*Responsive Reading

Worship Leader: You alone are God. You created the heavens, the highest heavens with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them.

Worshippers: I will bow down toward Your holy temple and will praise Your name for Your love and Your faithfulness, for You have exalted above all things Your name and Your word.

Worship Leader: You give life to all of them, and the heavenly host worships You. You have exalted Your name and Your promise above everything else.

All: Come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.

Old Testament Reading—Psalm 107:1, 23-31

Brenda Leeper

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever. Some went out on the sea in ships. They saw the works of the Lord, his wonderful deeds in the deep. For he spoke and stirred up a tempest that lifted high the waves.

They mounted up to the heavens and went down to the depths; in their peril their courage melted away.

Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress.

He stilled the storm to a whisper; the waves of the sea were hushed.

They were glad when it grew calm, and he guided them to their desired haven.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds.

*Hymn 171 O the Deep, Deep Love of Jesus Francis

Gospel Reading—Matthew 14:25-32 Joe Leeper

Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. “It’s a ghost,” they said, and cried out in fear. But Jesus immediately said to them: “Take courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.”

“Lord, if it’s you,” Peter replied, “tell me to come to you on the water.”

“Come,” Jesus said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, “Lord, save me!” Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. “You of little faith,” he said, “why did you doubt?” And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down.
