Daily Report

Campers arrived before noon on Monday morning for an early registration and went on to find their cabins and begin settling in. Buses ran into some technical difficulties along the way but eventually arrived fashionably late as always; everyone was finally thrilled to be together again while old friendships were rekindled and new ones were already beginning to form. Campers settled in to the first of many delicious lunches of cheeseburgers and fries which was followed by a much-needed rest period. The campers soon realized they were in for a treat with a new orientation activity that involved different words for each cabin to make their skit. After being introduced to and brushing up on information about various sites around Camp Barnes, cabins performed their skits for the rest of camp and shared a great bonding experience. After this were the first people meetings of the year! First year campers became acquainted with their groups and the Turtles, Bears, Thunderbirds, and Moon and Stars started preparing for opening ceremony with their songs, skits, and yells. Following people meetings was free recreation for the entire camp. Campers took the swim test, kayaked, played games, and enjoyed their free time. It was then that campers unfortunately found that the Muddy Miller was overrun with jellyfish. For dinner campers were pleased to have chicken and rice and most of all – corn bread! Later, everyone went back to their people meetings to perfect everything for opening ceremony. Campers reflected on their day while listening to the soothing tunes of Blake Shelton and then enthusiastically played Ships and Sailors and a seemingly never-ending game of Ride That Pony. Finally, campers were ready for the first council circle of the week where everyone was amused by Voice and Echo initiations which involved large amounts of hair gel and lots of ice cream. Campers then went to bed happy and looking forward to the rest of their week.

Daily Report

Campers awoke to the first siren of the week for a breakfast of delectable pancakes and sausages. Following the first meal of the day and people duties, was an invigorating stretching session for AM Excitement. After that campers were excited to begin their first day of classes! Later, everyone received their first mail of the week and sang plenty of fun songs. Cabin checkers named cabin 10 and cabin 4 as best girls and best boys cabin with cabin 4 as best cabin overall. Everyone enjoyed a fantastic lunch of pizza and then prepared for the rest of the afternoon. PM Assembly gave the people groups a chance to use their teamwork skills to accomplish cooperative tasks which tested their abilities to work together which was cut somewhat short by the beginning of rain and thunder.

After that were the first people group meetings where the groups prepared for council circle and the first sports matches of the week. First and second recreation had some intense sports match ups with some close wins and some ties. Second recreation, however, was met with the beginnings of a downpour and by personal clean-up everyone was confined to their cabins. By dinner time, campers were forced to make a run for it in the rain where most people were soaked while they ate their delicious meal of ham and potatoes. Campers were forced to stay in the dining hall for a while after dinner due to the rain raging outside, and people meetings were held in close quarters. Campers made the best of it though, and started a big game of “Honey If You Love Me” and the counselors delighted in sliding in the wet grass and mud. Kelsey and Brandon managed to save the flag and reflections and flag lowering were followed by canteen as usual. Campers took a quick break and soon returned to the dining hall for an indoor council circle while the monsoon continued outside. First year campers night was a success and many campers were involved in council circle activities such as leading songs and laws of the council. Campers then retreated back to their cabins around all the puddles for a good night’s sleep.

Daily Report

Wednesday started off with a delicious breakfast of bacon and hash browns followed by another day of people duties. AM Excitement was especially exciting because campers learned a fun dance to “Love Shack” to perform at the dance later that night. After that was the second day of classes where campers really got into the swing of things and continued with their projects and activities for the second day. Assembly was particularly eventful with four bags of mail for all the campers which led to a big group leading a song at assembly point. Once again cabin 4 was named best boys cabin but cabin 9 was able to take the title of best cabin in camp from them. Everyone then went to lunch where they had a scrumptious meal of grilled cheese and tomato soup. At the end of lunch, Barney the Owl also answered the pressing questions campers had about anything and everything at camp. After that campers were grateful for a much needed rest period that prepared them for a fun-filled afternoon. For PM Assembly everyone learned about genetics through the University of Delaware Cooperative Extension. People groups then needed to work together to complete genetics worksheets and apply what they had learned for a chance at one of the many prizes that were available. Next, everyone got ready for the annual big group picture by the waterfront which was followed by people meetings and people group pictures. Campers then got ready for their second day of sports activities which included volleyball, kan-jam, put em up, and four square. After that everyone got ready for the barbecue with lots of yummy chicken, pasta salad, beans, corn bread, and most of all – ice cream!

Campers then went to their second people meetings where they prepared their skits for the party activities that immediately followed. For the party activities, campers were treated to a bunch of TV shows such as Duck Dynasty, Survivor, Keeping Up With the Kardashians, Fear Factor, and some hilarious commercials, but unfortunately for Jillian, not the Bachelor. After waiting for everyone to claim their items from the lines, it was time for the dance where campers showed off their moves to songs such as “Trouble,” “Booty Call,” and of course, “Love Shack.” At the end of the night the counselors performed their reflection to “What Do You Say?” by Reba McIntyre. Campers then were lullled to sleep by a “not-so-good” rendition of Taps.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Daily Report

Campers grumpily awoke to the siren but were pleased to see that a delicious breakfast of French toast sticks was ready for them. After people duties was an especially exciting AM Excitement, with Kaleb's creative on-the-spot Zumba. Next was another fun day of classes and then even more mail at assembly. Cabin 6 came back from an upsetting loss and was named best boys cabin, but cabin 8 still came through as best cabin in camp. Campers were then in for a fantastic lunch of hot dogs and tacos. After a relaxing rest period, everyone met in the pavilion and had an interesting lesson from Health Rocks about community and choosing healthy behaviors. After the first people meetings of the day, were the final sports games for the campers. Later, dinner consisted of yummy lasagna and then during the second people meetings, groups prepared their talents along with their songs, skits, and yells. Later that evening was flag lowering and reflections where everyone sat out on the waterfront and listened to Carrie Underwood's "Change." After that was canteen and a huge game of camp's favorite, "Honey If You Love Me." Campers then went to council circle, which started off with Micah rowing his boat ashore. This was the start to a very eventful council circle where Jill surprised everyone by accepting the dares to lick council circle and drink the Muddy Miller in order to get her headband back. Caden, Alan, Paige, and Josh showed off their impressive skills for the physical and mental challenges that proved tough to beat. The night ended with the voices and their people groups singing their talents to a quiet camp. Everyone then went to bed, ready for their last full day of camp.

CABIN 5
- It’s 7am, time for music!
- Who stole my pillow?
- Don’t pop ugly!
- 3,2,1, lights out
- Cabin 5, you are too loud
- Stoop is a “little” gritty
- Who messed up the beds
- Who farted?
- The candy is gone…it’s only Tuesday
- This is the community candy bowl
- Touch my rubix cube and you will die
- What kind of candy do you have?
- Jenna, your parents must really love you
- Shhhhhhh!

CABIN 6
- Awkward silence
- Take the popcorn
- Bug spray bomb
- Quiet!
- Do you feel this?
- Are you awake?
- Hide the candy box
- Munch, munch, munch...shuffle, shuffle, scrape, scrape...laughter
- Go to bed!
- How do you make her smile during “Honey if you love me?”
- Don’t pull him off his bed
- What’s taps?
- My bed is wet (from water)

CABIN 8
- We are the princesses of cabin 8
- Cinderella only comes once a week
- Jill go away!
- Jesse wake up!
- You forgot our bedtime story!
- It’s a hammer, not a frying pan!
- How classy are you?
- Aca-awkward
- Got food?
Class Descriptions

Advanced Archery: Learn hunting, listening, and safety skills

Arts & Crafts: Crafts to take home such as candles, dream catchers, tye dye shirts, mosaic tiles, and bracelets

Awesome Class: Awesome. That’s all you need to know

Beginner Archery: Using skills we learned to accurately aim at the targets while being safe

Cupcake Decorating: Tastiest class in camp where things are both divine and delectable

Gentlemen’s Club: The manliest class there is

Kan Jam: Exciting Frisbee disc game with hand-eye coordination. Its super fun

Media Production: A picture is worth a thousand words, and we have about 20 minutes worth of words

Outdoor Cooking: Delectable and scrumptious

Photography: Creative class for open minded people that love capturing life through the lens

Southern Sass: Teaching girls how to put a little sass in their life

Sports & Fitness: Play sports every day and learn about the importance of exercise and fitness

Yoga: Getting our stretch on while resisting the urge to punch the person on the screen
Dream One:
The cabin doors were red and the numbers were red, however, they were originally white. The numbers had white speckles and were raised off the cabin. Not only was there three numbers, the last number was the original number on the cabin.
Phillip Moore, Bears

Our interpretation:
Maybe this means that the cabins will get a paint job and the owners might switch it up a little to give camp a new feel.

Dream Three:
With her sisters on board, Abby Krams rode the Big Bad Miller. Something bad happened, however, and the Big Bad Miller struck again. The Big Bad Miller flew off its tracks and the girls were suddenly stopped by a big mattress.
Abby Krams, Bears

Our interpretation:
Maybe a skit will be preformed and campers will fall off something and land on something fluffy.

Dream Two:
One night at council circle everyone turned into creepy creatures. Kaleb had warts and horns coming from his head.
McKenna Corbeil, Moon and Stars

Our interpretation:
Maybe this will be a skit preformed by the Big Feet. We may never know.

Dream Four:
During a very peaceful sleep, Jade was awoken by her bed being moved to another cabin. When she got to her new cabin she realized her name was different.
Jade, Thunderbirds

Our interpretation:
She cant wait for next year and she will most likely be in a different cabin. Also when she registers she might put a nickname down instead of her real name.
Horoscopes

Monday

Turtles: With your head out and shells up, you have a good chance at going 3-0 this year in volleyball. Just keep swimming and things will look up.

Moon & Stars: Twinkle twinkle little star, you shine so bright. Your volleyball skills aren't that great but at least you try.

Bears: The Bears are back and better than before and b/c of Dan they will score. Just because he is the main star doesn't mean they will go very far. Don't you fret and don't you frown turn that frown upside down.

Thunderbirds: T-Birds fly high in the sky, spiking that ball, winning them all. But you might accept defeat from the mighty red bear team.
Horoscopes

Tuesday

Turtles: Turtles, Turtles shall we tell you how we feel, against those Moon & Stars you might seal the deal making your record 1-1

Moon & Stars: Shine bright like a diamond but that’s all that’s going on in your life. After yesterday’s game there’s little hope that Colleen and Whitney will not mope.

Bears: This year Bears have a good chance of going 3-0 with Dan on your side there is no need to hide. The same doesn’t apply for Maggie. Even though she is mighty fine, she will hit the ball over the out of bounds line.

Thunderbirds: Your calls are loud and your skills are good, spirit is up and it should be. What should be worked on is your voice’s jumps, or at council circle she will slump.
Horoscopes

Wednesday

Turtles: This might be your hardest challenge yet but the final decision has not been set. With you both 1-1 we can not say who won.

Moon & Stars: Moon & Stars have really big hearts but when it comes to camp athletics you are not sport smart. Against those mighty bears you will most likely fail, so sorry your ship has sailed.

Bears: 2-1 your looking good, beat those Moon & Stars you should. Who knows what could go down but the Moon & Stars could own this town.

Thunderbirds: Same goes for you as it does for the Turtles, this game will have you jumping over hurdles. Try your best you might succeed, you have great leaders on your team.
Interview with Ernie Lopez

How many years have you been involved in Delaware State 4-H Camp?
  ➢ Since 2006 when I was hired.

What is your title, Senator or Doctor?
  ➢ It’s just Ernie, I’m not a very title conscious person

What keeps you in such a positive mood?
  ➢ I love my family and I love my job

What would you tell campers to motivate them throughout the week at camp?
  ➢ I would tell them to keep an open mind, have fun, and talk to one another.

If you were a camper, what people group would you be in and why?
  ➢ I would probably be a Thunderbird because I just love their meeting spot

What got you first involved in Delaware 4-H?
  ➢ When I was hired into a new job.

What do you do besides 4-H?
  ➢ I am a dad, husband, and a state senator, and those are listed in order of highest importance to lowest importance

What is your favorite camp song?
  ➢ It would have to be Edelweiss

Can you touch your toe to your nose?
  ➢ No
Frou's Revenge
Return of the Goon

Written and Illustrated by Sike Mack

When we last saw little Bunny Frou-Frou, he had been turned into a goon by the good fairy.

Later that night...

And so, Frou resumed walking through the forest, picking up the field mice and bopping them on the head.

Mwahaha!

POOF!

And down came the Good Fairy, and she said...

Frou! Give me back my wand!

But Frou was tired of being told what to do.

Oh, dear...

POOF!
Here goes Frow, walking through Camp Barnes, picking up the campers, and bopping them on the head. Who will save them???

Meanwhile, in the Owl Cave...

CRUNCH!

Frow is terrorizing camp?! This calls for action!

And so Barney Owl set out to stop the Bunny Terror.

Frow, I don't want to see you picking up the field mice... sorry, campers, and bopping them on the head!

From, we can do this the easy way or the hard way, or the medium way. Or the Semi-Medium, Easy-Hard way.

So that's how it's gonna be, huh?
From, for your crimes against Camp Barnes, you are sentenced to clean out the Bathhouse by hand!

Woo! Pop.

Ow. Ouch.

The End

Or is it?
Voices Bio
Maggie Durig is an 18 year old college sophomore at the University of Delaware where she is majoring in special education. She was the voice of the Bears and loved every minute of it. She hopes to come back as a counselor in the future. State 4-H Camp has been the highlight of her summer and she will miss in in the summers to come.

Echo Bio
Dan Harkness is 17 years and a junior at Indian River High School. Dan plans on attending the University of Delaware in the future. Dan is a very sweet guy and enjoys long majestic walks on the beach. He has a tendency to take VERY long showers so he smells sweet and spicy!
