Outstanding examples of persons in every race who have developed spiritual qualities that match or even exceed those spiritual leaders. So many in the Hindu high-caste that to mention them would be to omit many who are equally as great among their devoted followers. For Buddha is doubtless the best known to the Western world, but there are other saints, souls
who are venerated by their worshippers. Zoroaster and Mohammed will answer to you
as extraordinary men in the superhuman class.

These men developed superior abilities, the awakening of
in their souls a certain intangi-genius which is common to all men. The great creative mind is no respecter of persons.
Like the air we breathe is a spiritual element open to us all when we seek it. But we must seek, then we shall find.

He that seeketh shall find,
but believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of those that seek after him.

Were preserved by the followers of Jesus. There were disputes as to which were authentic or canonical. For 300 years, certain Bishops of the church, 316 of them, got together at Nice and discussed in a turbulent convention whether or not some multitude of Scripture should be admitted to the canon of sacred writings. Our Bible represents their choice.

We have believed that our Bible is infallible, that it is the unadulterated word of God transmitted to the minds of men by God, and that it contains nothing but literal truth.

Comparison of the King James or Authorised Version with the MSs from which our Bible by scholars Greek and Hebrew, thousands, and many thousands, of them. So we are forced to the conclusion that all sacred writings, however pure their writers in their perception of God’s mind, have put a oration of their own personality into their transcriptions. All writing is second or secular, are tinged, by the mental bias of those who put the pen to paper.

“There is a Spirit in man and the inspiration of the Almighty to give them understanding.”

The Spirit in man is the one and only interpretation of sacred writings.

It is good to read the Bible and its interpreters, but do not let the writings nor their interpreters be the one and only authority of truth for you.
Jesus often quotes from the books of Moses but he is not always in agreement with what was written as Church authority by Moses. He said, "It is written in your law an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, but I say unto you that ye love your enemies and do good to those that despitefully use you.

So Jesus reproaches those who, like the Pharisees, look to the Scriptures as supreme authority. He said to them, "Ye search the Scriptures for in them ye think ye have eternal life, but these are they which testify of me, and ye will not come unto me."
At a certain meeting of the Board of Aldermen it was proposed that they buy some $100 worth of goats for Central Park.

It was suggested to buy a dog
than only $15 for economy's sake. At this price a little goat would drink
bubbled up and be hairless.

"Mr. President, I would you that one do not waste
the city's money by buying 12 goats for $100. Even 6
would cost over $20 a year.

Let nature do her work."
Matt. 12:22

"Then there was brought to him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb; and he healed him, insomuch that the blind dumb man spake and saw."

(Then Jesus was accused of casting out devils by the prince of devils—Beelzebub.

Matt. 17:15

Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic, and, and rebuked him; and the demon went out of him; and the boy was cured from that hour.

Mary Magdalena—7 devils out.
Luke 4:1—Devils, demons, shades, evil, error
A man had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a low voice: "What have I to do with thee, Jesus Simon Nazarene, art thou come to destroy me?"
Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Hold thy peace and come out of him."
And amazement came upon all, and they spake together, saying, "What is this Word? for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out!"
Luke 9:11" And he called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons.
washing and ironing, and the obediently does it. And yet no one knows what abstract it is.

It is a great mystery, and like God, our greatest Servant, Jesus said, "He that would be greatest among you let him be your servant."
The electron lies in the atom—
So spirit is his in soul,

Spirit life is Christ

His from ages and generations—
Great mystery—Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Difference between spirit and soul

Christ is not asleep in us—We are asleep as to the Christ spirit.

"Your life is hid with Christ in God."

Science says life is a great mystery.

The more powerful a thing, the greater its power,

Man a mystery to himself,

Man the Word or Logos of God
