

Earl Bright

ExploraMed Development, LLC, Mountain View, CA, USA

Earl (Eb) has many years of technology development, company formation and financing experience. He is a co-founder of and serves on the Alliance for U.S. Startups & Inventors for Jobs (USIJ) Advisory Committee. Previously, Eb was Director of Intellectual Property West Coast Operations at Guidant Corporation where he directed a 9-member team involved in litigation and the strategic development of over 1300 patent and trademark applications as well as handling legal issues for Guidant Japan and the Compass Group. He is an inventor on 15 U.S. issued patents with others currently pending. He holds M.B.A.s from Columbia University and University of California, Berkeley, and Juris Doctorate and B.S. in Mechanical Engineering degrees from the University of Oklahoma.

Monte Cooper

Goodwin Procter LLP, Redwood City, CA, USA

Monte is Senior Counsel Goodwin Procter LLP's Silicon Valley office and is a member of the firm's Intellectual Property Litigation Group. The focus of his practice is on patent and copyright litigation, particularly contexts that involve computer software and hardware, as well as network-related applications. He has represented many hi-tech companies in complex and high-profile patent litigation. Monte is a frequent speaker and writer on cutting-edge IP topics, and regularly contributes to his firm's appellate issues and Supreme Court practice. He also provides guidance on complex intellectual property licensing obligations. Prior to joining Goodwin, Monte was of Counsel at Orrick. He also was associated with firms in Pasadena, CA and Denver, CO. Monte the liaison between the Steering Committees for The Sedona Conference's Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies and Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices and Working Group 12 on Trade Secrets (WG12).

Hon. Makan Delrahim

U.S. Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, Washington, D.C., USA

Makan was confirmed on September 27, 2017, as Assistant Attorney General for the Antitrust Division. He previously served as Deputy Assistant to the President and Deputy White House Counsel. Makan's rich antitrust background covers the full range of industries, issues, and institutions touched upon by the work of the Antitrust Division. He is a former partner in the Los Angeles office of a national law firm. He served in the Antitrust Division from 2003 to 2005 as a Deputy Assistant Attorney General, overseeing the Appellate, Foreign Commerce, and Legal Policy sections. During that time, he played an integral role in building the Antitrust Division's engagement with its international counterparts and was involved in civil and criminal matters. He has served on the Attorney General's Task Force on Intellectual Property and as Chairman of the Merger Working Group of the International Competition Network. Makan was also a Commissioner on the Antitrust Modernization Commission from 2004 to 2007. Earlier in his career, he served as antitrust counsel, and later as the Staff Director and Chief Counsel of the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee.

The Sedona Conference Patent Conference: Promoting Invention,
Entrepreneurship, Economic Growth, and Job Creation (Part 2)

Covington Law Offices, Washington, DC

June 28, 2019

Dialogue Leaders

Henry Hadad

Bristol-Meyers Squibb Company, Princeton, NJ

Henry is Senior Vice President and Deputy General Counsel at Bristol-Myers Squibb, responsible for all aspects of IP procurement, counseling, litigation, and policy. Previously he was Chief IP Counsel at Schering-Plough Corporation, held roles at Johnson & Johnson, and in private practice. Henry is a board member and president of the Intellectual Property Owners Association. He is an active member of numerous IP organizations, and a former member of The Sedona Conference Working Group on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) Steering Committee. Henry was an adjunct professor at Seton Hall Law School, and frequently presents on intellectual property topics. Henry holds a B.S. in Biology from Haverford College and a J.D., cum laude, from the American University, Washington College of Law.

Azra Hadzimehmedovic

Tensegrity Law Group, McLean, VA, USA

Azra is a partner at Tensegrity Law Group, and has extensive experience litigating complex patent cases in U.S. district courts, the ITC, and the International Chamber of Commerce. She has litigated significant patent matters for industry-leading companies in diverse technology areas, including computers; semiconductor devices, processing, and packaging; software; Wi-Fi- and location services; content delivery network services; pharmaceuticals; and medical devices. Prior to joining Tensegrity Law Group LLP in 2011, she was a litigation associate at Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP. Before practicing law, Azra worked as a scientist and technical editor for the United States Pharmacopeia, an official standards-setting authority for medicines and other health-care products. At Berkeley, she received the Stephen Finney Jamison Award.

Gary M. Hoffman

Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, McLean, VA, USA

Gary is a senior counsel at Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP. His practice focuses on intellectual property law, unfair competition, and computer law, which included litigation, licensing, and the creation of asset management programs. In more than 40 years of private practice, Gary has participated in more than 160 intellectual property lawsuits, serving as lead counsel in over 70% of them, and consulted on over 100 additional patent lawsuits. These actions involved patent, trademark, copyright, antitrust, trade secret, and unfair competition disputes. Additionally, he has prepared more than 200 licensing agreements and has established programs for the acquisition and management of intellectual property rights. After retirement, Gary established a consulting practice and has recently joined the Pillsbury firm. He is Chair Emeritus of The Sedona Conference Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10).

The Sedona Conference Patent Conference: Promoting Invention,
Entrepreneurship, Economic Growth, and Job Creation (Part 2)

Covington Law Offices, Washington, DC

June 28, 2019

Dialogue Leaders

Hon. Andrei Iancu

USPTO, Alexandria, VA, USA

In his role as the Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, Andrei provides leadership and oversight to one of the largest intellectual property offices in the world. He also serves as the principal advisor to the President, through the Secretary of Commerce, on domestic and international intellectual property policy matters. Prior to joining the USPTO, Andrei was the Managing Partner at Irell & Manella LLP, focusing on intellectual property litigation. He appeared in a variety of high-profile matters in front of the USPTO, U.S. district courts, the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and the U.S. International Trade Commission. He has represented clients across the technical and scientific spectra. Andrei taught patent law at the UCLA School of Law and has written and spoken publicly on a variety of intellectual property issues. Prior to his legal career, he was an engineer at Hughes Aircraft Company. Among his legal community accolades, the Daily Journal, California Lawyer magazine, Los Angeles Business Journal, Chambers USA, Best Lawyers in America, and many others have acknowledged his expertise in commercial litigation and intellectual property law. He has been the recipient of the Patent and Trademark Office Society 36th Annual Rossman Award, the Hughes Aircraft Malcolm R. Currie Innovation Award, and the Melville B. Nimmer Copyright Award. Andrei holds a J.D. from the UCLA School of Law. He has a M.S. in Mechanical Engineering and a B.S. in Aerospace Engineering, both from UCLA.

David J. Kappos

Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP, New York, NY, USA

David is a partner at Cravath. He is widely recognized as one of the world's foremost leaders in the field of intellectual property, including intellectual property management and strategy, the development of global intellectual property norms, laws and practices as well as commercialization and enforcement of innovation-based assets. David supports the firm's clients with a wide range of their most complex intellectual property issues. From August 2009 to January 2013, David served as Under Secretary of Commerce and Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. In that role, he advised the President, Secretary of Commerce and the Administration on intellectual property policy matters. As Director of the USPTO, he was instrumental in achieving the greatest legislative reform of the U.S. patent system in generations through passage and implementation of the Leahy-Smith America Invents Act signed into law by the President in September 2011. Prior to leading the USPTO, David held several executive posts in the legal department of IBM, the world's largest patent holder. From 2003 to 2009, he served as the company's Vice President and Assistant General Counsel for Intellectual Property. David received a B.S. summa cum laude in electrical and computer engineering from the University of California, Davis in 1983 and a J.D. from the University of California, Berkeley in 1990.

Kristina Caggiano Kelly

Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox P.L.L.C., Washington, D.C., USA

Kristina is counsel in Sterne Kessler's Trial & Appellate Practice Group, representing clients in all stages of litigation before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board, district courts, Federal Circuit, and Supreme Court. She has experience in both litigation and patent prosecution in a wide variety of technological areas, including Hatch-Waxman filings, International Trade Commission investigations, and opinion work. Previously, Kristina practiced intellectual property law, as well as government contracts, administrative law, and other complex commercial litigation. She also has industry experience in drug design and development. Kristina received her J.D., Wharton Certificate in Business and Public Policy, from the University of Pennsylvania School of Law, her B.A. in molecular biology and biochemistry from Rutgers University, and her B.A. in philosophy from Rutgers University.

Steven Lieberman

Rothwell, Figg, Ernst & Manbeck, P.C., Washington, D.C., USA

Steven is a shareholder at the Washington, D.C. intellectual property firm of Rothwell, Figg, Ernst & Manbeck, P.C. He has been litigating patent and other intellectual property cases since 1991, and he has served as lead counsel in numerous lawsuits in the pharmaceutical, biotech, veterinary, and medical products fields, including handling more than 30 Hatch-Waxman litigations. Steven has experience representing both generic and brand name companies across district courts, the Federal Circuit, and the International Trade Commission. He also handles and argues post-grant proceedings (IPRs and CBMs) created by the America Invents Act, and he regularly advises clients on biosimilars issues. Steven received a B.A. degree from Princeton University, summa cum laude, in 1980 and a J.D. degree from Columbia University Law School in 1984.

Hon. Paul R. Michel (ret.)

Alexandria, VA, USA

Judge Michel served on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit for 22 years, starting in March 1988. From December 2004 until his retirement in May 2010, he was the court's Chief Judge and a member of the Judicial Conference of the United States, the governing body of the Judiciary, and its seven-judge Executive Committee. Judge Michel is the recipient of the Jefferson Medal, the Frederico Award, the Katz-Kiley Prize, the Eli Whitney Prize, The Sedona Conference Lifetime Achievement Award, and awards by the ABA Section on Intellectual Property, the AIPLA, the IPO Association, the Linn Intellectual Property American Inn of Court, and other leading organizations. He was named one of the 50 most influential leaders in intellectual property in the world by Managing Intellectual Property Magazine and inducted into Intellectual Asset Management Magazine's International Hall of Fame. Since stepping down from the court, he has conducted mediations, arbitrations, mock trials, moot courts, and case evaluations in IP cases as a solo consultant. A frequent speaker on IP subjects, he has also testified before Congress on patent reform legislation. Judge Michel is currently serving as a Judicial Advisor for The Sedona Conference's Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) Steering Committees, and is a Chair Emeritus of WG10.

George F. Pappas

Covington & Burling LLP, Washington, D.C., USA

George has successfully represented clients across a broad range of industries including pharmaceutical, medical device, biotechnology, computer and electronics, software, telecommunications, and the financial services industry. He is ranked in the top tier of lawyers for intellectual property by Chambers USA. George is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and was Chairman of its Complex Litigation Committee from 2009-2011. He is also Chairman of the Editorial Committee and one of the co-authors of the book, Anatomy of a Patent Case (2009; 2012 2nd ed.), prepared by the Complex Litigation Committee of the American College of Trial Lawyers and published in conjunction with the Federal Judicial Center. He also is on the Practitioner and Academic Advisory Board of the Patent Case Management Judicial Guide (2009). George has presented programs on patent law issues at 37 FJC National Workshops for federal district and magistrate judges. He also serves as a member of the District of New Jersey Local Patent Rules Committee. George is a member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10).

Hon. Noah Joshua Phillips

FTC, Washington, D.C., USA

Following his nomination by President Donald J. Trump and unanimous confirmation by the U.S. Senate, Noah was sworn in as a Commissioner on the Federal Trade Commission on May 2, 2018. Before coming to the FTC, Commissioner Phillips served as Chief Counsel to U.S. Senator John Cornyn, of Texas, on the Senate Judiciary Committee. From 2011 to 2018, he advised Senator Cornyn on legal and policy matters including antitrust, constitutional law, consumer privacy, fraud, and intellectual property. Prior to his Senate service, Commissioner Phillips worked as a litigator at Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP, in New York City, and Steptoe & Johnson LLP, in Washington, D.C. Commissioner Phillips began his career at Wasserstein Perella & Co., an investment bank in New York City. Commissioner Phillips received his A.B. from Dartmouth College and his J.D. from Stanford Law School.

Hon. Randall R. Rader (ret.)

The Rader Group, Alexandria, VA, USA

For over 25 years, Judge Rader has been a thought leader in the field of intellectual property law and jurisprudence. Judge Rader was appointed to the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit by President George H. W. Bush in 1990 and assumed the duties of Chief Judge on June 1, 2010. He was appointed to the U. S. Claims Court (now the U. S. Court of Federal Claims) by President Ronald W. Reagan in 1988. Since leaving the bench in 2014, Judge Rader has founded the Rader Group, initially focusing on arbitration, mediation, and legal consulting and legal education services. Judge Rader has presided over a major arbitration under ICC rules in Paris; conducted mediations to settle ongoing litigation; joined law faculty at Tsinghua University; conducted full-credit courses at leading law schools in Washington, D.C., Seattle, Santa Clara, Bangkok, Seoul, Tokyo, Munich; consulted with major corporations and law firms on IP policy and litigation; and advised foreign governments on international IP standards.

Colman B. Ragan

Teva Pharmaceuticals USA Inc., Parsippany, NJ, USA

Colman is Vice President & General Counsel, North America IP Litigation at Teva Pharmaceuticals, where he focuses on patent litigation in the U.S and Canada, including litigation arising under the Hatch-Waxman. Colman also works closely with both Teva's Government Affairs department and pharmaceutical trade associations regarding legislative initiatives. Before joining Teva, he was in-house at Allergan plc (formerly Actavis plc). Prior to moving in-house, Colman was an associate at Willkie Farr & Gallagher and Kenyon & Kenyon where his practice focused on Hatch-Waxman litigation for branded, generic, and specialty pharmaceutical companies. He received his J.D. from Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, and bachelor's degrees in both chemistry and Physics from Miami University. Prior to attending law school, Colman was a medicinal chemist in drug discovery at Pfizer, Inc. in Groton, CT. He is also an officer and a member of the board of directors of the NYIPLA.

Philipp Rastemborski

Meissner Bolte, Munich, Germany

Philipp is a German-qualified attorney-at-law and a certified IP specialist in the Munich office of Meissner Bolte, a boutique IP law firm. His work focuses on complex patent infringement and invalidity cases tried before national courts, PTOs and arbitration bodies. Philipp's expertise is in disputes involving SEPs, often at the intersection of IP and antitrust law. His cases are commonly international, and works with legal advisers from across Europe, the US and Japan, on multi-jurisdictional patent litigation strategies. He also advises on IP licensing strategies and IP-driven R&D projects. Philipp is a member of the Licensing Executives Society (LES) and the German Association for Intellectual Property and Copyright (GRUR).

The Sedona Conference Patent Conference: Promoting Invention,
Entrepreneurship, Economic Growth, and Job Creation (Part 2)

Covington Law Offices, Washington, DC

June 28, 2019

Dialogue Leaders

Teresa Rea

Crowell & Moring LLP, Washington, D.C., USA

Teresa “Terry” is a co-vice chair of the Intellectual Property Group at Crowell & Moring LLP, in Washington, DC. Prior to joining Crowell, she served as Acting Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property, and Acting Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). Terry focuses on intellectual property and dispute resolution related to pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and other life science issues. Terry is the former president of the American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA) and a past president of the National Inventors Hall of Fame. She is a licensed pharmacist. Terry obtained her Juris Doctor degree from Wayne State University and her Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Michigan. Managing IP identified her as one of the Top 50 Most Influential People in Intellectual Property (2013). IAM Strategy 300 selected her as one of The World’s Leading IP Strategists (2015). She was also named one of Law360’s Top 25 Icons of IP (2016). In 2018, she received the Patent and Trademark Office Society’s Pasquale J. Federico Memorial Award in recognition of her outstanding contributions to the patent and trademark systems of the United States. Terry is Vice-Chair of The Sedona Conference Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) and is a member of Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) Steering Committee.

Hon. Rebecca Kelly Slaughter

Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C., USA

Commissioner Slaughter was sworn in as a Federal Trade Commissioner in May 2018. Prior to joining the Commission, she served as Chief Counsel to Senator Charles Schumer. She advised Senator Schumer on legal, competition, telecom, privacy, consumer protection, and intellectual property matters, among other issues. Prior to joining Senator Schumer’s office, Commissioner Slaughter was an associate in the D.C. office of Sidley Austin LLP. She received her B.A. in Anthropology magna cum laude from Yale University. Commissioner Slaughter received her J.D. from Yale Law School, where she served as an editor on the Yale Law Journal.

Russell Slifer

Schwegman Lundberg & Woessner, Boise, ID, USA

Russell is a principal at Schwegman Lundberg & Woessner and CEO of Black Hills IP. He was appointed by President Obama as the Deputy Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Deputy Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). In this role, he managed all day-to-day operations of the USPTO and served as a Judge for both the Patent and the Trademark Trial and Appeal Boards. Before his government service, Russell was the Chief Patent Counsel for Micron Technology, Inc. He served on the board of directors of IPO for 10 years, is a Past-President of the Association of Corporate Patent Counsel, and the current Chair of the Selection Board of the National Inventors Hall of Fame.

Robert G. Sterne

Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox P.L.L.C., Washington, D.C., USA

Robert is a founding director of Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox P.L.L.C. in Washington, D.C. He has extensive expertise in AIA post issuance proceedings and concurrent patent litigation, USITC 337 investigations, Federal Circuit appeals, EU and China enforcement, reexamination, patent monetization and licensing, and corporate intellectual property best practices (CIPO and Board of Directors). He is a registered U.S. patent attorney, has spoken and written extensively on these topics, was named in 2015 by the Financial Times as one of the "Top Ten Legal Innovators in North America," was named in 2015 by Law360 as one of "The Top 25 Icons of IP," and was named in 2014 by The National Law Journal as an "Intellectual Property Trailblazer and Pioneer." He is editor in chief of Patent Office Litigation (2012), and Patent Office Litigation 2nd Edition (2017) (Thomson Reuters). He is counsel in more than 200 PTAB contested proceedings and has played a key role in precedent-setting U.S. case law, including: In re Beauregard, (Fed. Cir. 1995), KSR (SCT. 2007), i4i (SCT. 2011), In re Jung (Fed. Cir. 2011), ETG (Fed Cir. 2012), and Hear Wear (Fed. Cir. 2014). Among many honors, he is the recipient of the Sedona Conference Award for Excellence in Advanced Legal Education (2004), the Sedona Lifetime Achievement Award (2012), and the 2012 Attorney of the Year "Good Scout" Award for his leadership in community service. He has been at the forefront of software patent protection, having represented IBM in the precedent setting In re Beauregard case that produced the 1996 USPTO software patent guidelines and having delivered in 1985 the seminal AI and Expert System Legal Protection presentation before the AIPLA. Rob is a Chair Emeritus of The Sedona Conference's Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) Steering Committee.

Robert L. Stoll

Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, Washington, D.C., USA

Robert is a partner on the Patent team at Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP and Co-Chair of the Intellectual Property Group. In October of 2013, he was appointed by Chief Judge Rader to a three-year term on the CAFC Advisory Council, and in 2016 reappointed for another three-year term by Chief Judge Sharon Prost. As the former USPTO Commissioner for Patents, he was instrumental in the passage of landmark patent legislation and the America Invents Act. In 2012, he was recipient of Managing Intellectual Property magazine's lifetime achievement in intellectual property award. Robert was instrumental in the development and analysis of legislation concerning all areas of intellectual property. He earned his J.D. in 1985 from the Catholic University of America, and his B.S. degree in Chemical Engineering in 1979 from the University of Maryland.

Henry Su

Constantine Cannon LLP, Washington, D.C., USA

Henry is a seasoned trial and appellate lawyer who focuses on disputes involving competition, consumer protection, innovation, and technology issues. In private practice with law firms in Virginia, California, and the District of Columbia, he has litigated antitrust and intellectual property cases involving a broad range of technologies and industries, including some that have raised issues at the intersection of the patent system and competition law. Additionally, Henry spent almost seven years at the Federal Trade Commission as a senior trial lawyer and an advisor to a sitting Chairwoman and a sitting Commissioner, during which he worked on investigations and enforcement actions involving patent-related conduct and contributed to an important empirical study by the agency on patent assertion entity activity (October 2016). Henry is a graduate of Yale College, where he earned a B.S. in biology, and the University of Virginia School of Law. He is also a registered patent attorney.

Robert P. Taylor

RPT Legal Strategies PC, San Francisco, CA, USA

Bob is founder and owner of RPT Legal Strategies PC in San Francisco and Silicon Valley, providing business and legal advice to businesses and investors with respect to litigation, antitrust, intellectual property and related fields of law. For more than 40 years, he served as lead counsel in numerous antitrust and/or patent cases. He has represented companies and their investors with respect to licensing and merger transactions involving these areas of practice. Bob has written and lectured extensively on both antitrust and intellectual property issues. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a former chair of the Antitrust Section of the ABA (1991-92) and was a member of the Advisory Commission on Patent Law Reform. He is a Lifetime Member of the American Law Institute and served as co-chair of the Antitrust Committee of Intellectual Property Owners Association, and as a member of IPO's Amicus Committee.

Leah Poynter Waterland

Cisco Systems, Inc., San Jose, CA, USA

Leah is a Director on the Litigation team at Cisco. She and her team manage worldwide patent and commercial litigation and collaborate with Cisco's Intellectual Property Group to support Cisco's IP strategy efforts. Her areas of responsibility include conducting early analysis of incoming patent and commercial cases, guiding case strategy, and advising business leaders to minimize legal risk. Leah has focused on judicial and legislative patent reform and specialized in the evolving case law of FRAND licensing and patent damages analysis. In April 2015, California legal, business, and technology publication The Recorder recognized Leah in its Litigation Department of the Year awards with an In-House Impact Award.

Craig W. Weinlein

The Sedona Conference, Phoenix, AZ, USA

Craig is the Executive Director of The Sedona Conference. He has been a member of the Board of Directors of The Sedona Conference since 2009 and currently serves as the Chairman. Craig has worked with The Sedona Conference since 2000, when he served on the faculty of the first Conference on Patent Litigation. He was a member of The Sedona Conference Advisory Board from 2004 to 2013. Before joining The Sedona Conference full time in 2014, Craig was a partner with Carrington, Coleman, Sloman & Blumenthal, LLP in Dallas, Texas, for 25 years. He served as Chair of his firm's Intellectual Property Practice Group for his last ten years with the firm. His primary area of practice was complex litigation with a concentration in intellectual property cases. During the course of his career, Craig has tried dozens of cases and argued numerous appeals in federal and state courts. Craig was selected by American Lawyer Media and Martindale-Hubbell as a 2013 Top-Rated Lawyer in Intellectual Property. He is also listed as one of the best trademark practitioners in Texas in Who's Who Legal: Texas for 2007 and 2008 and in the 2012 through 2014 editions of World Trademark Review 1000—The World's Leading Trademark Professionals where he is described as "a remarkable litigator whose wide-ranging trial experience earns him a distinguished market standing." Craig's book, The Art of Witness Preparation, is a unique contribution to the literature on complex litigation because it focuses on the witness's testimony and presentation, instead of the lawyer's examination and performance. Craig's publication credits also include articles in The American Journalism Review, The Journal of Arts Management and Law, and The American Symphony Orchestra League's Principles of Orchestra Management.

Koren W. Wong-Ervin

Qualcomm Inc., Washington, D.C., USA

Koren is Director of Antitrust & IP Policy & Litigation at Qualcomm Incorporated, a Senior Expert and Researcher at China's University of International Business and Economics, and an Academic Advisor at China's University of Political Law & Science. Prior to joining Qualcomm, Koren was Director of the Global Antitrust Institute (GAI) and an Adjunct Professor of Law at George Mason University; Counsel for Intellectual Property and International Antitrust in the Office of International Affairs at the U.S. Federal Trade Commission; and served as an Attorney Advisor to Federal Trade Commissioner, Joshua Wright. Prior to that, Koren spent almost a decade in private practice, focusing on antitrust litigation and government investigations with a particular focus on issues affecting clients in the technology and financial industries. She currently serves on the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Antitrust Law's International Task Force and Due Process Task Force and previous co-chair of the ABA's 2016 Antitrust in Asia Conference. From 2012 to 2015, she served as a vice chair of the Intellectual Property Committee within the Section of Antitrust Law, and she served on the editorial boards of Antitrust Law Developments (7th edition, and the 2003 Annual Review of Antitrust Law Developments). Koren graduated second in her class from the University of California, Hastings College of Law, and was associate editor of the Hastings Law Review. She earned her BS degree magna cum laude in Political Science from Santa Clara University.