Word from Phillip

W.M.U. For some of you, these three letters bring back a time of nostalgia, of Girls in Action (or Girl's Auxiliary) and training union. For others, it only leaves a puzzled look because time has taken its hold on the Women's Missionary Union. It harkens back to a time in Southern Baptist life where our ladies lead out in emphasizing, training and doing mission on North American soil. March 5th starts our week of prayer for the Annie Armstrong Easter offering. Annie Armstrong was the founder of the WMU and a champion for the cause missions and the gospel in North America. Her legacy still reaches us today. Missions is at the heart of who we are as Southern Baptist. Also partnering with missions is our commitment to evangelism. We not only have the solemn responsibility to participate in the Annie Armstrong offering but a divine mandate to have a personal stake in sharing the good news of Christ's forgiveness & resurrection with those whom God lays in our paths. We share because people need the Lord. We give because we cannot personally share with everyone. $4500 is our goal. 100% of this money goes straight to the missionaries on the field, so this money is of the utmost importance. I pray that you will help spread the Good News through giving to Annie Armstrong.

Word from Kevin

I would like to focus on worship. I read an article that cited Southern Baptist Convention statistics that choirs are in steep decline, and sadly even those singing in worship are in decline. God calls us to be active participants in worship. Colossians 3:16, Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord; That means active in our hearts, minds, souls and even our voices. I encourage you, dear family, to sing during worship as though there is no tomorrow. Worship and sing full of joy, excitement, and sacrifice even if you don't like singing or the song. That is our act of worship as a living sacrifice, giving ourselves to God without apology.

Word from Daniel

As you can see there is a lot happening here in the Youth Ministry for 2017. We are praying for God to do some amazing things this year. These events serve to unify the students and draw them closer to Jesus. I would encourage all parents with students in grades 7th - 12th to have them join us on Wednesday and Sunday nights so that they may be plugged in and grow.
