

1 Peter
How Then Shall We Live

A large flock of white sheep is shown, with a single black sheep standing out in the center. The sheep are densely packed, and the black sheep is the focal point of the image.

Living with a New Family

1 Peter 3:8-12

Now finally, all of you should be like-minded and sympathetic, should love believers, and be compassionate and humble, not paying back evil for evil or insult for insult but, on the contrary, giving a blessing, since you were called for this, so that you can inherit a blessing. For the one who wants to love life and to see good days must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit, and he must turn away from evil and do good. He must seek peace and pursue it, because the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and His ears are open to their request. But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.

Why?

A diverse group of smiling people of various ages and ethnicities, including men, women, and children, are gathered together. The group is diverse in age, with some older individuals and many children. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The background is bright and slightly blurred, suggesting an indoor setting with large windows. The overall mood is joyful and positive.
