Sheriff Charlie Crumpton would like to express his sincere appreciation to everyone who donated to purchase the Christmas gifts for the children of inmates. Crumpton stated, "I want to thank all of the churches, civic organizations, and individuals that donated for the children." Sheriff Crumpton also said "It was a sad Christmas for a lot of children, but because of these donations, it was better." The donations received purchased toys, school supplies, christian books and clothing for approximately 32 children.
