MISSIONARY MOMENTS

Here is a question: Does God still speak to people through dreams as He did in ancient times? Yes. There are many stories from the mission field about God speaking to people through dreams. Today we're going to Southeast Asia to hear one such story as told by missionary, Cheryl Derbyshire, one of the many missionaries our church supports through the Cooperative Program. Cheryl went to a new village with two white mobile medical clinic vans. We'll call the first man in line Kamon, and he could hardly wait to come in. He told Cheryl that the night before he had dreamed about two white vans coming to his house. He dreamed a doctor gave him water, and when he took it the van shook! He was told, yes, he would be shaken, but he would be healed. So when the two white Baptist vans showed up right in front of his house, he couldn't wait to go inside! That day he came to faith in Jesus Christ, brought by a dream from God about people who would give him Living Water. Today, let's pray for Cheryl and ask God to give thousands more people dreams so they can be saved.
