

Program highlights:
• Six quarters (two years)
• Twelve units
• $750 per quarter for a total of $4,500
• Accepting applications for the fall, winter, and spring quarters
• Earned units apply to the Master of Arts Degree
• Early Completion Option available
