SECTION III—DELAWARE 4-H CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Attend all sessions in the planned program. If you are not feeling well or have a schedule conflict that will keep you from attending, please tell the adult in charge.
2. Follow hours and room rules established before the event begins. You are responsible to know the rules for each event.
3. Use language and manners that will bring respect to you and Delaware 4-H. You are responsible to know which language and behavior is appropriate.
4. Be in the assigned program area (dorms, cabins, hotel room, etc.) at all times.
5. Know the use of tobacco, alcohol and non-prescription drugs is prohibited at all times and at all 4-H events.
6. Model respect for other persons in public areas. The adults in charge will help you know rules of courtesy that you will want to follow.
7. Treat program areas, lodging areas and transportation vehicles with respect and care. You will be responsible for any damage, theft, or misconduct in which you participate.
8. Help other members in your group have a pleasant experience by making every attempt to include all participants in activities.
9. Live up to your highest expectations of yourself, so you can return home proud of who you are and what you have accomplished.

Those who are unable to conduct themselves within the guidelines listed above will be expected to:

1. Explain their actions to the adults in charge;
2. Accept the consequences of their actions;
3. Know that the adults in charge will work closely with parents/guardians, Extension personnel, and others to see that action is taken, and that appropriate and logical consequences for all concerned will follow.

I have read the Delaware 4-H Code of Conduct and agree to live up to the expectations. I realize my failure to do so could result in the loss of privileges during this event and/or in the future.
