At the Cross

Isaac Watts, 1707

Alas! and did my Savior bleed
And did my Sov'reign die?
Would He devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

At the cross, at the cross
where I first saw the light,
And the burden of my heart
rolled away,
It was there by faith
I received my sight,
And now I am happy all the day!

Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe:
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

June 25, 2017

Join us for this special day to celebrate our graduates, college students, and those who are advancing to new schools. If you have a child who fits either category, please notify Min. Tee Clark or Sis. DaShawn Hayden so that they can be recognized. We will also be receiving donations for the Quillarene B. Rice Scholarship Fund, which supports our college students. Please bring a special offering. Thank you.
