

Cremation Offerings with Compassion & Care

Cremation tends to imply a misconception that it limits service options for the survivors. Contrary to what some may believe, both burial and cremation are merely forms of final disposition. Cremation does not limit choices, but, in fact, increases one's options. It is a process which is performed in a respectful and dignified manner and can be memorialized in many ways.

Farrar Funeral Home, a proven provider in cremation services, has many offerings when choosing cremation. The professional and dedicated staff at Farrar Funeral Home are here to assist you in creating an appropriate and meaningful tribute to your loved one.
