It was in 1934 while walking on 7th Ave. I saw sign "come in rest and pray, Noon Day Silence. I was on my way to get ingredients for soup at that time my husband was called a arthritis patient having attacks for over 20 years, but at this time it became severe, causing confinement to bed. I slipped in, sat on last seat. The talk was on healing at the close of meeting, the teacher came to door, and as I passed she said "you are not smiling" I said "my husband is very sick with a she said "I do not know what it is, but, His grace is sufficient for all things." It was like sunshine thru the rain, I long to be where I could repeat it over and over again. I left him at night to rest, my daughter sat up with him. The next morning he said "I am going to get well, go up, improved, now entirely well, it started me on to study, I attended Sunday School for 3 years missing five sundays in that time. First I was asked to take Monday Class, then to be leader. In these years I have been blessed to have other healings. I worked in Hospital as a therapist and a patient with arthritis hands, and another with knot on arm to be healed almost instantly. Myself healed of heart condition. Truly I can say "His grace is sufficient for all things. I have or had prayed to be a Healer, but one day in meditation the truth came to me, it is just as much a blessing to teach the law of prevention, as to heal a condition. Now I give thanks to behold others as they are in Spirit, and know I get the land I see. Nothing but Good. Thank you and "God bless you every one"
