

Peter's Denial Can Be MY Denial

Mark 14:27-31,50,66-72

Mark

14:29-31

Peter declared, “Even if all fall away, I will not.”

“Truly I tell you,” Jesus answered, “today—yes, tonight—before the rooster crows twice you yourself will disown me three times.”

But Peter insisted emphatically, “Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you.” And all the others said the same.

Peter's denial of Jesus stands in stark contrast with his boast that he would never forsake Jesus. Yet when the time came, he denied his Lord.

Even in denial, God still loves us and claims us. It is never too late to repent! Our denial can be turned into acceptance.
