PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH . . .

Dear Church Family,

Through our Philippians study we are beginning to comprehend the depth and magnitude of the Gospel. The Gospel is certainly for salvation, but extends far beyond just a ticket to heaven. It is the means for growing in Christ and living out the truths within God's Word. We can learn to "rejoice" (being resolute to trust in the Lord) and live without anxiety or emotion dictating our behavior or choices. When we are Gospel focused we can see clearly and experience true peace.

Sunday we continue by looking at Philippians 4:10-13. Paul continues to teach how we can take the "ideal" and move it into practical application. Learning to "rejoice" and do away with anxiety means we learn to live in a whole new way. Circumstances do not define us. Emotions do not control us. Good days or bad days do not change our character. An evident marker for a Gospel-oriented person is an ability to be content. Contentment is born out of trusting the Lord with all of one's heart and choosing to not lean on one's own understanding. A content person bears a strength like no other. How strong are you? Are you Gospel strong?

Sunday evening, June 26, Amy and I will start our teaching course for women and men. Amy is a riveting teacher and presents God's Word in creative ways. You will be blessed and be challenged, so please come and invite a friend. I will be walking through Scripture helping men to see the depth of our responsibility and the pitfalls we often experience. Share the good news of the Gospel and invite someone to experience what's happening at FBCBC, where the "impossible" is a living reality every day.

Your Pastor,
Douglas Shows

Sunday School News

Attendance Sunday was 129. In the summer months we know people are traveling and busy but when you are in town, we hope you will find your way to Sunday School. Just come in the Welcome Center and someone will be there to greet you and help you find a class to go to. If you don't have a book for Sunday School, we have one for you. I think you will enjoy being with others and hearing a great lesson about how we can be a better Christian.

See you Sunday, Troy

YOUTH NEWS . . .

By the time you read this article your students and adult sponsors will be head long into our 2016 summer mission trip to Hammond, Louisiana. Participants from more than 6 states across America will join forces with us to share the Gospel through community construction projects. Some of us are busy painting, clearing properties of debris, roofing, chipping, installing new gutters and windows, and so much more. It is through this work that we get to share Christ, not only to the home owners but to their neighbors, and the community as a whole. World Changers is all about "Change the city, change the world" one person / family at a time! While our trip is only a week, I'd like to continue to ask you to pray for us and our safety! God is good and it was because of His leadership and your willingness to give and pray that we was able to accomplish this task. I'd like to give a quick thank you to our transportation committee, who worked very hard over the last week or two to ensure the bus was ready to head down the road. We should be back home late Friday night around midnight. So please make arrangements to pick up your student at that time!

Wednesday night June 29th we will have a swim party and Mr. & Mrs. Harbert's home. They have graciously opened the home and their pool to us and plan on cooking us some good food! Please contact me soon regarding their address and note the time change as we will begin at 6:00 p.m. We will meet at their home and parents may pick up their student at the same location. As usual we will expect all participants to have appropriate swim attire. Think what would the Brady Bunch do?

Be Intentional,
Aaron

Thank You

We are thankful for the outpouring of love you have shown during this time. It was a blessing to be in your service and be with your loving family. Thank you so much. God bless you.

Church Sign Ministry

The church sign is a wonderful ministry tool that can be used to share the Gospel and various church related functions to the community. If you wish to communicate to the community a church ministry event that you are coordinating, please make your church sign request on or before noon on the Monday before the event. This will ensure that the advertisement or message will have the greatest impact on our community.

Choir Notes

Sunday Choir, here's the song list for this next Sunday 6/26. These should be familiar to most people. However, I have put up You Tube recordings of the songs on the website at <http://www.fbcbc.org/ministries/music-media/playlists>. Come to the choir loft as soon as you can after Sunday School (or about 10:15) and sit wherever you want—the music will be in each chair. New participants are welcome at any time and all ages are welcome. Come be a part of helping our choir grow.

Music Stand Round-Up

The Music Ministry has become short on its music stands. If a department or class has borrowed a music stand from the Choir Room, we ask that it please be returned to the Choir Room. The hard poly-carbonate Wenger music stands with the accessory shelf will cost about $75 to replace and the metal Manhasset stands will cost about $40. Thanks to all for your cooperation and assistance. Suzonne
