Moses & Faith: Making a Choice

By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter and chose to suffer with the people of God rather than to enjoy the short-lived pleasure of sin. For he considered reproach for the sake of the Messiah to be greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, since his attention was on the reward.

By faith he left Egypt behind, not being afraid of the king's anger, for he persevered, as one who sees Him who is invisible. By faith he instituted the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them.

Moses & Faith: Making a Choice

Selecting the Path

He choose the path of RIGHTEOUSNESS over the WORLD

He decided it was better to SUFFER & SERVE than to be HAPPY & REBEL

He picked the APPROVAL of the King of Glory
rather than the King of Egypt

Trusting the Blood

Egypt & Israel were given a choice:
OBEDIENCE or punishment

Faith is trusting God to HANDLE a situation then OBEYING what He tells us in the situation
