A vibrant, fairytale-style illustration of a castle with blue roofs and golden spires, set in a lush garden with a river, swan, and deer. The scene is bathed in soft, golden light, suggesting a magical atmosphere. The castle is the central focus, with its intricate architecture and multiple towers. The surrounding landscape is filled with colorful flowers, trees, and a winding path. A white swan swims in a small river in the foreground, and two deer are seen grazing on the grass to the right. The sky is a mix of blue and white, with a rainbow visible on the right side. The overall mood is dreamlike and enchanting.

Colossians 1:15-29

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation; because by Him everything was created, in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him. He is before all things, and by Him all things hold together.

He is also the head of the body, the church;

He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He might come to have first place in everything. For God was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in Him, and through Him to reconcile everything to Himself by making peace through the blood of His cross— whether things on earth or things in heaven.

And you were once alienated and hostile in mind because of your evil actions. But now He has reconciled you by His physical body through His death, to present you holy, faultless, and blameless before Him—if indeed you remain grounded and steadfast in the faith, and are not shifted away from the hope of the gospel that you heard.

This gospel has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and I, Paul, have become a minister of it. Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and I am completing in my flesh what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for His body, that is, the church. I have become its minister, according to God's administration that was given to me for you, to make God's message fully known, the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to His saints. God wanted to make known to those among the Gentiles the glorious wealth of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. We proclaim Him, warning and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

I labor for this, striving with His strength that works powerfully in me.
