Word from Kevin Gray

Wow!! It has been some time since my last newsletter article. So, let's get to the point. I want to ask you a question. Why do you come to Sunday School? Well, I hope the first reason is because you love God and want to study and learn more about God, and His relationship with people. The next few reasons can be more personal, but some reasons may be the friends, family, togetherness, and fellowship of Christians. But, Sunday School also brings about "community". Community may be an unusual word, but each class is a community. There is prayer time, fellowship time, study time, and family time as well. All these are part of Sunday school as community. I have heard people say in a crisis, "I don't know what I would have done without my Sunday school class caring for me." That is a family caring and loving for each other. Where are you during Sunday school? Statistically it is proven that solid growth comes from Sunday School. So, let's get out there and invite people to Sunday School, and grow our Central family. Love ya Kevin
