Foreword by Conference Master

Dear Youths,

Greetings in our Lord's blessed name! We thank God for His grace and provision in allowing us to have this Conference, even amidst the uncertainty of this pandemic. Truly, our sovereign Lord is in control of all things, and He will provide for His children.

Over the next 4 days, several messages, discussions, and activities have been lined up for your spiritual benefit. We encourage all of you to set aside any distractions and prepare your hearts to receive God's Word in humility and sincerity.

The theme of this year's Conference is "Living for Life Above", taken from Colossians 3:1-5. As Christians, we have died to sin. Being risen with Christ, we now seek to glorify God for who He is and what He has done for us. However, as we journey through life, we find that there are still numerous distractions that might rob us of our time, effort and energy, and thus hinder us from serving the Lord as effectively as we can. As we begin this Conference, it would be useful to reflect on what these hindrances are in our lives. How have these things affected our walk with God? Have we set aside the cares of the world to strive for things above?

We are pilgrims and strangers on this earth, and God has placed us where we are so that we may live for Him and do His will. Over the course of this Conference, our speaker Brother Samuel Joseph will touch on how Colossians 3:1-5 may be applied into our lives, be it in church, at home, in school or at work. May we be receptive to God's Word and search ourselves, discerning how we may better live with eternity's values in view.

As a committee, it is our desire and prayer that all of us may gain a better understanding of what it truly means to "live for life above". Truly, the days that we have on this earth are numbered, and there is such a great urgency to number our days and apply our hearts unto wisdom. Let us mortify the flesh and put on virtue as we live for our Lord who loves us so.

May you find this Conference a blessing and may Christ's name be praised!

In Christ,
Gabriel Tham
CYC 2021 Organising Committee Chairman

Theme Verse

Colossians 3:1-5

“If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry.”
