An old English proverb says: “March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb.” Supposedly, according to this ancient weather lore, March typically begins cold and stormy like a lion but then typically ends with more milder spring-like weather like a lamb. Not being a meteorologist or a weather historian, I can’t tell you if this is accurate or not. I guess we’ll see. But as March begins and as we approach Easter next month, I am thinking about Someone who Revelation 5:5-6 refers to as the Lion of Judah. One who brings eternal victory and who is also referred to as the Lamb who was slain for our sin but who arose from the dead and now reigns victorious on God’s throne in Heaven. Of course, the Lion of Judah and the Lamb who was slain is none other than our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Join me this month on Sunday mornings as we follow Jesus Christ’s powerful ministry as He touched lives forever as described in the Gospel of John. This March we can certainly praise Christ for being both the Lion and the Lamb!

Men, I want to invite you and your friends to watch the powerful movie “Courageous” on Saturday, March 14th at 6pm. Before the movie we will enjoy some barbecued pull pork sandwiches and then watch this powerful movie about how men can truly be courageous. Men, I hope that you will join me for this special men’s event and invite other men to come with you as well.

As always, I love you and I love being your Pastor!

Al’s ½ Note

“Give thanks to the Lord, call on His name; make known among the nations what He has done. Sing to Him, sing praise to Him; tell of all His wonderful acts. Glory in His holy Name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice. Look to the Lord and His strength; seek His face always. Remember the wonders He has done, His miracles, and the judgments He pronounced. He is the Lord our God; His judgments are in all the earth. Sing to the Lord, all the earth; proclaim His salvation day after day. Declare His glory among the nations, His marvelous deeds among all peoples. For great is the Lord and most worthy of praise, He is to be feared above all gods. For all gods of the nations are idols, but the Lord made the heavens. Splendor and majesty are before Him; strength and majesty are before Him; strength and joy are in His dwelling place. Ascribe to the Lord, O families of nations, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength, ascribe to the Lord the glory due His name. Bring an offering and come before Him; worship the Lord in the splendor of His holiness. Tremble before Him, all the earth! The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved. Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad; let them say among the nations, “The Lord reigns!” Let the sea resound, and all that is in it; let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them! Then the trees of the forest will sing, they will sing for joy before the Lord, for He comes to judge the earth. Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever. Cry out, “Save us, O God our Savior; gather us and deliver us from the nations, that we may give thanks to your Holy Name, that we may glory in Your praise.” Praise be to the Lord, the God from everlasting to everlasting.”
