

WEEKLY UNITY

Unity Building, 913 Tracy Avenue

VOL. II KANSAS CITY, MO., THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1910 NO. 11

MORE GOOD WORDS

The following encouraging words of appreciation came in a recent letter. We publish them here for we feel sure that all the readers of the WEEKLY UNITY will be glad to know that it is proving interesting and helpful to those outside as well as the local readers.

Denver, Col.

DEAR WEEKLY UNITY.—Am so glad to learn, by paper received today, that you are still distributing the Prosperity Banks and that they are for outsiders as well as local people. Had wanted one, but understood had to call for one—i. e., not available. Please renew my subscription to the WEEKLY UNITY under your offer, enroll me for the month's prosperity treatment, and send the bank. The WEEKLY UNITY is a most welcome visitor and always read from beginning to end. I never fail to find a blessing therein. The special word for me in today's number is, "Remember to let your lightest words conform to the Truth." I believe this has been a frequent cause of stumbling with me for undoubtedly the light words—the apparently superficial—are the index of the subconscious thought.

Very sincerely, and with genuine appreciation of every branch of Unity work.

—L. J. H.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held Friday, July 29th, at 2:30 p. m., in the Parlors. Let every member be present. An invitation to all women of the congregation is cordially extended. Come and join the Auxiliary. Mrs. M. C. O'NEILL, Sec'y.

UNITY GUILD ENTERTAINMENT

On account of the circus, no doubt, all of the Unity people did not attend the entertainment given by the Unity Guild last Tuesday night. However, those who did come were well repaid for the effort it cost them. We doubt if the circus brought the true enjoyment to its spectators that the music, recitations and refreshments brought to the ones who came last Tuesday evening. The net receipts were something more than $20.00.

The numbers of the programme were furnished by the following: Miss Mabel Bell, Miss Edna L. Carter, Miss Cora Green, Miss Nell Sullivan, Mr. Rickert Fillmore, Miss Gertrude Shackelford, Mrs. J. A. Comstock, Misses Dorothy and Eleanor Hatch, and Mr. Royal Fillmore. Every number was roundly applauded. Refreshments in the form of ice cream cones were passed during the Orchestrelle numbers and punch was served in the parlor.

We wish all music lovers could have been present.

NOTES FROM THE FIELD

Mrs. Marion Austin Drake, our well known teacher and healer, is now in Lincoln, Nebraska, responding to a special call for her services. While there she may be engaged for class work in instruction in the principles of the Science of Being, or for healing.

Mrs. Drake's life is consecrated to the spread of the Gospel of Truth and all her energies are devoted to the work. She is a woman of ability and rich experience, benefiting and uplifting all people wherever she ministers. Address Mrs. Marion Austin Drake, 208 East 27th st., University Place, Lincoln, Neb.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE UNITY SOCIETY

VOL. 2 $1.00 per year, 2 cts. per copy No. 11

Buttons were awarded to the following prompt scholars last Sunday morning: Mrs. Sloan, Mrs. Pruitt and Henry Christal.

The person who left the book, "The Solitude of Nature and of Man," with Mrs. Van Marter can get it from Mrs. Mathews in the Unity parlors.

The management at the Unity Inn is receiving much encouragement. People are telling each other how good the meals are and how restful and quiet the atmosphere of the Inn seems. A little note which contained a five dollar bill and ran as follows, was not the least word of encouragement received:

"For the Inn, in appreciation of the fact that it is being run on Principle."

UNITY GUILD PICNIC

Notwithstanding the intense heat, the members of Unity Guild and their friends enjoyed a most pleasant outing Saturday afternoon and evening at Budd Park. Each member realizing that a picnic was not complete without refreshments, brought an abundance of "good things to eat." A committee having been appointed to serve, a most tempting, delicate but substantial luncheon was spread. Gold, the Guild color, was very prominent; bouquets of flowers added to the beauty of the table; and having an abundance of Love and Good-will sprinkled in, a most delightful luncheon was enjoyed. After partaking of this tempting array of delicious eatables, a time was spent in recreation, when each one entered into the "Joy of living"; but that was not all, a second repast was prepared. When the moon was doing her best to furnish sufficient light, ice cold watermelons were served; but these young people, having learned temperance, felt no ill effects.

Soon after the crowd dispersed and went merrily and happily to their homes.

The next day being Sunday found these same young people in their places at Sunday School wearing "On Time" tags.

THE UNITY INN

Unity Inn is now open under new management, and everything promises success. The building has been painted on the outside and some of the rooms have been newly papered. The manager is entirely consecrated to the work of the Lord, and, being himself a vegetarian, and believing thoroughly in vegetarian principles, he puts into the Inn's affairs the force of his faith. He is also firmly grounded in the understanding of the Law of Giving and Receiving, upon which the rule of free-will offerings is based, and very consistently believes that, being founded in Principle, it can be demonstrated along all lines.

Good meals are now being served three times a day. Let us all give this branch of the Unity work our hearty co-operation and support.

RESPONSIVE SERVICE

Sunday, July 24

Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God.

Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Judge not that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

For every one that asketh receiveth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

For where your treasure is there will your heart be also.

The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

If thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee;

Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

THINGS TO FORGET

If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd,
A leader of men, marching fearless and proud,

And you know of a tale whose mere telling aloud,

Would cause his proud heart to in anguish be bowed,

It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a skeleton hidden away
In a closet, and guarded, and kept from the day

In the dark; and whose showing, whose sudden display,

Would cause grief and sorrow and life-long dismay,

It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a thing that will darken the joy

Of a man or a woman, a girl or a boy,
That will wipe out a smile, or the least way annoy

A fellow, or cause any gladness to cloy,

It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

—Clipped.

ONE ON THE TEACHER

Teacher (to dull boy in mathematics): You should be ashamed of yourself. Why, at your age George Washington was a surveyor.

Pupil: Yes, sir; and at your age he was President of the United States.—Selected.

Want a picture of the fellow who deceives you oftenest? Look in the mirror.

When a man tries to get something for nothing—the only thing he usually acquires is experience.—The Westerner.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED

Remember to keep smiling—yes, and also,

Remember to let Love in you give other people that which will induce a happy spontaneous smile in them.

Remember that the best way to overcome troubles is to forget them.

Remember that a good thought faithfully held in the mind is sure to bring results after its kind.

Remember that a true statement in time saves nine doctor bills.

Remember that the teachings of Unity are practical; if you are not applying them to your affairs you are losing the best part of them.

Remember that there are always healers in the Unity parlors at your service.

Remember that books along metaphysical lines are sold and loaned from the Unity Library on the first floor of the Building.

Remember the Prosperity Banks.

Remember that a good vegetarian meal can be had at Unity Inn directly after the Sunday morning service.

Remember that one and one make two: if every member of the Unity Society would bring one new member the good work done at this center would be doubled.

Remember that applications for membership will be received at the Board meeting, Monday evening, July 31st.

Remember that this paper is going to grow and it needs the co-operation of you who are reading this now.

Teacher—"What is your father's occupation?"

Little Boy—"I can't tell you."

Teacher—"But you must."

Little Boy—"My father doesn't want me to tell."

Teacher—"I insist on your telling me. I have to know."

Little Boy (tearfully)—"He's—he's the fat lady at the museum."—Youth's Companion.
