Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. – Ps. 127:1

At the Cross

Isaac Watts, 1707

Alas! and did my Savior bleed
And did my Sov'reign die?
Would He devote
that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

At the cross, at the cross
where I first saw the light,
And the burden of my heart
rolled away,
It was there by faith
I received my sight,
And now I am happy all the day!

Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe:
Here, Lord, I give myself away
'Tis all that I can do.
