

WHERE THE RUBBER MEETS THE ROAD!

James 5:1-6 was our text, titled "What Does Your Money Say?" What a joy to continue to walk through the book of James and highlight in chapter five the importance of being a good steward with our finances. James highlights a man who exploited his workers by holding back what was due to them. He also controlled the courts and made it impossible for them to seek justice. James basically said this man was guilty of murder for his actions in verse six. We talked about the way we get our money; this man did it in a less than honest manner. Secondly, the way we guard our money. This man was a hoarder of his wealth. And then, the way we give our money. This man was extremely selfish. This teaches us to get our wealth honestly, guard it loosely, and give it generously as God blesses us.

I hope you had a great day. It was also fun to highlight our seniors and hear about their future plans. Please pray God continues to grow them in His grace and knowledge.

Remember to bring a picture of your loved one and attach to our Memorial wall in the foyer, if you haven't done so yet. Love my church family! See you this Lord's day as we look at, "He's Coming! Ready?"

Love you and striving to fill your bucket!
