ENOCH & FAITH: PLEASING GOD

A silhouette of a person standing on a beach, holding a long staff or walking stick, looking out at the ocean under a dramatic, cloudy sky at sunset or sunrise. The person is wearing a long, light-colored garment, possibly a robe or a long tunic, and shorts. The beach is dark and pebbly, and the ocean waves are breaking gently. The sky is filled with soft, golden light from the sun, creating a serene and contemplative atmosphere.

HEBREWS 11:5-6

GENESIS 5:21-24

By faith, Enoch was taken away so that he did not experience death, and he was not to be found because God took him away. For prior to his transformation he was approved, having pleased God. Now without faith it is impossible to please God, for the one who draws near to Him must believe that He exists and rewards those who seek Him.

Faith is unutterable trust in God, trust which never dreams that He will not stand by us.

That Which is Impossible

To PLEASE God

To SAVE ourselves

NOTHING

God is looking for those with whom
He can do the impossible - what a pity that we plan only the things that we can do by ourselves.

Enoch was 65 years old when he fathered Methuselah. And after the birth of Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years and fathered sons and daughters. So Enoch's life lasted 365 years. Enoch walked with God, and he was not there, because God took him. –Genesis 5:21-24

 Someday

A black and white photograph of Gilbert K. Chesterton. He is seated at a desk, wearing a dark suit jacket, a light-colored shirt, and a patterned tie. He is looking down, focused on writing with a pen on a piece of paper. The background is slightly out of focus, showing what appears to be a patterned chair or cushion on the left and some indistinct objects on the desk to the right. The lighting is soft, highlighting his face and the texture of his clothing.

“THE CHRISTIAN IDEAL HAS NOT BEEN TRIED AND FOUND WANTING. IT HAS BEEN FOUND
