WILDCAT FAMILY

"Tennessee was the place that raised me. KENTUCKY was the place that MADE ME."

— Randall Cobb, Green Bay Packers and UK Class of 2016

GAME DAY

Talbott Todd Way is the site of UK's pregame Cat Walk, where fans cheer the Wildcats on their arrival to Commonwealth Stadium each game day. Players and coaches walk from outside Gate 1 down Talbott Todd Way to the Joe Craft Football Training Facility two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff.

The alley was named Talbott Todd Way in honor of Talbott Todd, a Kentucky football letterman from 1963-65 and supporter of the program who was diagnosed with ALS in 2015.

A pregame concert series with bands and performers all from the Bluegrass State brings great music and excitement around Kroger Field on game day. Concerts begin on the stage outside Gate 12 immediately following the Cat Walk and last until 30 minutes prior to kickoff.

NIKE SWAG

Thanks to Nike's extensive research and product development, the Kentucky Wildcats stay on the cutting edge of quality and style with all of their gear.

All 22 sports use Nike shoes and equipment and over the course of a newly signed eight-year contract, one of the lengthiest contracts in collegiate sports, the Wildcats will receive MILLIONS of DOLLARS worth of clothing and equipment.

In 2016, Nike unveiled three new football uniform combinations, including an all-blue, all-white and all-anthracite combination. New matte-black, matte-blue and chrome helmets were also introduced. Each uniform features a blue collar which signifies Kentucky's working-class background.

"We've got a state that is all about hard work and effort, and we want people to understand that that's what it takes. If you put that jersey on, that's part of what it means at the University of Kentucky to represent the Commonwealth."

ZACH MYERS

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Last season, seniors Zach Myers and Jon Toth were named to the Hampshire Honor Society by the National Football Foundation. The NFF Hampshire Honor Society honors the college football players from all divisions of play who each maintain a 3.2 GPA or better during their collegiate careers.

CATS

Kentucky was the first school in the nation to open an academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes. The mission of the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services is to create an environment where all student-athletes have the opportunity to maximize their academic, personal and social growth to improve their post-college quality of life.

A new CATS area is located in the football practice facility. It provides around-the-clock access for student-athletes in addition to spacious study areas and tutoring rooms with more than 7,500 square feet. Among the many features of CATS are a computer lab with 30 state-of-the-art computer stations with universal access to software, another 10 laptop computer stations, a study area that accommodates 30 seats, nine private tutor rooms housing computers with Internet access, and a group tutoring room for special projects.

CATS has one of the largest advising staffs in the country, consisting of nine full-time counselors and over 10 part-time peer advisors. In addition, the center annually maintains a corps of more than 100 tutors who average over 2,000 hours of tutoring and mentoring each week of the academic year.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

At the time of this printing, Kentucky had 15 players in the NFL. More than 150 different players have gone on to appear on an active roster in either the National Football League (1920-present), the American Football League (1960-69) or the All-American Football Conference (1946-49).

UK Athletics' Impact Leadership Program is headed by Lt. Col. Jason Cummins, a former Army officer and instructor at West Point, whose mission is to build champions of character, competence, and consequence for the field of play and the game of life.

"Having the opportunity to learn leadership skills from someone like Jason Cummins is such a blessing. I'm learning so much about what it takes to be an effective leader and I know these skills will not only help me be a better player but a better person."

Senior linebacker Courtney Love

JASON CUMMINS IMPACT LEADERSHIP

- We work very closely with the entire coaching staff to help SELECT the right teammates, DEVELOP them to be their best, so that we WIN better.
- Leadership Development is not an event. It is a deliberate, systematic process that involves and impacts everyone in the organization. It is a continuous effort. Just as we coach the technical skills of football, we must be equally as precise when coaching a player's character and leadership skills.
- Better people make better players. At Kentucky, we are focused on the whole person - the physical, mental, technical, tactical, and behavioral.
- Coach Stoops has defined a demanding culture based on a set of shared beliefs. Our job is to teach, communicate, reinforce, and hold each other accountable. Ultimately, beliefs drive behavior and behavior produces results.

PLAYER Other accountable. Ultimately, beliefs drive behavior and behavior produces results. The state of the accountable of the behavior and behavior produces results.

MONICA FOWLER REGISTERED DIETITIAN

- My goal for our athletes is to teach them that what they do off the field directly translates to their performance on the field. When you have the skills to prepare your own food, you put your performance in your own hands. You don't have to depend on someone else to give you the fuel you need to perform at a high level.
- We want our athletes' plates to be half full of fruits and vegetables. Fruits and veggies are like the linemen of the team, they protect your body. Your plate of food should be colorful as each color provides different vitamins and minerals.

Outside the weight room, development doesn't stop. In fact, that's where some of the most important work happens. Registered Dietitian Monica Fowler and her graduate assistants are part of the High Performance staff and they craft diets that ensure student-athletes get the nutrition they need to fuel the workout and recovery process.

"I've been cooking since I was 10 years old and enjoy it. Monica teaches us the basic techniques of cooking and what healthier items we can buy at the grocery store and make at home so we don't eat fast-food all the time. She's a great asset to our team."

EVERY COLLEGE FOOTBALL PROGRAM puts a premium on developing student-athletes, but the Performance program is unique to Kentucky. From strength and conditioning to practice plans to nutrition to sleep patterns, the program brings all aspects of performance under one umbrella.

The Performance program uses the latest in athlete-tracking technology to help student-athletes reach and even enhance their potential. UK football players are educated in the principles of sports psychology and learn to apply them to help manage in-game stress and decision-making processes.

The Performance program devotes considerable resources to the restoration process to make sure student-athletes are prepared for tomorrow and minimize injury risk. It has already proven to reduce the occurrence soft-tissue injuries, but UK's award-winning sports medicine staff is on call at all times to provide state-of-the-art care.

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE

DIRECTOR OF

APPLIED SPORTS

- Our main goal is the overall development of the student-athlete. We are hands-on and purposeful in our training. We individualize each player's development for his specific position, integrating the psychological, the nutritional, and the strength training all in one.
- When a student-athlete walks through the door at Kentucky, he is going to be continually developed through all aspects of life. We educate our athletes to lead others, and not just in the weight room.
- We take an individual approach to the personal and athletic development of each student-athlete by developing an interpersonal relationship and applying the latest in scientific and training methods.
- The weight room will be a place where each student-athlete will truly understand the long-term benefits of the work he does. By utilizing the structure of our performance program, it will ensure the student-athlete has a great opportunity for success in his athletic career.

DUSTIN LEWIS LIFE SKILLS COORDINATOR

- Our main goal is for our athletes to leave UK with a career plan. That plan goes beyond sports. We have a lot of athletes who will turn professional in their respective sports but they still need to have a career plan as backup. We get to know them and try to expose them to different career options based on what they are interested in doing. We also want to expose them to different scholarships or graduate schools if that's the path they want to take.
- Another important area of our program is teaching our athletes the value of community service. We want to give back to the community that supports us. The goal is for our studentathletes to grow as servant leaders --- they can truly make a difference in the lives of others, whether it be visiting a fan in the hospital, mentoring at-risk youth or by devoting time to a charity.

Dustin assists student-athletes with all facets of their career development, including major selection, resume/cover letter assistance and identifying internship and full-time employment opportunities. In addition, he works with the UK coaching staff to provide a variety of personal development programs including alcohol education, bystander intervention, financial responsibility and programming mandated by the Southeastern Conference. Dustin also directs CATS community service projects involving all UK student-athletes including the weekly UK Athletics/God's Pantry Back Pack Program, Cats Cultivating Character and the CATS Awards and Scholarships program each year.

"Having Dustin as a resource I can use to help guide me in the right direction with my major and all the volunteer hours I want to do is crucial. I want to work with children after football and Dustin tells me about every advantage I need to impact and interact with the community."

9,000+ NEW BEDS

The University of Kentucky has nearly $2 billion in campus construction, much of it paid for with private dollars or in partnership, focused on student living and learning spaces, research that tackles Kentucky's most pressing challenges, high-tech teaching space among the most innovative in the country, and a continued expansion of hospital facilities for an academic medical center that is among the fastest growing in the country.

LEXINGTON

- Lexington is within a day's drive of 75% of the U.S. population
- Lexington is also accessible by air with approximately 100 direct and nonstop flights. Nestled among world famous Thoroughbred horse farms, Blue Grass Airport (LEX) welcomes travelers with one of the most beautiful air approaches in the nation. It is a just a 10-minute drive to campus from the airport
- One of the main attractions of Lexington is the horse industry. More than 80 percent of the world's racehorses are born here, and $4 billion from the horse industry benefits the Kentucky economy annually. The rolling hills of bluegrass in your UK backyard have been the setting for several Hollywood films liked Seabiscuit, Dreamer and Secretariat, and in 2010 Lexington hosted the World Equestrian Games. In 2015, Lexington was home to the prestigious Breeder's Cup
- Lexington's main horse attractions are located at Keeneland, the Red Mile Race Track and the Kentucky Horse Park
- Along with UK, there are 14 other universities/ colleges in Lexington and the region
- Lexington is the home of major corporations such as Jif Peanut Butter, Lexmark International, Long John Silver's, Toyota Motor Manufacturing, The Valvoline Company and Xerox

LEXINGTON IS LEGIT

- A survey released in 2012 by Parenting magazine ranked Lexington as one of the 10 safest cities in the United States
- Lexington is a six-time winner of America's Promise Alliance 100 Best Communities for Young People Award
- According to The Daily Beast, Lexington is the sixth best city for college graduates
- In 2015, Lexington was ranked in the top 20 for college towns in small metro cities

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

- In Kentucky, hang onto your senses because they will be blown away. Within its borders, you'll find the Horse Capital of the World, Bourbon Capital of the World and Houseboat Capital of the World, along with beloved figures who have stamped their legacies on American history, music, food, sports and more
- Here is where Abraham Lincoln once played, Muhammad Ali perfected his lightning-fast reflexes and Bill Monroe founded a musical genre. This is where Rosemary Clooney invited audiences to "Come On-A My House" and Loretta Lynn watched her daddy head to work in a Kentucky coal mine
- Frankfort became the state capital of Kentucky in 1792 after pledging more manpower toward the construction of a statehouse than any other city. During the Civil War, Frankfort was the only Union capital occupied by Confederate troops
- Famous Kentuckians born or raised, or both, in the Bluegrass State include explorers and legendary pioneers (Daniel Boone); some of the world's most athletic and influential sports stars (Muhammad Ali), actors (George Clooney), musicians (The Judds), and even some of America's most significant political figures (Abraham Lincoln)
- State flower is the goldenrod
- State tree is the Kentucky Coffee Tree
- State song is "My Old Kentucky Home"

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

- Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth
- Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska
- Kentucky has the world's longest cave system – Mammoth Cave – with over 300 miles of mapped passageways
- Central Kentucky is internationally known as the Horse Capital of the World

2017 OUTLOOK

Head coach Mark Stoops led the Wildcats to the TaxSlayer Bowl in 2016, snapping a five-season bowl drought.

OFFENSIVE PREVIEW

- Twenty letter winners return on offense from the 2016 season, including eight primary starters.
- Kentucky went through a remarkable transformation a year ago under new offensive coordinator Eddie Gran. Leaning more toward the passing game at the beginning of the season, an injury to the starting quarterback and the emergence of an outstanding freshman running back led Gran to remodel the
- The result was 3,044 rushing yards, second-most in school history; 5.4 yards per carry, shattering the school record by a wide margin; and a pair of 1,000yard rushers, first time in school history that had been accomplished in one season. And, the recordbreaking ground game set up an entertaining bigplay passing offense that featured 14 completions of 40 or more yards, 10 of which went for touchdowns. Kentucky scored at least 35 points seven times in 2016, the most since the 2007 season (nine).
- With two veteran quarterbacks, a 1,000-yard rusher, two career 1,000-yard receivers and four starters returning in the line, the UK offense should have balanced firepower again in the coming season.

Quarterbacks

2016 Starters Returning/Lost: 1/0 2016 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 2/0

- After an injury to sophomore quarterback Drew Barker just two games into the season, junior college transfer Stephen Johnson stepped in vs. New Mexico State and provided a veteran and calming presence.
- Johnson went 5-4 as a starter, completing 145-of-265 passes for 2,037 yards and 13 touchdowns. He also carried the ball 97 times for 327 yards and three scores. The 6-foot-2, 185-pound Californian will forever hold a place in Kentucky fans' hearts in leading UK to a thrilling upset of the 11th-ranked Louisville Cardinals in the regular-season finale (41-38). Also guiding UK to a pair of come-from-behind wins in relief roles, Johnson led the Cats to their best record in seven years and a bowl game for the first time since 2010
- Pushing Johnson for the starting spot will be Barker along with redshirt freshman Gunnar Hoak. The Dublin, Ohio native was a four-star prospect out of Dublin Coffman High School where he threw for 1,798 yards and 14 touchdowns a senior. Freshmen Danny Clark and Walker Wood also have their sights set on competing for the job after enrolling a semester early. Also on the roster is junior walk-on Luke Wright who earned a starting spot in the last year's game vs. Austin Peav

Running Backs

- Kentucky's backfield should pick up where it left off last season. Despite the loss of big-play-maker Stanley "Boom" Williams to the NFL draft (366 for 2,511 yards and 18 TDs in his career) and senior Jojo Kemp (338 for 1,709 and 19 TDs in his career) to graduation, running backs coach Eddie Gran will once again be able to go four deep.
- Sophomore phenom Benny Snell Jr., burst on the scene three games into last season and never looked back. Although he did not have a carry in the first two games of 2016, Snell went on to break six freshman records on his way to being named a FWAA, ESPN and 247Sports Freshman All-American and All-SEC selection. He finished with a UK freshman record 1,091 rushing yards on 186 carries with a freshmanrecord 13 rushing and total touchdowns.
- Don't sleep on junior Sihiem King, who looks to break into the starting rotation in 2017. King had 11 carries for 81 yards last season, seeing most of his time on special teams as UK's kick return specialist. Also looking to make his mark after redshirting last season is freshman Asim "A.J." Rose. Arriving last year at 200 pounds, Rose is now 212 pounds and noticeably bigger and stronger. True freshman running back Bryant Koback enrolled early but was limited in spring practice as he was still rehabbing an injury suffered during his senior season. Koback put up eye-popping numbers prior to his injury, rushing 93 times for 1,096 yards and an impressive 21 total touchdowns (19 rushing and two receiving) in just four games.
- In 2016, the Cats rushed for the second-most yards in school history with 3,044 yards and a school-record 30 rushing touchdowns. UK also averaged 5.4 yards per carry, another school record.

Wide Receivers

2016 Starters Returning/Lost: 2/1 2016 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 6/3

- Second-year wide receivers coach Lamar Thomas will have almost as many receivers in his meeting room this season as he has Skittles in his pockets. The wealth of talent goes 17 deep and includes returning starters and 1,000-yard career receivers Dorian Baker (88 catches for 1,015 yards and six TDs) and Garrett "Juice" Johnson (107 catches for 1,550 yards and nine TDs). Letter winners Blake Bone, Charles Moushey, Tavin Richardson and Charles Walker all look to compete for playing time.
- Senior Kayaune Ross is 6-foot-6 and looks to make his mark after catching two passes for 10 yards and a score last season.
- Kentucky had 15 different players catch passes last season and 11 of them return in 2017, including seven wideouts.
- True freshman and mid-year enrollee, Clevan Thomas Jr., was impressive in spring practice. He arrived on campus in January from Miami's Charles W. Flanagan High School as one of the nation's top 100 wide receivers. Kentucky's depth will increase this fall with addition of four impact freshmen in Josh Ali, Lynn Bowden, Isaiah Epps and Javonte Richardson.

Tight Ends

 The tight ends are led by junior C.J. Conrad, who was limited during the spring after off-season shoulder surgery. The valuable run blocker and pass catcher has totaled 34 receptions for 411 yards and five TDs in his two-year career. Senior Greg Hart, who caught six passes for 32 yards in his first season as a Wildcat after transferring from Nebraska in 2015, will add depth along with sophomore Justin Rigg, who saw action in two games before an injury sidelined him for the regular season.

Offensive Line

2016 Starters Returning/Lost: 4/1 2016 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/3

- Offensive line coach John Schlarman continuously puts together an offensive unit that helps lead the Wildcats to high levels of point production. The offensive line was named a semifinalist in 2016 for the Joe Moore Award which recognizes the nation's Most Outstanding Offensive Line.
- Once again, the offensive line is one of the most experienced positions as it returns 68 career starts, including 47 from 2016.
- Perhaps the biggest task for Coach Schlarman will be replacing four-year starting center Jon Toth. The All-SEC center started in a nation-high 48 consecutive games. Junior Jervontius "Bunchy" Stallings earned a starting spot at right guard in eight games last season but spent most of his time at center during the spring. Redshirt freshman Drake Jackson out of Woodford County High School has also been waiting his turn to replace Toth.
- Senior Kyle Meadows has 22 consecutive starts at right tackle, while senior Cole Mosier anchors the left side. Sophomore Landon Young is a gifted talent who returns after starting at left tackle in three of 12 games played as a true freshman. Junior David Baumer also looks for playing time at that left tackle spot.
- Junior George Asafo-Adjei can play guard or tackle and gives UK a talented option in the line.
- Senior Nick Haynes started at left guard last season but could move over to right guard if Stallings plays at center. Sophomore Logan Stenberg saw his role increase as the backup for Haynes at left guard as the season went along. The true freshman made quite the impression as he was named to the All-SEC Freshman team along with running back Benny Snell Jr.
- Redshirt freshman Luke Fortner looks to provide depth in the rotation as does sophomore Mason Wolfe and junior Tate Leavitt, who redshirted last year after transferring from Hutchinson Community College. True freshmen Sebastien Dolcine, Austin Dotson and Nassir Watkins add promising depth.

Special Teams

- New special teams coordinator Dean Hood brings a wealth of knowledge to the program as he enters his 30th year of college coaching.
- Senior kicker Austin MacGinnis returns for his final season as a Wildcat and is on pace to become UK's leading scorer. He has already recorded 257 points, which ranks him second on UK's career scoring list, 48 points behind all-time leader Lones Seiber.
- Junior Miles Butler can also step in at placekicker.
 He hit 4 of 4 field goals in 2015 with a long kick of 46 yards and was 11 of 12 in PATs.
- Sophomore Grant McKinniss, who was a candidate for the Ray Guy Award as a freshman, averaged 39.2 per punt with 10 downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line. He boomed a career-long 61-yard punt against Alabama.
- Punter Matt Panton, a graduate transfer from Columbia University, will look to push McKinniss for a starting spot. Panton ranked No. 42 nationally in punting (40.5 average) last season, and finished with 29 punts inside the 20-yard line, four touchbacks, 13 fair catches and three punts of 50 yards or longer.
- Junior Tristan Yeomans returns to handle the long snapping for punts, while sophomore Blake Best is the snapper for field goals and PATs.
- The kick returns are in the capable hands of senior Charles Walker for punts and junior Sihiem King for kickoffs. Walker returned 15 punts in 2016 for 117 yards, good for a 7.8 average which ranked seventh in the SEC. King is UK's leading kick returner after averaging 21.3 yards on 10 kickoff returns last year. Also look for freshman athlete Lynn Bowden to bring excitement to special teams.

DEFENSIVE PREVIEW

- For the first time in the Mark Stoops era there is a new defensive coordinator taking the reins of the defense. Matt House, who spent the 2016 season as the special teams coordinator and inside linebackers coach, was named D.J. Eliot's successor in January after Eliot left for the same position at Colorado.
- House welcomes back 21 returning letter winners, including nine starters.
- UK started 13 different players on defense last season and seven (DE Denzil Ware, DE Courtney Miggins, WLB Jordan Jones, SS Mike Edwards, CB Derrick Baity and CB Chris Westry) started in all 13 games.
- Of a possible 143 total starts (13 games, 11 starters), 116 total starts return on defense in 2017.
- UK opponents averaged 44.5 points in the first three games, but in the last nine regular season games, which included top-ranked Alabama, UK's defense held the opponent to 27.0 ppg.
- The only position where a starter from 2016 does not return is at strong side defensive end and nickel back. UK will look to replace graduating seniors Courtney Miggins (28 tackles, 4.0 TFL), Marcus McWilson (69 tackles, 1 INT) and Blake McClain (62 tackles, 3 INT).

Linebackers

2016 Starters Returning/Lost: 3/0 2016 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 6/1

- The linebacking unit runs 14 deep and has a wealth of elite talent and it all begins with All-SEC weakside linebacker Jordan Jones. The junior is the SEC's returning leader in tackles (109) and tackles for loss (15.5). He averaged a team-high 8.4 tackles per game and was a menace to opposing quarterbacks with four sacks and nine QB hurries.
- At middle linebacker, senior Courtney Love was third on the team with 76 tackles through 13 games last season and was a proven leader on and off the field.
- Strongside linebacker Josh Allen was also a force on the outside as a sophomore last season, totaling 62 tackles with a team-high 8.5 sacks and four forced fumbles, which ranked tied for 14th nationally.
- Also looking to continue contributing quality minutes are junior Jordan Bonner and sophomores Eli Brown and Kash Daniel
- Jaylin Bannerman and Jamar "Boogie" Watson are ready for action after redshirting the 2016 season. They both have the size and speed to be versatile weapons against SEC offenses. Mid-year enrollee Jamin Davis is also ready to prove why he was considered one of the top 50 outside linebackers in the country out of high school.

Defensive Line

2016 Starters Returning/Lost: 3/1 2016 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 8/2

- First-year defensive line coach Derrick LeBlanc replaced Jimmy Brumbaugh in February after being named the co-defensive coordinator at Maryland. LeBlanc, a former defensive lineman at Northwestern State, is known for his toughness. His line features eight returning letter winners, including starting at the weakside defensive end position Denzil Ware, who was second on the team in tackles for loss and sacks last season (70 tackles, 12.0 TFL, 5.5 sacks, 5 QBH). The line also returns defensive tackle Adrian Middleton (35 tackles, 5.5 TFL) and nose guard Naquez Pringle (39 tackles, 2.0 TFL, 1.0 sacks).
- Reserve nose guards Matt Elam and Jacob Hyde

- add depth and can be counted on to eat up double teams, while junior defensive end Kengera Daniel and sophomore defensive end T.J. Carter are sure to also be a productive part of the defense in 2017
- Sophomore Tymere Dubose got his first game action last season and is another option at tackle.
 Two redshirt freshmen looking to earn a spot in the rotation are Ja'Quize Cross of New Market, Alabama and Kordell Looney of Springfield, Ohio.

Secondary

- Coach Steve Clinkscale enters his second season as the secondary coach.
- Kentucky ranked fifth in the SEC in pass defense for the second straight season, allowing just 206.1 yards per game in the air. Four of his returning letter winners were a big reason for that success, including two returning starters in junior cornerbacks Derrick Baity and Chris Westry. Baity had 42 tackles, three interceptions and seven pass breakups in 2016, while Westry had 43 tackles, one interception and three PBUs. Also seeing time at cornerback and impressing the coaches with his athleticism was freshman Jordan Griffin.
- Two newcomers with size and speed who look to challenge for playing time are redshirt freshman safety Davonte Robinson, a local standout from Henry Clay High School, and junior college transfer cornerback Lonnie Johnson Jr.
- Junior safety Mike Edwards emerged as one of the league's top defensive backs last season, proving strong in run support while being an adept pass defender. He totaled 100 tackles, 5.5 TFL, three interceptions and eight pass breakups, earning second-team All-SEC honors.
- Junior Darius West is looking to return to action after suffering a season-ending knee injury during fall camp last season. West played in 10 games as a redshirt freshman in 2015, finishing with 17 tackles. He looked good in the spring and could play a pivotal role at safety in the place of senior Marcus McWilson (175 career tackles, 9.0 TFL, 1.5 sacks, 7 PBU, 1 QBH, 1 FF).
- Showing big-play potential last season at nickelback was Kendall Randolph (15 tackles, 1.0 sacks). He enters his senior campaign looking to replace the experience and leadership of senior Blake McClain (180 career tackles, 4.5 TFL, 3.0 sacks, 22 PBU, 3 QBH, 2 FF).

SCHEDULE NOTES

- The 2017 Kentucky football schedule will feature seven home games and five road tilts.
- Kentucky will once again face a challenging schedule as it includes home conference games with Florida, Missouri, Tennessee and Ole Miss. UK will travel to South Carolina, Mississippi State, Vanderbilt and Georgia in league play.
- UK will open its schedule with on the road vs.
 Southern Miss on Sept. 2. It will mark UK's first trip to Hattiesburg, Miss.
- The Wildcats' home opener is Sept. 9 vs. intrastate foe Eastern Kentucky for Heroes' Day.
- UK opens the SEC slate on the road at South Carolina on Sept. 16.
- Mixed in the conference schedule is first-time opponent Eastern Michigan at home on Sept. 30. That day, UK Athletics will host high school bands from across the state of Kentucky as part of Band Day.
- After Eastern Michigan, the Wildcats will face seven-straight SEC foes, hosting Missouri (Oct. 7) for Homecoming, along with the annual Ag Roundup and Family Weekend celebrations. The Cats will travel to Starkville, Miss., to face the Bulldogs on Oct. 21 and - return home on Oct. 28 vs. Tennessee to recognize former head coach Rich Brooks and his three bowl championship teams (2006, 2007 and 2008).

- When the Wildcats play host to Ole Miss on Nov. 4, UK Athletics will pay special tribute to veterans with its first annual Salute to Veterans. Additionally, it will be Youth Football Day at Kroger Field.
- Back-to-back road games at Vanderbilt (Nov. 11) and Georgia (Nov. 18) will conclude regular-season SEC play before Louisville visits Kroger Field on Nov. 25 for Senior Day.
- The 2017 season will culminate with the first SEC Championship Game to be played in the new Mercedes Benz Stadium in Atlanta on Saturday, Dec. 2. It will be the 26th edition of the game and the 24th in the city of Atlanta.

THREE WILDCATS DO SERVICE WORK IN DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

- In May of 2017, three Wildcats, outside linebackers Jordan Bonner and Denzil Ware and tight end C.J. Conrad, were chosen by the athletic department to participate in a service/educational trip to the Dominican Republic. During the week-long trip, they interacted with residents of impoverished communities, visited an orphanage, constructed park benches in a sugar cane village, distributed food to the hungry and visited a nursing home and a daycare for special needs children.
- UK has taken football student-athletes to Ethiopia on a service trip since 2011. Due to the state department's travel ban to Ethiopia, the Cats visited the DR in 2017.
 - 2011: Stuart Hines, Danny Trevathan
 - 2012: Mikie Benton, Matt Smith, Larry Warford
 - 2013: Kevin Mitchell, Jonathan George,
 - Avery Williamson 2014: Alvin "Bud" Dupree, Landon Foster,
 - Braylon Heard
 - 2015: Austin MacGinnis, Marcus McWilson, Alex Montgomery
 - 2016: Greg Hart, DeNiro Laster, Courtney Love *2017: Jordan Bonner, C.J. Conrad, Denzil Ware (Dominican Republic)

COACHING CHANGES

- Dean Hood was named special teams coordinator/ outside linebackers coach to replace Matt House who was named defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach. Hood spent the 2016 season as the assistant head coach/special teams coordinator/tight ends at Charlotte. House, who was UK's special teams coordinator in 2016, replaced D.J. Eliot who left UK for a similar position at Colorado.
- UK defensive line coach, Jimmy Brumbaugh, was hired to be the co-defensive coordinator at Maryland in February. Former North Texas defensive line coach, Derrick LeBlanc, was hired to replace Brumbaugh.

MID-YEAR ENROLLEES

 Kentucky welcomed seven mid-year enrollees to the program in January. One is a junior college transfer and six are true freshmen.

Danny Clark, Quarterback

6-2, 230, Fr.-HS

Columbus, Ohio (Archbishop Hoban)

Jamin Davis, Linebacker

6-4, 212, Fr.-HS

Ludowici, Ga. (Long County)

Cedric Dort Jr., Defensive Back

5-11, 170, Fr.-HS

Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. (Dwyer)

Three Wildcats, C.J. Conrad, Denzil Ware and Jordan Bonner, participated in a week-long service trip to the Dominican Republic in May of 2017.

Lonnie Johnson Jr., Defensive Back

Bryant Koback, Running Back

6-0, 193, Fr.-HS Thornville, Ohio

Holland, Ohio (Springfield)

Clevan Thomas Jr., Wide Receiver

5-11, 205, Fr.-HS

Miami, Fla. (Charles W. Flanagan)

Walker Wood, Quarterback

Lexington, Ky. (Lafayette)

- In 2016, UK added seven mid-year enrollees, including high school graduates Kash Daniel, Gunnar Hoak, Dakota Holtzclaw and Drake Jackson and three junior college transfers in Tate Leavitt, Naquez Pringle and Stephen Johnson.
- Daniel, Pringle and Johnson were the only players who didn't redshirt. Daniel recorded 19 tackles, mostly on special teams, while Pringle started in five of 12 games as nose guard and totaled 39 tackles, including 2.0 TFL. Johnson became UK's primary starter three games into the season after an injury to Drew Barker. He finished completed 145 of 265 passes for 2,037 yards and 13 TDs.

CWS RENAMED TO KROGER FIELD

- In May of 2017, UK, JMI Sports and Kroger announced a comprehensive and unprecedented partnership that expands Kroger's commitment to UK Athletics and the University of Kentucky, including the renaming of UK's football stadium from Commonwealth Stadium to Kroger Field.
- In order to avoid any confusion and in consultation with the Newton family, the football playing field will be renamed to C.M. Newton Grounds at Kroger Field. The playing field was named C.M. Newton Field in honor of the former UK athletics director in 2000.
- Through this partnership, Kroger also becomes the Official Fuel Partner of the University of Kentucky and the Official Grocery Partner of Move-In at UK while also providing additional engagement opportunities with UK students in discussion now. Per the agreement, Kroger is also the Official Nutrition and Pharmacy Partner of UK Athletics.

MacGINNIS No. 2 Scorer in UK History

 Kicker Austin MacGinnis enters his senior season as the No. 2 scorer in Kentucky history. He currently has 257 career points and needs just 48 more to tie Lones

- Seiber (305 from 2006-09) at No. 1. The 257 points are the most points ever for a Wildcat prior to his senior season.
- MacGinnis has made 50 of 63 field goals in his career, 79.3 percent. He enters 2017 with a streak of seven straight made field goals. He already owns the school record with 11 straight.

KENTUCKY'S YOUNGSTOWN BOYS

As a neighbor of Pittsburgh, a.k.a. Steel City USA, Youngstown, Ohio has a reputation as a blue collar community defined by hard work and relationships forged over generations that are stronger than steel. Kentucky's football program is, in many ways, defined by that bond as it creates a southern alumni club from Youngstown, the hometown of head coach Mark Stoops and several other key members of the program. Below is a list of staffers and players from Youngstown, Ohio:

Mark Stoops - Head Coach (Cardinal Mooney)
Vince Marrow - Recruiting Coord./Tight Ends (Cardinal Mooney)

Steve Clinkscale - Defensive Backs (Chaney)

Lynn Bowden Jr. - Wide Receiver (Warren Harding)

Jordan Jones - Linebacker (Cardinal Mooney)

Tymere Dubose - Defensive Tackle (Youngstown Christian)

DID YOU KNOW?

- This fall will be the 127th season of intercollegiate football for the UK football program.
- Kentucky is entering its fifth season under head coach Mark Stoops, who has energized the UK fan base with record-setting recruiting classes, facility upgrades and an influx in talent.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 22 national cheerleading championships, including 18 of the last 22, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association championships.
- Kentucky is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men's basketball championship while also having a claim on a national championship in football.
- UK is one of only seven universities in the U.S. that have programs in agriculture, engineering, law, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.

Mark Stoops Head Coach

HEAD COACH • FIFTH SEASON • IOWA, 1989

Knowing that obstacles are a certainty both in football and in life, Mark Stoops frequently drills his players with the mantra "don't flinch." The Kentucky head football coach certainly lived up to that creed in 2016.

After having lost the first two games of the schedule, and seeing his starting quarterback out for the season with an injury, and seeing his defense struggle in the early stages, Stoops didn't retreat. The Wildcat coach chose determination over despair and went back to work.

Stoops re-tooled the offense with backup quarterback Stephen Johnson, going to a more physical, ground-based attack. With a history of success as a defensive coordinator, Stoops returned to his roots by becoming more involved with the planning and play-calling on that side of the ball.

The results? Kentucky became a record-setting rushing team – generating a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in the same season for the first time in school history – while mixing in numerous big-play passes from Johnson, who competes with a don't-flinch mindset that mirrors his coach. The young defense, which featured seven sophomores in the starting lineup, began reducing points allowed and often provided key stops in crucial moments of UK victories.

Topped by a win at No. 11-ranked Louisville, the Wildcats went 7-4 in the last 11 games and made their inaugural appearance in the Tax-Slayer Bowl. It was Kentucky's first postseason game since 2010 and the first time in 56 years that a UK team began the season 0-2 before rebounding to a winning record. Kentucky tied for second place in the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division, the team's highest finish since the league split into divisions in 1992. Stoops was recognized for his team's accomplishments by being named SEC Coach of the Year runner-up by Athlon Sports.

The current campaign is the result of a rebuilding process began by Stoops when he took over Kentucky football for the 2013 season. Energetic recruiting has produced UK's five highest-rated classes in the history of recruiting evaluator Rivals.com. Stoops also raised funds and helped design two major facility projects, the re-imagining of Commonwealth Stadium in 2015 and the Joe Craft Football Training Center in 2016, with a combined cost of $170 million.

The steady growth of the program saw Stoops' team win five games in 2014, more than the previous two seasons combined. The squad also won five games in 2015, including a victory at South Carolina that was UK's first SEC road win since 2009, and a win over Missouri,

STOOPS AND CO. MAKING A HIT IN RECRUITING

In just four seasons at the helm of the Kentucky football program, head coach Mark Stoops and his staff have been making noise on the recruiting trail. Kentucky's five classes under Stoops have ranked in the top 50 by all four major recruiting services. Below is a look at UK's recruiting success under Stoops and Co.

UK's first triumph against a ranked opponent since 2010.

Stoops came to Kentucky from Florida State, where he was defensive coordinator from 2010-12. He inherited a unit a unit ranked 108th in the nation in total defense and turned it into one of the nation's best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense. FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation's top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Cornellius Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13. Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The Seminoles' prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops' defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops' arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades.

During Stoops' three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark's time there, Arizona's records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years. Mark and Mike are also brothers of Bob Stoops, who recently retired after 18 years as the Sooners' head coach. Mike is currently the defensive coordinator at Oklahoma. The eldest Stoops brother, Ron Jr., is special teams coordinator at Youngstown State.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in total defense his final two seasons and ranked as high as 33rd in scoring defense.

Prior to Arizona, Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops' 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft - seven in the first round.

Stoops got his first experience in leading a defense as co-defensive coordinator at Houston in the 2000 season. He coached the secondary at Wyoming from 1997-99 and the Cowboys notched three straight winning seasons. A highlight of his time there was a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first fulltime coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs, many of whom went on to National Football League careers. Among the notables are Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson at Arizona, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph and Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. As did brothers Bob and Mike, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeves won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Stoops and his wife, Chantel, have two sons, Will and Zack.

STEVE CLINKSCALE

DEFENSIVE BACKS • SECOND SEASON • ASHLAND, 2000

Steve Clinkscale is in his second season as Kentucky's defensive backs coach.

Clinkscale joined the Kentucky coaching staff after serving three seasons with Cincinnati as secondary coach, including the 2015 campaign as the defensive

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Clinkscale previously spent a year as the cornerbacks coach at Illinois (2012), after a three-year run with Toledo. He also served as an assistant with Western Carolina in 2008, after opening his coaching career at his alma mater Ashland University (2001-07) in Ohio.

In his three seasons at Cincinnati, Clinkscale helped the Bearcats advance to three straight bowl games - Belk Bowl (2013), Military Bowl (2014) and Hawai'i Bowl (2015). As the main defensive play-caller in 2015, his defense ranked third in the American Athletic Conference, allowing only 217 passing yards per game. Junior UC linebacker Eric Wilson blossomed under Clinkscale's guidance as he charted a 106-tackle season, while safety Zach Edwards starred with 94 tackles and three interceptions.

Edwards excelled under Clinkscale's tutelage in 2014, amassing 121 tackles, two interceptions and six pass break-ups. During UC's nine-win season in 2013, Edwards > shined as a freshman with 73 tackles and a pair of interceptions.

Before joining the UC staff, Clinkscale spent a season on the staff at Illinois as the cornerbacks coach, helping the Fighting Illini rank in the Top-20 nationally in pass defense, surrendering under 200 yards passing

He joined the Illini staff after spending three seasons at Toledo, including the final two as the cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator. Under his leadership, Toledo's cornerbacks played a key role in the Rockets' defensive resurgence, while special teams were a strong suit as well. The kickoff return team ranked 11th in the nation in 2010 and the punt return unit ranked 17th in 2011.

In 2011, Clinkscale helped the Rockets become a national leader in takeaways, as Toledo ranked 16th in turnovers gained. UT also ranked third in the nation in turnover margin and 29th in third-down defense in 2011. Clinkscale guided the Rockets to a No. 17 finish in punt return average in 2011, which helped Toledo to a 9-4 campaign and a victory in the Military Bowl.

Clinkscale also helped develop Toledo's Eric Page into one of the most electrifying return men in college football, as Page was named a third-team All-American by Phil Steele and a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award, given annually to the nation's most versatile player. Page also was named first-team All-Mid-American Conference as a receiver, kickoff returner and punt returner.

Toledo went from allowing 37.7 points per game in 2009 to 28.5 in 2010. The Rocket defense also increased its turnovers from 21 to 34, the fifth-highest takeaway total in the nation in 2010, and tied for eighth-most interceptions in the country with 20. Toledo also finished 11th in the nation in kickoff return average, helping propel Toledo to an 8-5 season and its first bowl appearance in five years.

With the Rockets in 2010, Clinkscale helped guide junior Desmond Marrow as he returned to the lineup after nearly a two-year absence. Marrow responded with an outstanding season, with 72 tackles, three interceptions and six pass breakups. On special teams, Clinkscale helped coach Page, who averaged 31.1 yards per return, earn numerous first-team All-America honors. He was the only player in the FBS to return three kickoffs for touchdowns.

Clinkscale went to Toledo with eight years of college coaching experience: one year at Western Carolina (2008) and seven seasons at Ashland University (2001-07). In his only season at Western Carolina, he worked with the Catamount defensive backs in addition to serving as Western's academic liaison.

During his seven seasons at Ashland, Clinkscale served mostly as a secondary coach, spending his final season as the linebackers coach. He also served as the academic liaison at AU, where the football team routinely posted combined GPAs of 3.0 or better.

Clinkscale mentored two All-Americans (Devin Conwell and Toure Carter) and two Cactus Bowl (NCAA Division II all-star game) participants at Ashland. Conwell was named the 2005 GLIAC Defensive Clinkscale was a four-year starter and a team captain at Ashland. He played in the 2000 Snow Bowl. the Division II all-star game that was the predecessor to the Catcus Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports science, with a concentration in therapeutic recreation in 2000.

Clinkscale and his wife, Jasena, have four sons: Isaiah, Elijah, and twins, Zion and Zivon.

EDDIE GRAN

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH OFFENSE/OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR AND RB COACH SECOND SEASON • CAL LUTHERAN. 1987

A 29-year collegiate coaching veteran, Eddie Gran enters his second season at Kentucky as the assistant head coach of the offense/offensive coordinator as well as running backs coach.

In his first season, Gran's running backs combined for more than 3,000 rushing yards, with Stanley "Boom" Williams and Benny Snell Jr. becoming the first two players in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season. Snell earned Freshman All-America and was twice named SEC Freshman of the Week. Williams, who averaged an impressive 6.8 yards per carry in 2016, signed with the Cincinnati Bengals as an undrafted free agent.

Gran joined the Kentucky staff after a three-year run as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati. He was reunited with Stoops after serving as the associate head coach, running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Florida State from 2010-12.

A veteran offensive mind with coaching stops including Miami (Fla.), Ole Miss, Auburn, Tennessee and Florida State, Gran boasts a reputation for mentoring running backs. He has helped develop dynamic running backs at nearly every coaching stop during his decorated career, including former Auburn stars Carnell Williams, Ronnie Brown, Rudi Johnson, Ben Tate, Brandon Jacobs, Heath Evans and Kenny Irons, and Ole Miss greats Deuce McAllister and John Avery. While at Tennessee, he guided Montario Hardesty to a 1,000-yard season.

Gran also boasts an impressive record on the recruiting trail, succeeding throughout his career in Florida. He helped Florida State obtain the nation's top-ranked class in 2011 and was named by ESPN.com as one of the top 25 recruiters of the year in 2011. helping secure a bevy of talent that helped the Seminoles to the national championship in the 2013 season.

While teaming with Stoops on the Florida State coaching staff, Gran served as associate head coach, running backs coach and special teams coordinator, helping lead the Seminoles to their first Atlantic Coast Conference Championship since 2005, first 11-win season since 2000 and ninth Orange Bowl appearance in 2012.

He had an immediate impact at Cincinnati, guiding a record-setting offense in 2013, as the Bearcats led the American Athletic Conference in total offense (472.1) and rushing offense (168.3) with the offense totaling a school-record 6.137 yards. In 2015, those marks were eclipsed, Cincinnati ranked sixth in the nation in total offense at 537.8 yards per game, having accumulated a staggering 6,992 total yards. UC was also sixth in the nation in passing offense with 359.9 yards per game and rushed for 177.9 yards per game.

Gran's coaching career began at his alma mater Cal Lutheran, where he played four seasons as a wide receiver. He spent 14 seasons as a running backs coach and special team coordinator in the Southeastern Conference, including 10 years at Auburn, followed by a stop at Tennessee.

While guiding the special teams unit for FSU in 2012. kicker Dustin Hopkins set the NCAA career record for scoring by a kicker and was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award for the second-straight year in addition to All-America honors and First Team All-ACC accolades. Hopkins set the NCAA career scoring record for kickers (466 points), as well as establishing NCAA, ACC and FSU records with 88 career field goals.

The Seminoles' punt return and kickoff return units were arguably the most dynamic in the country, as each ranked second in the ACC > and No. 7 and No. 17 in nation. respectively. Rashad Greene scored two touchdowns on punt returns and ranked second in the country with a 15.35 punt return average, while Tyler Hunter also had a punt return score. On kickoff returns, Lamarcus Joyner and Karlos Williams combined to average 24.6 yards per return.

Under Gran's direction. FSU's stable of running backs also had one of the most prolific seasons in the country and in school history, averaging 203 rushing yards per game and tallying 2,639 yards and an FSU-record 37 touchdowns on the ground in 2012.

In 2011 for FSU, Gran's running back corps played behind a bangedup offensive line, bringing down the group's production from the 2010 season. However, Gran still produced one of the top freshman running backs in FSU history as Freeman ran for 579 yards - the fifth-best single season total by an Gran helped develop Florida State's running game into one of the strongest in the ACC in his first season in Tallahassee in 2010. The Seminoles averaged nearly 5.0 yards per carry and ranked third in the league in rushing touchdowns with 27. The Seminoles ranked fourth in the league in scoring as compared to sixth the year before Gran's arrival. In 2010, three Seminole running backs gained more than 400 yards rushing on the ground led by FSU's leading rusher Thompson, who gained 845 yards. It was only the sixth time in FSU history that a trio gained more than 400 yards in a season. FSU ran for more than 200 yards five times as a team including a 298yard performance against in-state rival Miami, which capped off a string of four consecutive 200-yard rushing games – BYU (278), Wake Forest (201), Virginia (256) and Miami (298). FSU ran for 218 yards in the Chick-fil-A bowl win over SEC East Champion South Carolina. Gran has a strong record for developing backfield talent.

Tennessee's Hardesty (1,345 yards) added his name to the lengthy list of 1,000-yard rushers Gran has worked with over the course of his career in '09. Hardesty, who did not fumble on 282 carries from scrimmage in 2009, was a second-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2010. He was selected one slot after Auburn's Tate (Houston Texans), whom Gran coached in 2008.

Gran's tenure as a special teams coach included oversight of Auburn kicker John Vaughn, who was the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year in 2006.

Gran has four daughters, Bently, Dillan, Sydney and Lucy Grace.

He is deeply involved in the community for a cause that has changed his life and continues to impact others. The Sydney Gran Foundation is a charity designed to support children's hospitals and other families whose children are facing serious illness. Sydney, the third of the Gran's four daughters, was born with the rare disease called Holoprosnecephaly. She passed away just shy of her sixth birthday in 2005. DARIN HINSHAW

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS • SECOND SEASON • UCF, 1993

Darin Hinshaw is in his second season as Kentucky's co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

In his first season, Hinshaw did a masterful job of bringing along Stephen Johnson after starting QB Drew Barker was lost for the season because of injury. Johnson developed into a steady performer and was voted National Quarterback of the Week after UK's upset at No. 11 Louisville. He led the Wildcats to their first bowl appearance since 2010.

Hinshaw, a former record-setting quarterback at UCF, joined the Kentucky staff after serving on the Cincinnati coaching staff from 2013-15. Before his time with the Bearcats, Hinshaw coached three seasons with Tennessee, including functioning as the recruiting coordinator in 2012, with Rivals.com ranking him as one of the top 10 recruiters in college football in 2011.

In each year, Hinshaw has helped guide the Bearcats to a bowl game, with UC collecting 25 wins. In 2013, UC led the American Athletic Conference in total offense (472.1) and rushing offense (168.3) with the offense totaling a school-record 6,137 yards. Those marks were erased in 2015. Cincinnati amassed 6,992 offensive yards, 537.8 yards per game, including 359.9 passing yards per contest and 177.9 rushing yards per game. The Bearcats ranked sixth in the nation in passing offense and total offense.

Hinshaw is no stranger to record-setting offenses, helping direct Tennessee to 5,711 yards in 2012, the second-most in school history. His star wide receiver, Cordarrelle Patterson, a First-Team All-SEC selection, set UT's single-season record with 1,858 all-purpose yards. Included in that total were 46 receptions for 778 yards and five TDs. Justin Hunter, who earned Second-Team All-SEC honors. grabbed 73 balls for 1,083 yards and nine TDs, the second-best single-season mark for receptions.

Hinshaw guided QB Tyler Bray to a record-setting start to the 2011 season as the signal caller set a school record for completion percentage in a game. He also started the year with the most passing yards in a three-game span in UT's storied history.

In 2010, Hinshaw's impact was immediate as Tennessee's quarterbacks coach. The former signalcaller helped a pair of UT quarterbacks debut in leading the Vols' offense to a bowl game and a third-place finish in the SEC's Eastern Division.

Hinshaw's quarterback duo of Matt Simms and Bray combined for 3,309 yards passing and 26 touchdowns in 2010. Bray assumed the starter's role in November and guided the team to a 4-0 finish to claim bowl eligibility.

Hinshaw, a Punta Gorda, Fla., native, was at Memphis from 2007-09 as the wide receivers coach. He joined the Tigers' staff after serving one season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia Southern. In 2006, Georgia Southern ranked 27th nationally in total offense, averaging 359.9 yards

Prior to that, Hinshaw worked at Middle Tennessee for five seasons. He was the running backs coach his first two seasons before being elevated to co-offensive coordinator in February 2003.

Under Hinshaw's guidance, the MTSU offense consistently led the Sun Belt Conference and was among the nation's statistical leaders. A highlight was in 2003, when the Blue Raiders' offense was the highest scoring unit in the league at 27.7 points a contest. Hinshaw made his way to Middle Tennessee from Central Florida, his alma mater. Hinshaw spent 1999 as a graduate assistant before taking over the quarterback coaching duties in 2000.

As a player, Hinshaw set numerous school records for the Knights, finishing as the career leader in every major passing category, including yards (9,000) and TDs (82). During his time under center, UCF had a combined 28-16 record, including a 9-3 mark in 1993 that resulted in a berth in the Division I-AA playoffs. Hinshaw was named to UCF's 25th Anniversary Team in 2004.

Following his playing days at UCF, Hinshaw began a career in pro football. After a brief stint with the Cleveland Browns, he spent two years with the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League.

Hinshaw earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 1993 and a master's in business administration from UCF in 1996.

Hinshaw and his wife, Pam, have four children: daughters Sydney, Hayley and Carley; and son Darin Jr.

DEAN HOOD

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS FIRST SEASON • OHIO WESLEYAN, 1986

Dean Hood, a familiar name for football fans around the Commonwealth, enters his first season on Mark Stoops' staff as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach.

Hood spent 13 years at Eastern Kentucky in Richmond, Kentucky, including eight seasons as the head coach from 2008-15.

Hood, who has 29 years of college coaching experience, spent the 2016 season as the assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Charlotte. Prior to that, he was the head coach at EKU, leading the Colonels to two Ohio Valley Conference Championships, three FCS Playoff appearances and an overall record of 55-38 (59.1). In 2008 he was named the OVC Coach of the Year and in 2011 he was the American Football Coaches Association Regional Coach of the Year. He also was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, which goes to the best coach in FCS football, in both the 2008 and 2014 seasons.

With Hood at the helm, EKU produced nine
All-Americans, one OVC Offensive Player of the Year, one OVC Defensive Player of the Year, one OVC
Freshman of the Year and 26 first team all-conference performers. Three of his former players have seen success in the professional ranks as Matt Langel is a tight end for the Super Bowl Champions New England Patriots; Noah Spence, a defensive lineman for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, was named to Gil Brandt's 2016 NFL All-Rookie Team after charting 22 tackles, including 5.5 sacks in 2016; and Jordan Berry is the Pittsburgh Steelers' starting punter who set the team's single regular-season record highest net punting average (40.2) in 2016.

Before EKU, Hood spent seven years (2001-07) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Wake Forest and his defensive units were known for creating turnovers and scoring touchdowns. The Demon Deacons forced 186 turnovers during his tenure, more than two per game.

In 2006, Hood helped the Demon Deacons win the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship for the first time since 1970 with an impressive 11-3 record (the most wins in school history). His defense ranked second in the conference, allowing just 15.4 points per game, while leading the league in interceptions with 22, second most in the nation. Against the run, Wake yielded just 105.8 yards per game, 21st nationally and the third lowest total in Wake Forest history.

Wake Forest earned its first and only BCS Bowl bid, facing Louisville in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

The following season, Wake Forest led the ACC with 35 forced turnovers on its way to finishing 9-4 and capturing the Meineke Car Care Bowl title with a 24-10 win over Connecticut.

Hood's defenders earned All-ACC mention 14 times. That list included four NFL draft picks – Calvin Pace, Montique Sharpe, Eric King and Josh Gattis.

Hood's first coaching stop was at Fairmont (W.Va.) State working with the defensive backs (1987-88). The 1988 team won the WVIAC championship and led the nation with 31 interceptions. He then spent time at Colgate (1989), Glenville (W.Va.) State (1990-93) and Ohio University (1999-2000).

At Glenville, Hood helped the 1993 team finish 10-3 with an appearance in the NAIA Division I championship game and his defense led the nation in scoring, allowing just 9.2 points per game, 118 passing yards per game and 223 total yards per game.

During his two seasons at Ohio as the defensive backs coach, Hood's 1999 defensive unit charted 17 interceptions, the most in more than a decade. In 2000, Ohio ranked 20th nationally in defense, allowing 18.9 points per game. His defense was one of only five programs in Division I-A that did not allow more than 30 points in a game through the entire season.

He also had a previous five-year stint at EKU as the Colonels' secondary coach (1994-96) and defensive coordinator/secondary coach (1997-98) under College Football Hall of Fame head coach Roy Kidd.

Hood, a native of Ashtabula, Ohio, earned his bachelor's degree in biology from Ohio Wesleyan in 1986 and a master's degree in physical education from West Virginia in 1989.

At Ohio Wesleyan, he was a three-time all-North Coast Athletic Conference selection as a defensive back. He was elected captain two seasons and was a first-team All-American as a senior. In 2001, he was inducted into the OWU Athletic Hall of Fame.

He and his wife, Crystal, originally from Richmond, Ky., have four children – two sons, Trey and Daven, and two daughters, Jada and Cordia.

MATT HOUSE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/INSIDE LINEBACKERS SECOND SEASON • MICHIGAN STATE, 2000

In his first season, he was charged with developing a pair of first-time starters in linebackers Courtney Love and Jordan Jones. Under House's tutelage, the duo made quite the impact. Love guided the defense from middle LB with 76 tackles (third on the team), while Jones averaged an SEC-high 5.7 solo tackles per game. The sophomore totaled a team-high 109 tackles, including 15.5 tackles for loss which earned him second-team All-SEC honors.

House joined the Wildcat coaching staff after spending three seasons as a defensive coordinator in the college ranks, helping Pittsburgh to two bowl games before becoming the defensive coordinator at FIU last season. Since beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 2001, House has had success at stops in Division I and the NFL.

In his lone season with FIU, as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, House helped guide the Panthers to five wins, despite injuries at key positions, and limited four opponents to 14 points or less. FIU ended the season ranked 16th nationally in redzone defense, 45th nationally in fumbles recovered, 44th nationally in defensive touchdowns and 33rd in fourth-down conversion percentage defense. He also helped coach the kickoff return, kickoff coverage and punt units on special teams.

Under House's guidance, senior defensive end Michael Wakefield tied the school record for tackles for loss and sacks in a game, earning Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week honors. After the season, five defensive players earned all-conference honors, while four signed NFL free-agent contracts.

House spent three years at Pitt before heading to FIU, coaching the secondary his first season in 2012 before being promoted to defensive coordinator/linebackers coach for two seasons. During those two years, House helped guide the Panthers to the 2013 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl and the 2015 Armed Forces Bowl. Under House, Pittsburgh defensive tackle Aaron Donald was drafted 13th overall by the Rams in the 2014 NFL Draft and eventually was selected for the Pro Bowl.

In 2013, House helped Pitt rank 34th nationally in total defense, allowing 367.5 yards of total offense per game. House's defense really performed well in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl that season, limiting Mid-American Conference Champion Bowling Green, who was averaging 472 yards and 35 points per game, to just 27 points and 289 yards in the Panthers' 30-27 victory.

As the Pitt secondary coach in 2012, House's unit helped the Panthers rank 20th nationally in pass defense, 21st nationally in pass efficiency defense and 26th nationally in interceptions. At various times at Pitt, he worked with the kickoff, kickoff return and punt return teams.

Before his recent collegiate success, House spent four seasons in the NFL. He served as a defensive quality control coach and assistant linebackers coach for the St. Louis Rams from 2009 to 2011 after a stop with the Carolina Panthers in 2008 as a special teams assistant and strength and conditioning assistant. While with Carolina, the Panthers went 12-4 and claimed the NFC South Division title and the franchise's fourth-ever playoff berth.

House started his coaching career in 2001 as a graduate assistant at Michigan State, where he helped guide the Spartans to the 2001 Silicon Valley Classic helping coaching the team's secondary and special teams. Following his time with MSU, House spent two seasons as a defensive assistant at North Carolina, helping the Tar Heels to the 2004 Continental Tire Bowl. In 2005, House was the defensive line coach at Gardner-Webb.

In 2006 and 2007, House was defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator under Turner Gill at the University of Buffalo, leading the Bulls to a share of the MAC East Division title his final season. While at Buffalo, House helped develop All-MAC safety Davonte Shannon, who finished as the Bulls' all-time leading tackler and signed an NFL free agent deal.

House, a native of Harrison, Mich., earned his bachelor's degree from Michigan State in 2000. He and his wife, Jessi, have a daughter, Avery, and three sons, Jackson, Jacob and Trent.

DERRICK LeBLANC

DEFENSIVE LINE • FIRST SEASON • NORTHWESTERN STATE, 1996

Derrick LeBlanc (pronounced "luh-blon" the "c" is silent) enters his first season as the defensive line

LeBlanc joins the Wildcat program after one season as the defensive line coach at North Texas. He was a part of the Mean Green's remarkable turnaround from winning just one game in 2015 to five wins and an appearance in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl in 2016. The Mean Green defense ranked 13th nationally in defensive turnaround in points per game, allowing 41.2 ppg in 2015 and 32.6 in 2016. They also ranked third in Conference USA in pass > the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Pearl River Community College in Poplarville, Miss.

During the 2013 and 2014 seasons, LeBlanc helped revitalize the defensive line at Southern Miss. In his first year he managed a defensive line led by Khyri Thornton, who was named second team All-Conference USA and selected in the third round (85th overall pick) to the Green Bay Packers in the 2014 NFL Draft. Under LeBlanc's tutelage, Thornton recorded 39 tackles, including 16 solo tackles and 23 assisted tackles. He also coached first-team All-Conference USA selection Rakeem Nunez-Roches, now going into his third season with the Kansas City Chiefs.

LeBlanc joined the Golden Eagle staff after spending the 2012 season coaching the defensive line at the University of Wyoming for head coach Dave Christensen. Though his tenure there was brief, LeBlanc made a lasting impact on the Cowboy program, coaching defensive tackle Mike Purcell to All-Mountain West Conference first team honors. Purcell was third on the team in tackles, a tough mark to achieve for an interior lineman, with 83 while recording eight tackles for loss. Purcell was also one of two Wyoming seniors selected to play in a postseason collegiate all-star game. He currently is a nose tackle for the San Francisco 49ers.

LeBlanc went to Wyoming from LSU, where he was an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator from 2008-11 under head coach Les Miles. He also assisted with on-campus recruiting and during his four years with the Tigers, the team captured the 2008 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship, faced Penn State in the Capital One Bowl following the 2009 season, defeated Texas A&M for the Cotton Bowl Championship following the 2010 season and in 2011 captured the SEC Championship and earned a berth in the BCS National Championship Game.

Prior to LSU, LeBlanc was the defensive line coach and academic coordinator at Arkansas Tech for the 2005 season. He went from there to Missouri State in Springfield, Mo., coaching the defensive line in 2006 and 2007.

LeBlanc's first full-time college coaching position was at Henderson State University in Arkadelphia, Ark. He coached the defensive line and was the school's strength and conditioning coordinator for four seasons from 2001-04.

He began his coaching career in 1997 at Breaux Bridge High School in Breaux Bridge, La., where he was the offensive and defensive line coach for three seasons from 1997-99. LeBlanc broke into the college ranks in 2000 when he accepted a graduate assistant position at LSU. There he assisted then-defensive line coach Pete Jenkins in coaching the defensive line, as well as assisting the strength and conditioning staff.

LeBlanc, a native of Breaux Bridge, La., was a four-year football letterman at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, La., from 1992-96. He played both defensive and offensive line during his playing career, and earned Southland Conference All-Academic honors as both a junior and senior. He graduated from Northwestern State with a degree in business administration and earned a master's degree in sports administration from LSU.

He and his wife, Niema, have two sons, Dayton and Derrick, and one daughter, Kennedy.

Marrow's knowledge and coaching had an impact on the Nebraska offense as the Cornhuskers ranked 26th in total offense and 28th in scoring offense nationally, an improvement from 44th in total offense and 39th in scoring offense the year before he arrived.

Marrow showed an impact on the Huskers' offense in his first season, helping Nebraska average nearly 30 points per game in 2011, scoring at least two touchdowns in every game throughout the season, a feat that an NU team had accomplished only twice in the past 10 seasons. The Cornhuskers went 9-4, including a trip to the Capital One Bowl.

Although Marrow's title was graduate assistant in his term at Nebraska, he had an expanded role in the spring of 2012, getting to hit the recruiting trail after Nebraska was granted a waiver from the NCAA to allow Marrow to recruit off campus while associate head coach Barney Cotton was unable to recruit because of surgery. Marrow made an immediate impact on NU's recruiting in Ohio.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Marrow spent six years in the coaching ranks, mostly in professional football with NFL Europe and the United Football League. The year before joining the staff at NU, Marrow was tight ends coach with the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL.

Before serving as the head coach of Holland High School in Springfield, Ohio in 2009, Marrow earned his first collegiate coaching position at his alma mater, Toledo, in 2008. Marrow coached the Rockets' tight ends, helping John Allen and Tom Burzine to finish third and fifth on the team in receiving, respectively.

Marrow began his coaching career in NFL Europe, coaching tackles and tight ends with the Rhein Fire (Düsseldorf, Germany) from 2006-07 before holding the same position with the Berlin Thunder from

Marrow had a professional playing career as a member of NFL rosters on five teams, including Buffalo, Carolina, New York Jets, Chicago and San Francisco. After his NFL days ended, Marrow played for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 1998, earning all-league honors with 32 receptions for 345 yards. He also played for the Orlando Rage in the XFL

Marrow began his collegiate playing career at Youngstown State before transferring to Toledo. Marrow played two seasons at Toledo, earning second-team All-Mid-American Conference honors in 1991 before being drafted by the Bills in 1992.

Marrow graduated from Toledo with a degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Dr. Monique Marrow, have five children, Mike, Phylica, Merrisa, Victoria and Aryanna.

JOHN SCHLARMAN

OFFENSIVE LINE • FIFTH SEASON • KENTUCKY, 1997

John Schlarman, a former All-Southeastern Conference offensive guard at the University of Kentucky, is in his fifth year as offensive line coach, in his current term, at his alma mater.

Schlarman has turned in a solid performance while rebuilding the Wildcat forward wall.

The line blocked for two players who rushed for more than 1,000 yards (Boom Williams and Benny Snell). Williams averaged 6.8 yards per carry, just shy of his own school record of 7.1 yards per carry in 2015, while Snell broke UK freshman records for most rushing yards, most total touchdowns, most rushing touchdowns and most 100-yard games.

Center Jon Toth was named first-team All-Southeastern Conference and guard Logan Stenberg was a Freshman All-SEC choice.

In 2015, his offensive line paved the way for 25 points, 209 passing and 163 yards rushing yards per game.

In 2014, UK improved its offensive output by more than 11 points per game and more than 69 yards of total offense per game over the 2012 season, the year before Schlarman arrived.

Schlarman came to UK from Troy University, where he coached the offensive line from 2007-12, adding the duty of running game coordinator in 2010. He helped Troy win or share four Sun Belt Conference championships and advance to three bowl games.

Troy had one of the nation's most productive offenses during Schlarman's term, ranking among the nation's top 26 in total offense in five of his six seasons at the school. The Trojans hit a No. 3 ranking in total offense in 2009 with 485.7 yards per game. Troy averaged 498.8 yards per game in 2012, ranking 13th nationally.

Featuring pass-oriented offenses, the Trojans rated as high as No. 4 in the nation in passing yardage, accomplished in 2009 at 336.5 yards per game. Troy was eighth nationally in passing in 2012 with 331.5 yards per game.

Troy also had complementary running games with Schlarman, averaging at least 149 yards per game in five of his six seasons, featuring a high mark of 182.6 yards per contest in 2007. All the yardage also has resulted in point production as the team averaged at least 30 points per game in five of his six years.

Individually, Schlarman coached eight firstteam All-Sun Belt selections, including at least one first-teamer each season. Two of his linemen, Dion Small and Tyler Clark, were two-time first-team All-SBC. Another All-SBC lineman, James Brown, went on to the National Football League and played for the Chicago Bears.

Schlarman originally came to the University from Highlands High School in Ft. Thomas, Ky., where he was an all-state offensive lineman. He was a four-year starter at Kentucky from 1994-97, earning first-team All-SEC honors as a senior. He also was a member of the SEC All-Freshman Team in 1994 and was chosen the team's most outstanding offensive lineman in 1995 and '96. Following his junior season, he was chosen for the "Unsung Hero All-America Team" by the College Football Chronicle.

Also an outstanding student, Schlarman was a three-year member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was a finalist for Academic All-America in 1997 after earning a place on the Academic All-District Team. He graduated with a degree in mathematics and later earned his master's in sports management.

Schlarman entered coaching at Bourbon County High School, coaching the defensive line in 1998 and '99, helping guide the team to the state playoffs both seasons. He returned to UK as a graduate assistant coach from 2000-02, helping with the offensive line all three seasons. He also had sole responsibility of the tight ends in the '02 campaign when the Wildcats compiled a 7-5 record.

Schlarman re-entered the high-school ranks in 2003 as head coach at Campbell County for two seasons. He moved to Newport HS in 2004-05 and had a two-year record of 19-6, including two state playoff appearances and a district title. The best season was 2005, when Newport went 11-2 and reached the state playoff quarterfinals before losing to the eventual state champion. He was named District Coach of the Year in 2005 by the Kentucky Football Coaches Association.

Schlarman is married to the former Lee Anne Federspiel, daughter of former UK linebacker Joe Federspiel. They have three sons, Joseph, Benjamin and Matthew and a daughter, Evelyn.

LAMAR THOMAS

WIDE RECEIVERS • SECOND SEASON • MIAMI, 2008

Lamar Thomas, former Miami three-sport great and eight-year veteran of the NFL, is in his second season as Kentucky's wide receivers coach.

In his first season on the staff, Thomas developed UK's pass catchers as big-play receivers and, in an unheralded role, as blockers in UK's emerging ground game. UK's 14.9 yards per reception was the team's highest in 38 years. Leading returning receiver Garrett Johnson had 585 yards and five TDs in helping lead UK to the 2016 TaxSlayer Bowl.

Thomas, known as one of the most productive wide receivers in college football history, joined the Kentucky coaching staff after two seasons at Louisville, a season with Western Kentucky and two years at Hampton.

> During his time at Louisville, Thomas guided a productive wide receiving corps for the Cards' offensive attack. During his first season, he mentored DeVante Parker, who was the Cards' first ever top-15 NFL draft selection. Parker was picked by Miami with the 14th overall selection after leading the team in receiving with 855 yards on 43 receptions and five scores in just six games. Another of Thomas' wide receivers, Eli Rogers, was a free-agent signee by Pittsburgh and earned a spot on the Steelers' reserve

In 2015, Thomas helped junior James Quick to a 39-catch season with 624 vards and a teamhigh five TDs despite missing two games with injury. In addition, Jamari Staples caught 37 passes for a teamhigh 638 yards and three touchdowns. In his two years at Louisville, the Cardinals went 17-9 and made two bowl appearances.

Also known as one of the nation's top recruiters, one of Thomas' best recruiting hauls came when he led Lamar Jackson to Louisville out of Boynton Beach, Fla. Jackson was the Heisman Trophy winner as a sophomore in 2016. He also earned the Maxwell Award, the Walker Camp Award and was an unanimous All-American.

In his season at WKU, Thomas' wide receivers were key components in the Hilltoppers setting single-season school records for passing yardage and total offense. Wide receivers Willie McNeal and Joel German enjoyed career seasons, catching 46 and 26 passes, respectively. McNeal eclipsed the 100-catch mark for his career in 2013 as well as the 1,000-yard mark.

Also at WKU, Thomas developed a pair of freshmen, Taywan Taylor and Nicholas Norris, into dynamic receivers. The duo combined for 57 catches and 701 yards, while Norris tallied four touchdowns on the season and caught at least one pass in all 12 games. The Hilltoppers went 8-4 that season.

Prior to his year at Western Kentucky, Thomas spent two seasons coaching the wide receivers at Hampton. In 2011, four of his wide receivers caught at least 33 passes each as the Pirates went 7-4.

Before beginning his collegiate coaching career, Thomas served as passing game coordinator for three seasons at Boynton Beach Community High in Boynton Beach, Fla. During his tenure, the Tigers qualified for the Florida High School Athletic Association playoffs for the first time in school history. He also coached varsity basketball and track.

Thomas was a standout wide receiver at Miami (Fla.) from 1988-92, where he earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts, while lettering in football, basketball, and track. His impressive career earned him induction into the Miami Hall of Fame in 2013. Thomas was a two-time All-Big East consensus firstteam selection as a receiver. He also played basketball in 1990 for Leonard Hamilton, and he competed in track, winning the 1992 BIG EAST outdoor high jump title with a jump of 6-7.5.

While at Miami, Thomas won two national championships (1989, 1991) and set the school record for the most career receptions (144). When he graduated, he ranked second in both receiving yards (2,271) and touchdowns (23), behind only NFL Hall of Fame wide receiver Michael Irvin.

After his collegiate career, Thomas was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft by Tampa Bay, where he played three seasons (1993-95), before finishing his career with Miami (1996-2000). His career totals featured 106 catches for 1,558 yards and Scholastically, Thomas was a four-sport letterman at F.W. Buchholz High in Gainesville, Fla., where he was a first team all-state selection in football and basketball his senior year.

Thomas has four sons, Chandler, Jamar, Miles and Trey, and he and wife Erin have two daughters, Parker and Logan.

DR. ELI CAPILOUTO, PRESIDENT

Dr. Eli Capilouto became the 12th President of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2011. Under his leadership, the $3.7 billion flagship and land grant research university has gained significant momentum in fulfilling its multi-faceted mission of teaching, research, service and health care.

To embolden the institution's enduring legacy, Dr. Capilouto has led a process to enrich UK's academic experience by increasing institutional investments in student financial aid, developing the Lewis Honors College, expanding Living-Learning Communities, and rebuilding academic and community spaces. Because of his priorities, the University has enrolled nearly 400 National Merit, National Achievement and National Hispanic Scholars in the last several years — tripling the number of incoming Scholars and putting UK in the Top 10 public institutions enrolling these students.

Under Dr. Capilouto's leadership, the University of Kentucky is undergoing a significant physical transformation of its academic, research, residential, health care and community spaces. Through partnership, increased philanthropy and effective financial management, UK is self-financing the vast majority of its more than $2.2 billion infrastructure development.

Over the last six years, the University has completed, initiated or authorized construction on: 14 new residence halls; several dining facilities, including the 1,000-seat facility known as "the 90;" a $65 million renovated and expanded Gatton College of Business and Economics supported by donors and private philanthropy; a new $110 million Jacobs Academic Science Building financed, in-part, through a $65 million partnership with UK Athletics; and a $125 million revitalized football stadium funded with Athletics revenue; a renovated and expanded Nutter Training Center financed by philanthropy; a $201 million renovation and expansion of the Student Center; $150 million to continue the fit-out of Chandler Hospital; a new home for the School of Art and Visual Studies; a new $265 million multi-disciplinary health sciences research facility in partnership with the state; and the renewal of the College of Law in partnership with donors and the state.

Research at the University of Kentucky is a dynamic enterprise encompassing a full spectrum of academic inquiry, including the humanities, social sciences, traditional scholarship and emerging technologies. UK's research faculty, staff and students are establishing UK as one of the nation's most prolific public research universities in the nation. In 2013, UK's Markey Cancer Center was designated as a National Cancer Center by the National Cancer Institute; placing UK among an elite group of 22 research universities with the triple crown of federal research awards: NCI-designation, the Clinical and Translational Sciences Award and a federally supported Alzheimer's Disease Center.

Essential to the service mission of the University of Kentucky is the advanced patient care and outreach provided by UK HealthCare. As the flagship academic-medical center in the region, UK serves patients through a network of health care professionals around the Commonwealth while providing acute, sub-specialty medical care at UK Chandler Hospital. In 2013, UK HealthCare was distinguished as a Top Performer by the Joint Commission, the largest medical accreditation body in the nation, and won a Rising Star Award from the University Health System Consortium

A native of Montgomery, Alabama, Dr. Capilouto previously served as Provost of the University of Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) and Dean of the UAB School of Public Health -- a period of remarkable growth and transformation at one of the leading academic and health sciences institutions in the South.

Dr. Capilouto holds several undergraduate and graduate degrees from schools within the University of Alabama system, and a Doctorate in Health Policy and Management from Harvard University. He and his wife, Dr. Mary Lynne Capilouto (D.M.D.) a former Dean of the UAB School of Dentistry, have one daughter.

MITCH BARNHART, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Singularly committed to the development of Wildcat students and to building the department he leads into one of the nation's elite. Mitch Barnhart is in his 16th year as University of Kentucky athletics director.

Named NCAA Division I Athletics Director of the Year by his peers in 2015, Barnhart has cast a bold vision for UK Athletics and continually raised the bar as the department has progressed under his guidance. Most recently, UK completed a 2016-17 school year in which the department came in 10th in Directors' Cup standings with 21 of 22 teams contributing to the school-record finish, more than 100 students graduating and the department registering its ninth and 10th straight semesters with a grade-point average of better than 3.0.

UK is currently in pursuit of Barnhart's Elite 1-3-5 initiative, which directs UK Athletics to reach unprecedented heights once more. The aim is for each UK team to be No. 1 by winning a conference or national championship, sustain a department-wide 3.0 GPA and rank in the top five of the Directors' Cup standings by 2022. It's an ambitious undertaking, but UK students, coaches and staff have proven themselves capable of unmatched achievement.

The 2014-15 season marked the successful completion of the 15 by 15 by 15 Plan, which was set forth by Barnhart in 2008. The 15 by 15 by 15 Plan called on UK Athletics to rank among the nation's top 15 athletics programs and win 15 conference or national championships by 2015. At the same time, Barnhart set goals of a 3.0 composite gradepoint average for Wildcat students and an even greater commitment to community service.

The academic goal was first achieved in the spring semester of 2010, with grades hitting a peak in spring 2014 with a school-record 3.218 composite GPA. Community service has risen to more than 4,000 hours annually and includes outreach to the Lexington area, the Commonwealth of Kentucky and as far away as Ethiopia and the Dominican

The Directors' Cup objective was reached a year early when UK checked in at a school-record No. 11 in the 2013-14 national all-sports standings. Kentucky has a current streak of seven straight top-30 finishes in the Directors' Cup, including six of the top seven rankings in school history.

The final goal was reached when UK men's basketball claimed the 2015 SEC Tournament title, the 15th championship won by Wildcat athletes since 2008. UK has won three more championships since. In addition to being one of four NCAA Division I Athletics Directors of the Year in 2015, Barnhart also was one of four finalists for the Athletics Director of the Year as chosen by the SportsBusiness Journal and he received the Sports Business Award from the Bluegrass Sports Commission that year.

In addition to attaining the 15 by 15 by 15 Plan, championship performance also has been reached in other levels of measurement. In Barnhart's term at UK, the Wildcats have won SEC titles for the first time in baseball, men's golf and women's tennis. More league crowns have been won by teams that hadn't done so in decades. National championships have been claimed in men's basketball and, for the first time, in rifle,

With team success growing, individual accolades have naturally followed. Since 2013, at least one Wildcat has won all four of the SEC's top individual awards - the Roy Kramer Athlete of the Year, Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year, Brad Davis Community Service Leader of the Year and the SEC Sportsmanship Award. UK, Texas A&M and Georgia are the only three league schools that can make that claim.

The impact of Barnhart is recognized by the award-winning Cats. In her acceptance speech for the SEC Community Service Leader Award, golfer Megan Moir acknowledged the inspiration provided by the UK athletics director.

"I would like to thank Mr. Barnhart for the opportunity and the privilege of being a student-athlete at the University of Kentucky," Moir said. "I have so much respect for you and you have shown me what it means to be a true servant-leader. You are a man of high integrity and character and I have grown so much watching your leadership permeate throughout the entire athletics department. I think it is unique to find an athletics director like Mr. Barnhart - he can personally name each student-athlete and really takes the time to get to know us. It was not uncommon for Mr. Barnhart to stop and ask me about my family or for us to spend time talking about projects in the community we are involved in."

UK Athletics has also had an athlete win the Elite 90 (previously Elite 89) award in each of the last five years after Danielle Galyer won it in swimming and diving for the second straight season in 2016-17. Previous UK winners include Chelsea Oswald (track and field, 2012-13), Sam. Malone (men's basketball, 2013-14) and Aldila Sutjiadi (women's tennis, 2014-15 & 2015-16). Joining them in receiving prestigious national recognition is Paul Sime (men's soccer), named the Arthur Ashe Jr. Male Sports Scholar of the Year in 2017.

The groundwork for recent successes has been steadily laid since Barnhart's arrival, beginning by Barnhart began by providing funds for full coaching staffs and scholarship allotments for all 22 UK sports.

Staying true to his pledge to provide resources to match expectations, Barnhart has strategically invested in improvements to UK Athletics' facilities. Investments in new construction and renovation to facilities total more than $300 million and include the Joe Craft Center: new stadiums for track and field, softball and soccer; the UK Golf House; and the Wildcat Coal Lodge dormitory. The home of Kentucky football, Kroger Field, underwent a $126 million renovation completed in 2015 and the $45 million Joe Craft Football Training Facility opened a year later, complete with an expansion of the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services. A new $49 million baseball stadium is set to open in fall of 2018 and work began on a new men's basketball locker room began in spring of 2017. Next on the docket is a new indoor tennis facility.

Additional milestones have occurred under Barnhart's guidance. UK athletes have set records for graduation rates and maintained a perfect mark in the 13-year history of the NCAA Academic Progress Rate.

Even with the department's growth and the increasingly competitive nature of college sports, UK Athletics has remained financially self-sufficient under Barnhart's management, operating with a balanced budget and with the help of no state or University funds. Seeing pressing facility needs on campus as well, Barnhart has made a $65 million commitment for athletics to fund nearly two-thirds of the new Don & Cathy Jacobs Science Building on campus. He also directs an annual $1.7-million contribution to the University's scholarship program. Millions more dollars from the athletics budget stay on campus each year through athletic scholarship payments, administrative support payments, merchandise royalties and other avenues.

Barnhart's leadership extends to the national level. Already having served on numerous committees and boards for the NCAA and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), Barnhart completed his first year as a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee in 2017, which brings responsibility for selecting, seeding and bracketing teams, along with administration of the NCAA's highest-profile event.

With his extensive previous experience on the NCAA Division I Council, as chair of the NCAA Competition Oversight Committee and as a member of the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee, in addition to several other leadership groups. Barnhart has proven himself well suited for the

On a league level, Barnhart - the longest-tenured athletics director in the conference – has been active in SEC projects. Of recent note is his work with the SEC Compliance Committee and the SEC Network Content Committee, which helped the highly successful launch of the largest new cable channel in television history.

Barnhart's legacy at UK includes helping develop administrators who have gone on to become athletics directors at nationally prominent universities, including Greg Byrne of Alabama, Mark Coyle at Minnesota, Rob Mullens at Oregon, Scott Stricklin at Florida and John Cohen at Mississippi State.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University.

In addition to the extraordinary achievements of his work world, reaching new heights is also a theme of his personal life. An avid mountain climber, Barnhart has scaled Mount Kilimaniaro, the highest mountain in Africa. along with two of the most challenging peaks in the United States, Mount Rainier in Washington and the Grand Tetons in Wyoming. Impactful in community service, Barnhart has taken part in mission trips and was on the national advisory board of K-Love Radio.

Barnhart and his wife, Connie, also actively serve and support the Christian Student Fellowship and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes on campus in an effort to minister to young people. The Barnharts have three children, Blaire, Scott, and Kirby Willoughby; Kirby's husband, McKenzie, and grandsons, Cooper and Reece.

Mitch Barnhart has led UK Athletics to seven consecutive top-30 finishes in the Directors' Cup national all-sports standings.

LUKE FORTNER

OFFENSIVE TACKLE

6-6 • 305 • Freshman-RS Sylvania, Ohio (Sylvania Northview)

2016 - Freshman

- Redshirt season
- Dean's List (Fall 2016, Spring 2017)
- SEC First-year Academic Honor Roll (2016-17)

High School

- A three-star offensive tackle by ESPN, Rivals and 247sports
- Rated as the 69th best offensive lineman nationally and the 36th best prospect in Ohio by 247sports
- Also played guard and center
- Four-year starter for Coach Doug Downing
- Named team captain as a senior
- Scout says, "Physical player does a great job of getting and maintaining leverage once engaged with defender. Majority of the time plays under control and balanced, showing the ability to beat a defender on own. Played tackle and center in high school. We feel he's got the raw talent to work with but a year in a college system will help him with his footwork and learning more about pass protection. Solid pick up for the Wildcats as Fortner is a player who will benefit from a season or two in the college game"
- Earned third-team All-Ohio for Division II
- Named second-team All-Northwest Ohio in 2014
- Dual-sport athlete as he also was a center on the Northview basketball team
- Honor-roll student and member of the National Honor Society
- Earned President's Education Award
- Chose UK over Akron, Cincinnati, Marshall, Maryland, Toledo and Western Michigan

SEC STANDINGS

2016 HIGHLIGHTS

- Kentucky finished the 2016 season with a 7-6 overall record and an appearance in the TaxSlayer Bowl. It marked UK's 16th bowl appearance and first since 2010.
- The Cats went 7-3 over the last 10 regular-season games following an 0-2 start to the season. The Wildcats got their signature win in the regular-season finale, retaking the Governor's Cup with a 41-38 upset at No. 11 Louisville to follow up a 4-4 finish in conference play, tied for second in the SEC Eastern Division.
- Year Four of the Mark Stoops era began with major changes in the offensive coaching staff, including the additions of new offensive coordinator Eddie Gran, co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Darin Hinshaw and wide receivers coach Lamar Thomas.
- Gran inherited 22 returning letterwinners on offense from the 2015 season, including nine primary starters.
- One thing Gran didn't count on was starting QB Drew Barker missing most of the season with a back injury. He played in just two and a half games, completing 18 of 36 passes for 334 yards and four touchdowns before junior reserve quarterback Stephen Johnson stepped in. The junior college transfer from Rancho Cucamonga, California, completed 145 of 265 passes for 2,037 yards and 13 touchdowns, while also rushing 97 times for 327 yards and three TDs. He went 5-4 as the starter, earning his first starting nod vs. South Carolina. He also was the primary quarterback for most of the game in wins over New Mexico State and Austin Peay.
- Johnson became the first UK quarterback to win four of his first five SEC starts, based on starting lineups available since 1993.
- The Wildcats' emergence also came in large part due to a ground game that ranked 20th nationally with an average of 234.2 yards per game. UK was the only school in the SEC and just one of three programs in the country to boast a pair of 1,000 yard rushers – Stanley "Boom" Williams and Benny Snell, Jr. It marked the first time in school history that has happened at Kentucky.
- The Wildcats combined for 3,044 rushing yards in 2016, only the second team in school history to surpass 3,000. The 1974 team had 3,124 rushing yards. They also averaged a school record 5.4 yards per rushing attempt, besting the old record of

- 4.9 yards per attempt set in 1974 and also had 30 rushing touchdowns, tying the record of 30 rush TDs in 1949.
- A big reason for the success of the run game was Kentucky's offensive line. The line, which had nine players who received weekly playing time, were named semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award which recognizes the nation's Most Outstanding Offensive Line.
- Defensively, UK played much better in the second half of the season. Head coach Mark Stoops, a career-long defensive coach, became more involved in helping guide the defense during that time. In addition, the maturing of an inexperienced front seven – only one returning starter in the D-line/linebackers – helped the unit's progress.
- UK opponents averaged 44.5 points in the first three games, but in the last nine regular season games, which included top-ranked Alabama, UK's defense held the opponent to 27.0 ppg.
- Kentucky allowed just one total offensive touchdown in the South Carolina and Vanderbilt games
- The Cats forced 21 turnovers in 2016 and have now forced a turnover in 16 of their past 19 games.
- The Cats faced the nation's No. 26 most difficult schedule with their opponents posting a combined 75-60 record. Nine of UK's 12 regular season opponents played in a bowl game, making UK one of just 13 teams in the nation to face at least nine bowl teams.

 In 1998, Kentucky had three 1,000-yard receivers in Kevin Coleman, Anthony White and Craig Yest and had two 1,000-yard rushers in Derek Homer and Anthony White.

SNELL EARNS FWAA, ESPN AND 247SPORTS TRUE FRESHMAN ALL-AMERCIAN HONORS

 Kentucky running back Benny Snell Jr. named to the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Freshman All-America Team presented by Sound Mind Body Camp. He also earned ESPN

- and 247Sports True Freshman All-America honors.
- Snell had a record-breaking season, rushing for a freshman school-record 1,091 yards and 13 touchdowns. Snell formed part of a running back trio with junior Stanley "Boom" Williams and senior Jojo Kemp that powered the nation's 16thbest rushing attack and became one of the most impressive rushing trios in school history
- Snell, who did not have a rushing attempt until the third game of the season, had a UK-freshman record five 100-yard rushing games, including 192 at Missouri and 152 vs. Austin Peay. He burst onto the scene with 136 yards and four touchdowns on just 17 carries against New Mexico State and continued his stampede throughout the season.
- Kentucky has now had 26 players earn freshman All-America honors, dating back to 1986.
- It marks the third consecutive year UK has had a freshman honored, including kicker Austin Mac-Ginnis and tailback Boom Williams in 2014 and C.J. Conrad and Chris Westry in 2015.
- Snell ranked ninth overall and second among freshmen in the SEC in rushing yards per game and all-purpose yards, while leading the SEC freshmen in scoring overall (78 points) and scoring TDs (13). He led the nation in rushing touchdowns by a freshman and ranked third nationally among freshmen in rushing yards. He also was named SEC Freshman of the Week twice and finished the season being named to the SEC Coaches' All-Freshman team and the Athlon Sports Freshman All-SEC First Team.

SIX WILDCATS EARN ALL-SEC HONORS

- Six players earned All-SEC honors as senior center Jon Toth was named first-team All-SEC by the Associated Press and Phil Steele's College Football Preview and second-team All-SEC by the league coaches. Sophomore linebacker Jordan Jones was named to the second team by the AP, Phil Steele and league coaches, while freshmen Benny Snell Jr. and Logan Stenberg were named to the SEC All-Freshman Team. Sophomore safety Mike Edwards earned second-team All-SEC honors by the AP and was a third-team selection by Phil Steele along with junior running back Stanley "Boom" Williams.
- Toth was also named fourth-team All-America by Phil Steele and Athlon Sports.

WILLIAMS ENTERS NFL DRAFT

- Kentucky junior running back Stanley "Boom" Williams announced after the TaxSlayer Bowl that he would forego his final season of eligibility and enter National Football League Draft.
- He finished his collegiate career with 2,511 rushing yards, which ranks seventh on the school's career rushing list. He had an explosive final season in leading the Cats with 1,170 rushing yards, making him just the ninth player in school history to surpass 1,000 yards in a season.
- Williams leaves as one of Kentucky's most accomplished backs. He owns the top two single-season averages per rush attempt, finishing at 7.10 yards per rush in 2015 and 6.84 this season. He ranks 11th on the school's all-time career rushing touchdowns with 18 and fourth in career 100-yard games with 11. Williams' seven rushing touchdowns of at least 50 yards are the most for a Wildcat dating back to 1955.

STATUE HONORING SEC TRAILBLAZERS UNVEILED

The statue honoring the four UK players who broke the color barrier in Southeastern Conference football - Nate Northington, Greg Page, Wilbur Hackett and Houston Hogg - was unveiled at an event at the site of the statue on Sept. 22.

The statue commemorates the playing careers and lives of the first four African-American football players in SEC history. It will be located on a pedestal in the plaza between the new Kentucky Football Training Facility and Commonwealth Stadium, positioned to remind fans, coaches and players of the incredible contributions made by Northington, Page, Hackett and Hogg to the University of Kentucky, the SEC and college football on a national level.

Cast in bronze, the statue features the four pioneers in uniform standing side by side. It was designed and sculpted by J. Brett Grill over the course of a year and after interviews with the three living trailblazers; Page's brother, Melvin; and teammates of the four. The statue is to scale, with the tallest figure standing approximately seven-and-ahalf feet tall. It is 11 feet wide at its base and four feet in depth, weighing around 3,500 pounds.

This was the 50th anniversary of Northington and Page's arrival on the UK campus in 1966. Hackett and Hogg would join them a year later. Northington made his varsity debut on Sept. 23, 1967 against Indiana before breaking the SEC's color barrier a week later when UK hosted Ole Miss on Sept. 30, 1967. Tragically, Page - Northington's close friend - passed away just a day prior on Sept. 29 after suffering a neck injury in a practice accident. Hackett and Hogg would carry on Northington and Page's legacy, with Hackett becoming the SEC's first African-American team captain in any sport in 1969.

MacGINNIS PLAYS THE ROLE OF HERO. TWICE.

- · Junior kicker Austin MacGinnis' had two gamewinning field goals, making him just the second player in school history to have two career gamewinning kicks in the final minute of regulation. Doug Pelfrey also has two (1990 vs. Georgia, 32 yards, and 1991 vs. Cincinnati, 53 yards).
- MacGinnis' game-winning 51-yard field goal vs. Mississippi State was his longest of the season. He was named one of three Lou Groza Award "Stars of the Week" for his performance. The gamewinning field goal on the final play of the game was Kentucky's first since Oct. 17, 1998 when Seth Hanson drilled a 33-yarder to defeat LSU in Baton
- He drilled a 47-yarder with 12 seconds left to defeat Louisville in the regular season finale.
- MacGinnis is among the top-two scorers in Kentucky history. He enters the 2017 season with 257 points which leaves him 48 points shy of - surpassing Lones Seiber (305 from 2006-09) as the school's all-time leading scorer.

- MacGinnis has made 50 of 63 field goals in his career, 79.4 percent. He set six school records as a freshman in 2014, earning first-team Freshman All-America and first-team All-SEC honors.
- · MacGinnis is the sixth player in school history to reach 200 career points (Lones Seiber, Joey Worley, Seth Hanson, Taylor Begley, Randall Cobb), the third player to do so prior to their senior season (Randall Cobb and Lones Seiber). He also tied Randall Cobb for the quickest player to reach 200 career points in school history (29 games played).

SOUTHERN MISS 44, KENTUCKY 35

SEPT. 3, 2016 • LEXINGTON, KY. COMMONWEALTH STADIUM (57,230)

Despite an explosive first half, the Kentucky football team was unable to fend off a dominant second half by the visiting Southern Miss Golden Eagles in a 44-35 loss in the season opener at Commonwealth Stadium.

It marked the first season-opening loss for Kentucky since 2013. Southern Miss, a 9-5 team from a season ago, scored 34 second-half points in the comeback victory.

UK's offense was directed by sophomore quarterback Drew Barker, who went 15-of-24 for 323 yards and four touchdowns. Barker set career highs in yards and touchdown passes. Wide receiver Garrett "Juice" Johnson hauled in six catches for 143 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while running back Stanley "Boom" Williams posted 94 yards on the ground on 13 attempts.

Defensively, the Wildcats were led by sophomore linebacker Jordan Jones who amassed 19 total tackles. Thirteen of those stops came by way of solo tackles. He also notched two tackles for a loss, including a sack and one quarterback hurry. Sophomore linebacker Kobie Walker was the other Wildcat to reach double-digit tackles with 10 total stops. Senior defensive back J.D. Harmon led UK with two interceptions, while Blake McClain added another pick and nine tackles.

Kentucky trailed 7-0 with 9:37 remaining in the opening quarter, before Barker found Jeff Badet on a bubble screen that he took to the house for an electrifying 72-yard score, marking the longest haul of his

That was just the beginning for the big-play Kentucky offense in the opening half as UK combined for six plays of more than 30 yards in the first 30 minutes. Barker was 11-of-19 for 287 yards and four touchdown passes in the opening stanza, while Johnson accounted for 108 yards on four catches, which included a pair

Less than two minutes after the opening touchdown of the season for the Cats, Barker found Johnson for a 43-yard strike. With just 25 seconds remaining in the opening stanza, freshman Kayaune Ross hauled in his first career reception for a nine-yard touchdown and a 21-7 lead for the Cats.

UK continued its assault when Barker dropped a beauty between a pair of defenders into Johnson's waiting arms for a 53-yard pitch-and-catch. Williams ignited another drive with a 36-yard scoot, before JoJo Kemp finished the drive with a seven-yard plunge for a 35-10 advantage.

However, the Golden Eagles would not go away scoring 34-consecutive points to bring the final score to 44-35.

Southern Miss struck for a 71-yard score with 26 seconds remaining in the opening frame when Nick Mullens connected with Isaiah Jones to account for the 35-17 score at the break.

The Golden Eagles scored on seven of their final eight possessions to complete the comeback effort.

SEPT. 10, 2016 • GAINESVILLE, FLA. BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM (85,821)

Boom Williams rushed for 66 yards on 12 carries, but it was not enough as the Kentucky football team lost to Florida 45-7 at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium.

The Wildcat offense never got on track in the game, committing four turnovers. The three interceptions and one fumble led to 28 Florida points.

Florida took a 14-0 lead after the first quarter, but Kentucky had an opportunity to score early in the second stanza. After sophomore cornerback Derrick Baity intercepted a Luke Del Rio pass, Kentucky drove to the Florida 17-yard line. But on fourth down, Austin MacGinnis' field goal attempt hit the left upright and the Cats came away empty.

After a Florida field goal made it 17-0, Kentucky drove into Gator territory again, aided by a 25-yard reverse run by junior wide receiver Jeff Badet. But sophomore quarterback Drew Barker was intercepted by Florida's Jalen Tabor to end the Florida extended its lead to 24-0 before the half, before adding 21 points in the second half.

Kentucky assembled its best drive of the game in the fourth quarter, as the Wildcats went 80 yards in nine plays, culminating in a Jojo Kemp touchdown run from two yards out. MacGinnis added the extra point to make it 45-7. The biggest play of the drive was a 45-yard completion from backup quarterback Stephen Johnson to Badet, which got the Wildcats into the red zone.

Defensive back Blake McClain had nine tackles for Kentucky, while sophomore Jordan Jones continued his strong early-season play with nine stops, including a tackle for a loss. De'Niro Laster and Naguez Pringle each had five tackles, and each recorded a tackle for a loss.

KENTUCKY 62, NEW MEXICO STATE 42

SEPT. 17, 2016 • LEXINGTON, KY. COMMONWEALTH STADIUM (49,669)

Benjamin Snell Jr. ran for four touchdowns and Stephen Johnson added three TD passes to lead Kentucky to a 62-42 win over New Mexico State.

Kentucky starting quarterback Drew Barker was injured after throwing an interception on the first series and didn't return. After a shaky start, Johnson settled down in Barker's absence to steer the Wildcats in front of 49,669 fans, the smallest in coach Mark Stoops' four-year tenure.

Johnson was 17-of-22 passing for 310 yards, and added 51 yards rushing. Snell, a third-string freshman, finished with 136 yards and tied a school record for rushing touchdowns. Stanley Boom Williams added 181 yards on 18 carries and a touchdown.

Stoops lauded the play of Johnson, who relieved Barker and led Kentucky to its only touchdown in a 45-7 loss at Florida.

New Mexico State's Tyler Rogers was 16 of 33 for 246 yards passing with two touchdowns and two interceptions.

KENTUCKY 17, SOUTH CAROLINA 10

SEPT. 24, 2016 • LEXINGTON, KY. COMMONWEALTH STADIUM (51,702)

Boom Williams and Benny Snell Jr. once again put on an impressive rushing show for Kentucky, as Williams set the tone and Snell applied the exclamation point to a muchneeded win for the Wildcats.

Snell scored the go-ahead touchdown from 1 yard midway through the fourth quarter, Williams broke a 43-yard TD and Kentucky held off South Carolina 17-10 for their third straight series victory over the Gamecocks.

Inconsistent offensively in the first half, the Wildcats got going after trailing 7-3 at halftime with another strong performance by their hard-charging backfield tandem. Williams rushed 15 times for 123 yards including his big run down the left side for a 10-7 lead early in the third quarter.

Snell followed with nine carries for 41 of Kentucky's 65 yards on the 11-play drive, all achieved on the ground. He capped the drive by taking the direct snap and running left into the end zone with ease, then sealed the win with several runs for first downs that kept the clock moving.

This effort comes a week after the two combined for 317 yards rushing against New Mexico State with Snell scoring four TDs. Kentucky now has a two-game winning streak after two tough losses following another episode of the Boom and Benny Show -- or vice versa.

The Wildcats' defense preserved the lead with two big sacks on South Carolina's final possession, including Denzil Ware's tackle of Brandon McIlwain for a 19-yard loss on fourth and 17. Kentucky recorded a season-high four sacks overall and held the Gamecocks to 268 yards.

Kentucky also overcame its largest halftime deficit since rallying from 18 down against South Carolina to win on Oct. 6, 2010.

OCT. 1, 2016 • TUSCALOOSA, ALA. BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM (101,821)

Playing against the top-ranked team in the country, on the road, the Kentucky football team lost to Alabama 34-6 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Kentucky got on the board first, scoring on its first possession of the game for the first time this season. After Alabama turned the ball over on downs, the Wildcats drove to the Crimson Tide 27 yard line. The drive was stopped there, but Austin MacGinnis hit a 45-yard field goal to give Kentucky a 3-0 lead.

On its next drive, Kentucky drove into Alabama territory before the drive ended on a fumble by quarterback Stephen Johnson.

Alabama took advantage of that turnover with an 11-play, 35-yard drive, resulting in a 44-yard field goal by Adam Griffith to tie the game at 3-3.

After the Wildcats were forced to put, Alabama took the lead on a seven-play, 61-yard drive that ended with a one-yard Joshua Jacobs touchdown, giving the Crimson Tide a 10-3

On Kentucky's next possession, the Crimson Tide's Ronnie Harrison scooped up a fumble and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown, increasing Alabama's lead to 17-3.

After a career-long 61-yard punt by Grant McKinnis, Alabama drove down the field, but the Kentucky defense stood tall, holding the Tide to a field goal attempt that Griffith pulled wide left, keeping the score at 17-3 going into halftime.

Alabama outgained Kentucky 217-74 in the first half, but the Wildcats' defense was able to come up with enough plays to keep Kentucky in the game in a very tough environment in front of nearly 102,000 fans.

After Kentucky was forced to punt to begin the second half, Alabama extended its lead on a 10-yard touchdown pass from Jalen Hurts to Calvin Ridley, making it 24-3 Alabama.

The Crimson Tide took a 34-3 lead in the second half before MacGinnis kicked a 30-yard field goal after a 16-play, 63-yard drive to provide the final margin.

Senior Jojo Kemp rushed 10 times for 39 yards to lead the Wildcats. Freshman Benny Snell carried eight times for 38 yards in the game.

KENTUCKY 20, VANDERBILT 13

OCT. 8, 2016 • LEXINGTON, KY. COMMONWEALTH STADIUM (55,030)

Stephen Johnson rushed for a touchdown and converted a big fourth-and-1 play late in the game leading to Austin MacGinnis' 28-yard field goal, while the Wildcats' defense stifled Vanderbilt late to survive with a 20-13 victory.

Needing a spark to slow Vanderbilt's momentum after scoring 10 straight points, the Wildcats turned to their ground game led by Benny Snell Jr. (20 carries, 94 yards) and Jojo Kemp with just under 8 minutes remaining. The duo positioned Kentucky to cash in a third and final time on fourth down as Johnson stretched for 1 yard to the Commodores' 19.

Kentucky didn't take a chance on a final fourth-and-1 at the 10, and MacGinnis' kick with 1:38 left provided a cushion that proved huge as Vanderbilt, with no timeouts, quickly drove 59 yards to the 8 seeking at least a tie. But several passes by Vandy's Kyle Shurmur were incomplete, including a fourth-down attempt that went off Kalija Lipscomb's hands with 2 seconds left.

Kemp added a 4-yard TD run for the Wildcats. Kemp, Johnson and Stanley "Boom" Williams each ran for at least 54 yards as Kentucky gained 258 on 52

Most importantly, the Wildcats made huge, timely plays when needed on both sides of the ball to protect a lead that seemed in doubt as the Commodores tried to rally from a 17-3 halftime deficit.

Vanderbilt's only TD came on Taurean Ferguson's 22-yard fumble return early in the third quarter.

Commodores running back and SEC rushing leader Ralph Webb had 100 yards on 18 carries and Shurmur completed 17 of 29 passes for 141 yards, but he couldn't get the completion he needed late in the game.

KENTUCKY 40, MISSISSIPPI STATE 38

OCT. 22, 2016 • LEXINGTON, KY. COMMONWEALTH STADIUM (50,414)

Austin MacGinnis hit a 51-yard field goal as time expired, lifting Kentucky to a 40-38 win over Mississippi State at Commonwealth Stadium

Kentucky led 37-31 late in the fourth guarter when Mississippi State quarterback Nick Fitzgerald hit Fred Ross with a seven-yard scoring pass. The extra point by Weston Graves gave the Bulldogs a 38-37 lead.

But the Wildcats did not give up. Kentucky drove 46 yards in just 59 seconds to give MacGinnis a chance at the game-winner.

Kentucky had a balanced offensive attack, with 292 yards passing and 262 yards rushing. Stephen Johnson accounted for all passing yards, while Benny Snell and Boom Williams accounted for most of the rushing attack

The Wildcats struck early in the second half on a trick play. Snell took a direct snap, handed the ball to Garrett Johnson, who flipped the ball to quarterback Stephen Johnson who threw a 44-yard strike to Jeff Badet for a touchdown. The two-point conversion failed, and the score remained 14-12.

Mississippi State then mounted another drive, this one covering 56 yards in nine plays and resulting in a Graves field goal, making it 17-12 Bulldogs.

Kentucky would retake the lead on the ensuing drive when Snell broke loose for a 34-yard scamper for a score. The Wildcats converted on the two-point conversion when Stephen Johnson hit Tavin Richardson, who just barely cleared the pylon to give Kentucky a 20-17 lead.

The lead was short-lived as Mississippi State promptly marched 68 yards in just four plays, with Fitzgerald covering the final 38 yards with a touchdown rush, giving the Bulldogs a 24-20 advantage.

The Wildcats fired back with their own four-play scoring drive to retake the lead. Kentucky covered 75 yards in those four plays, with Stephen Johnson hitting Badet with a 40-yard touchdown pass to give Kentucky

On its next drive, Mississippi State faced a crucial third-and-six on the first play of the fourth quarter. It turned into a game-changing play when Marcus McWilson picked off Fitzgerald and returned it 45 yards for a score, giving Kentucky its biggest lead of the game at 34-24.

After the Bulldogs were forced to punt, the Wildcats drove inside the Mississippi State 10-yard line, appearing to be ready to add to their lead. But on second and goal, Stephen Johnson fumbled and MSU's Mark McLaurin scooped up the miscue and returned it 81 yards to cut Kentucky's lead to 34-31.

Kentucky was not done, as the Wildcats went 61 yards in six plays to get into the red zone again. But the drive stalled there. MacGinnis was called upon again, and he delivered once more, this time from 32 yards, to give Kentucky a 37-31 edge.

KENTUCKY 35, MISSOURI 21

OCT. 29, 2016 • COLUMBIA, MO. MEMORIAL STADIUM (50,234)

Benny Snell, Jr. rushed for 192 yards and two scores, and teammate Boom Williams rushed for 182 yards and a touchdown of his own as Kentucky beat Missouri 35-21 at Memorial Stadium.

Kentucky received the opening kickoff and put together a strong opening drive. However, the drive stalled in Missouri territory and Austin MacGinnis was wide left on a 47-yard field goal, which ended the threat.

After Missouri was forced to punt on its first drive, Kentucky got on the scoreboard with a 60-yard touchdown run by Williams. The Wildcats covered 80 yards in just four plays to go ahead 7-0.

Neither team scored for the remainder of the first quarter, but Kentucky struck again early in the second period. The Wildcats again went 80 yards, this time in five plays, and once again it was a big play that resulted in a score. On a third-and-eight, junior quarterback Stephen Johnson hit senior wide receiver Jeff Badet with a deep pass that went for a touchdown, giving the Wildcats a 14-0 advantage. Kentucky struck again later in the second quarter. The Wildcats marched 73 yards in eight plays, capped by a Snell touchdown yard from one yard out, lifting Kentucky to a 21-0 lead. Missouri got on the board late in the second quarter when sophomore quarterback Drew Lock connected with Dimetrios Mason on a 27-yard scoring pass to cut Kentucky's lead to 21-7, which would be the score at halftime.

On the first possession of the second half, Missouri drove into the Kentucky red zone, but the Tigers missed a short field goal. Kentucky took over at the 20 yard line and drove 80 vards again for another touchdown. Johnson hit Williams on a screen pass for a 13-yard score. boosting Kentucky's lead to 28-7.

Snell did it again on the first play of the fourth quarter, bursting through the line for an 18-yard score, making the score 35-7.

Missouri cut the lead with a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns. Josh Augusta scored on a one-yard run before Lock hit Mason with a 57-yard scoring strike to cut the lead to 35-21.

GEORGIA 27, KENTUCKY 24

NOV. 5, 2016 • LEXINGTON, KY. COMMONWEALTH STADIUM (62,507)

Kentucky drove 68 yards in 14 plays to tie the game late in the fourth quarter, but Georgia's Rodrigo Blankenship hit 25-yard field goal as time expired to defeat UK, 27-24.

After Kentucky had tied the game at 24-24 on an Austin MacGinnis field goal with 2:47 remaining, Georgia went 67 yards in eight plays, setting up Blankenship for his fourth converted field goal of the game.

Benny Snell paced the Kentucky offense, carrying 21 times for 114 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Junior running back Boom Williams had 14 carries for 77 yards and a score of his own. for 77 yards and a score of his own.

Georgia got on the board first. After forcing Kentucky to punt, the Bulldogs drove 64 yards in six plays, culminating in a Jacob Eason to Isaiah McKenzie scoring pass from 38 yards to make it 7-0 Georgia.

After the teams exchanged punts, Kentucky (5-4, 4-3) mounted its first scoring drive of the game. The Wildcats went 67 in five plays, ending with a three-yard touchdown run by Benny Snell to tie the game at 7-7. The big play on the drive was a 30-yard rush by Boom Williams, putting Kentucky into Georgia struck back on its next drive as Eason hit Javon Wims for 51 yards, bringing the Bulldogs into the Kentucky red zone. The Wildcat defense stood tall, holding Georgia to a 25-yard field goal by Blankenship, which made it 10-7 Bulldogs.

On the next possession, Georgia forced Kentucky to punt. But McKenzie muffed the punt and Kentucky's J.D. Harmon recovered at the Georgia 38, giving Kentucky an opportunity for a short field. A Georgia facemask penalty took Kentucky inside the Georgia red zone, and when Williams scampered into the end zone from 13 yards out of the Wildcat formation, Kentucky took a 14-10 lead.

Georgia answered with another scoring drive, but again it was a field goal rather than a touchdown. The Bulldogs went 59 yards in 11 plays, resulting in a 42-yard field goal from Blankenship, cutting UK's lead to 14-13, which would be the halftime score.

The Bulldogs started the second half with the ball, but Josh Allen hit Georgia running back Nick Chubb, causing a fumble that Kentucky's Chris Westry recovered at the Georgia 33 yard line. But the Wildcats failed to get a first down, and after a holding penalty negated an Austin MacGinnis field goal, Kentucky was forced

But the Wildcats also forced Georgia to punt, then drove down the field behind the running of Snell, who scored on a one-yard run to increase Kentucky's lead to 21-13. Snell accounted for 41 of Kentucky's 56 yards on the scoring drive.

On its next drive, Kentucky's Garrett Johnson fumbled and Georgia recovered at the Kentucky 32. But the Wildcats' defense held, and forced Blankenship into a 49-yard field goal, which crept through the uprights, making it 21-16 Kentucky.

In the fourth, UGA drove 67 yards in seven plays, with Sony Michel rushing it in from 26 yards. A two-point conversion made it 24-21 Georgia with 9:12 remaining.

Down three, Kentucky turned to Snell. The true freshman from Westerville, Ohio did as he has done all season and delivered. Carrying the ball out of the Wildcat formation, Snell rushed nine straight times, covering 35 yards, getting Kentucky inside the Georgia 10 yard line. But on third-and-long, Stephen Johnson could not connect with Dorian Baker in the corner of the end zone. Kentucky settled for a MacGinnis field goal, which tied the game at 24-24.

TENNESSEE 49, KENTUCKY 36

NOV. 12, 2016 • KNOXVILLE, TENN. NEYLAND STADIUM (101,075)

Kentucky rushed for the second-most yards in a game in school history, but it wasn't enough as the Wildcats lost to Tennessee 49-36 at Neyland Stadium.

It wasn't enough as the Wildcards lost to Tennessee 49-36 at Neyland Stadium. Kentucky had five players with at least 72 yards rushing apiece. Junior Boom Williams led the way with 127 yards on 16 carries, but he had plenty of help in the run game. Jojo Kemp (90 yards rushing), Benny Snell (79), Sihiem King (75) and Stephen Johnson (72) all had big efforts for Kentucky as well. In all, the Wildcats racked up 635 yards of total offense in the game, the seventh-highest in school history. Kentucky also outgained Tennessee 635-598. But Tennessee took better advantage of its scoring opportunities to earn the victory.

Tennessee went three-and-out on its first possession of the game, but punter Trevor Daniel got off a 56-yard punt that Charles Walker muffed, setting Kentucky up on its own 15 yard line.

But that did not deter the Wildcats in any way. On its first play from scrimmage, the Wildcats burned to Johnson, who faked a handoff and scampered 75 yards to the Tennessee 10. On the next play, Williams rushed Tennessee immediately answered Kentucky a 7-0 lead.

Tennessee immediately answered Kentucky's score with one of its own. Quarterback Josh Dobbs had a 41-yard rush, setting the Vols up deep in Kentucky territory. Then Dobbs hit Josh Smith with a 24-yard scoring pass to tie the game at 7-7. After the teams exchanged punts, Kentucky assembled its second scoring drive of the game. Snell had a 27-yard rush that set the Wildcats up, but the drive stalled and Kentucky settled for a 37-yard field goal by Austin MacGinnis, making it 30-7 Kentucky.

But Tennessee had the answer once again, as the Vols drove 75 yards in just six plays with Dobbs finishing

But Tennessee had the answer once again, as the Vols drove 75 yards in just six plays with Dobbs finishing the drive with a one-yard touchdown run to give Tennessee its first lead, 14-10.

On its next drive, Kentucky turned to Snell, who drove the Wildcats down the field out of the Wildcat formation. Kentucky got inside the Tennessee five yard line, but was forced into a 25-yard field goal that MacGinnis made, cutting the lead to 14-13.

Tennessee had yet another answer, driving 79 yards in seven plays, culminating with a 10-yard touchdown pass from Dobbs to tight end Ethan Wolf, lifting Tennessee to a 21-13 lead. That would be the halftime score. Kentucky opened the second half with another scoring drive. The Wildcats covered 59 yards in eight plays, and MacGinnis connected again, this time from 33 yards out, cutting the Tennessee lead to 21-16.

But as they did all day, Tennessee had an answer, this time on a trick play. Dobbs handed off to running back John Kelly, who pitched it back to Dobbs. The Vols' quarterback threw a deep ball, connecting with Josh Malone for a 51-yard touchdown, giving Tennessee a 28-16 lead.

After Tennessee extended its lead to 35-16, the Wildcats showed that they wouldn't go away quietly. Senior running back Jojo Kemp ripped off a 71-yard touchdown run to cut into the lead. Kentucky's two-point conversion attempt was no good, keeping the score at 35-22.

Tennessee would stretch the lead to 49-22, but Kentucky added a pair of late touchdown runs by King (24 yards) and Johnson (two yards).

KENTUCKY 49, AUSTIN PEAY 13

NOV. 19, 2016 • LEXINGTON, KY. COMMONWEALTH STADIUM (48,948)

Freshman Benny Snell rushed for 152 yards and a pair of touchdowns as Kentucky beat Austin Peay 49-13 at Commonwealth Stadium. The win was the sixth of the season for the Wildcats, making them eligible for a bowl game for the first time since 2010.

In the process of having his fifth 100-yard rushing effort of the year, Snell also broke the Kentucky record for rushing yards by a freshman, eclipsing the mark formerly held by Moe Williams, who rushed for 928 yards in 1993.

Austin Peay got the ball first, and the Governors promptly went on 15-play, 71-yard drive. However, the drive ended when Chris Westry intercepted Austin Peay quarterback JaVaughn Craig at the 12 yard line, ending the threat.

After Kentucky was forced to punt on its first drive, Austin Peay put together another lengthy drive, this time going 63 yards in nine plays, culminating in a 17-yard touchdown carry by Kentel Williams to make it 7-0 Governors.

The Wildcats got the ball back, but on third down, starting quarterback Luke Wright was intercepted by Austin Peay linebacker Gunnar Scholato, who returned the pick 25 yards for the score. The extra point was no good, and Austin Peay led 13-0.

After Kentucky punted, Austin Peay's Craig was intercepted by Kentucky's Mike Edwards, who returned the ball 46 yards and into Governors' territory. And the Wildcats took advantage of the good field position, scoring on a 30-yard run by Benny Snell, cutting the lead to 13-7 with 6:51 left in the first half.

Kentucky forced Austin Peay to punt, then took over at the UK 49 yard line. On the first play of the next drive, Kentucky quarterback Stephen Johnson hit Jeff Badet for 42 yards, getting the Wildcats inside the Governors' red zone. After a holding penalty, Johnson hit tight end C.J. Conrad with a 14-yard touchdown pass down the left side of the field. The Austin MacGinnis extra point gave Kentucky a 14-13 lead with 3:37 remaining in the half.

But the Wildcats were not done. After Austin Peav punted again, Johnson connected with Garrett Johnson on a 40-yard scoring pass, boosting Kentucky's lead to 21-13 with 59 seconds left in the half.

Kentucky got the ball to start the second half, and the Wildcats wasted little time. After Jojo Kemp returned the kickoff into Austin Peay territory, Kentucky went three plays in 38 yards, with Boom Williams finishing the drive with a 25-yard touchdown run to extend the Wildcats' lead to 28-13.

On its next drive, Austin Peay turned the ball over on downs, and Kentucky immediately took advantage. On the first play of its drive, Snell took a direct snap in the Wildcat formation and rushed untouched up the middle for a 48-yard touchdown to make it 35-13.

Senior Jojo Kemp got into the action on Kentucky's next drive, scampering 40 yards for a touchdown in his final home game. That score made it 42-13 Cats. Kemp would add another touchdown early in the fourth quarter to give Kentucky a 49-13 advantage

KENTUCKY 41, LOUISVILLE 38

NOV. 26, 2016 • LOUISVILLE, KY. PAPA JOHN'S CARDINAL STADIUM (54,075)

Austin MacGinnis hit a 47-yard field goal with 12 seconds left in the game, lifting Kentucky to a 41-38 upset victory over 11th-ranked Louisville at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium Kentucky took over at their own 10 yard line with just 1:45 remaining in the game. Rather than play for overtime, the Cats went for the win.

Quarterback Stephen Johnson hit receiver Jeff Badet with a 29-yard pass Quarterback Stephen Jonnson hit receiver Jeff Badet with a 29-yard pass to get the Wildcats near midfield. Johnson then ran left, picking up 15 more yards and getting Kentucky into Cardinals' territory.

After a three more plays got the ball to the Louisville 29, the Wildcats faced fourth down with 18 seconds left. And that's when Kentucky head coach Mark Stoops turned to MacGinnis, who also beat Mississippi State with a game-winning field goal earlier in the season. The kick was right down the middle with length to cape. middle, with length to spare

Garrett Johnson had a big day, catching five passes for 164 yards and a pair of scores.

Louisville took the opening kickoff and marched down the field, covering 84 Louisville took the opening kickoff and marched down the field, overing 84 yards in five plays. Jackson capped the drive with a 19-yard touchdown run, giving the Cardinals a 7-0 advantage. But Kentucky had the answer. On the Wildcats' first play from scrimmage, Stephen Johnson connected with Garrett Johnson on a 75-yard scoring strike to tie the game at 7-7.

Later in the first quarter, Kentucky took the lead when Boom Williams rushed around the left end and scampered 36 yards for the score, giving Kentucky a 14-7 lead.

But Louisville came right back, driving 70 yards in 12 plays, culminating with a Jackson pass to Reggie Bonnafon, tying the game at 14-14.

The Cardinals drove inside the Kentucky one yard line in the second quarter, but the Wildcat defense came up with a key goal line stand. Louisville kicker Blanton Creque connected on a 19-yard field goal to give the Cardinals a 17-14 lead.

Louisville extended its lead to 24-14, but Kentucky would not go away. The Wildcats went back to the Johnson-to-Johnson combination to cut into the lead. Stephen Johnson connected with Garrett Johnson for a second score, this one from 63 yards out, to cut the Louisville lead to 24-21, which would be the halftime score.

Kentucky took the second half kickoff and wasted no time, covering 75 yards in nine plays. And when Benny Snell, Jr. scored from 18 yards out on a rush out of the Wildcat formation, Kentucky took a 28-24 lead.

The back-and-forth between the rivals continued when Louisville took a 31-28 lead on a Jeremy Smith touchdown rush. But Kentucky answered that score with its longest drive of the game. This time, the Wildcats covered 60 yards in 13 plays, taking more than six and a half minutes off the clock. And when MacGinnis hit a field goal from 35 yards, the game was tied again, this time at 31-31.

On Louisville's next possession, Kentucky's Mike Edwards picked off a Jackson pass, setting up the Wildcats with good field position. But the ensuing drive stalled until Johnson connected with Dorian Baker on a 35-yard scoring pass to give the Wildcats a 38-31 lead.

Louisville got the ball back and quickly got into Kentucky territory. But with the Cardinals on the doorstep of tying the game again, Kentucky senior defensive back Blake McClain intercepted Jackson at the goal line. But Kentucky was forced to punt, and Louisville took over and Jackson engineered another scoring drive, which he finished with a one-yard scoring run, tying the game at 38-38.

GEORGIA TECH 33, KENTUCKY 18

DEC. 31, 2016 • JACKONSVILLE, FLA. EVERBANK FIELD (43,102)

Stephen Johnson passed for 175 yards and a touchdown and rushed for a team-high 49 yards and another score, but the Kentucky football team came up short, falling to Georgia Tech 33-18 in the TaxSlayer Bowl at EverBank Field.

Georgia Tech was able to contain UK's rushing duo of Boom Williams and Benny Snell, while Kentucky was able to match Georgia Tech's potent offense, as the Yellow Jackets had 371 yards, while the Wildcats had 324. Tech's offense came largely on the ground, as the Yellow Jackets rushed for 266 yards, compared to UK's 149. UK got the ball first and the Wildcats moved the ball into Georgia Tech territory. But on a third-and-two from the Tech 49, Kentucky quarterback Stephen Johnson was stripped, and Tech's P.J. Davis scooped up the fumble and returned it 38 yards for a touchdown, giving the Yellow Jackets an early 7-0 lead.

After a Kentucky punt, Georgia Tech drove 75 yards in 12 plays, but the Kentucky defense held. Tech got a 23-yard field goal by Harrison Butker, giving the Yellow Jackets a 10-0 lead

On the next drive, the Wildcats drove into the red zone, but the drive stalled, and Kentucky was forced into a 37-yard field goal by Austin MacGinnis which was good, cutting the Georgia

The Wildcat defense then forced Georgia Tech into a three-and-out and a punt, giving Kentucky the ball at their own 28 yard line. When senior running back Jojo Kemp ran right for 25 yards, the Wildcats were in business at the Georgia Tech 14. But on a fourth-and-one from the Georgia Tech five yard line, Kemp was caught in the backfield and stopped short of the marker, giving the ball back to the Yellow Jackets.

Georgia Tech took advantage, driving 94 yards in 11 plays and 4:29, ending with a 21-yard touchdown rush by Justin Thomas, giving the Yellow Jackets a 17-3 lead just before the half. Kentucky seemed to have the last possession of the half, but on fourth-and-two, Grant McKinniss had his punt blocked, giving Tech one more possession and 24 seconds with which to work. As the half expired, Butker hit a 52-yard field goal to extend the Tech lead to 20-3 at

On the first possession of the second half, Kentucky forced Georgia Tech into a three-andout, then Nico Firios blocked Ryan Rodwell's punt, setting the Wildcats up at the Georgia Tech 43. But Kentucky couldn't take advantage of the good field position, and was forced into a punt yards to increase the Yellow Jackets' advantage to 23-3 with 2:15 left in the third period.

Neither team could get anything going until late in the third quarter, when Tech got good field position, beginning its drive inside Kentucky territory at the 45 yard line. But after driving inside the Kentucky 25, Tech was forced into another field goal from Butker, who connected from 44

As the third quarter ended, Kentucky was mounting perhaps its best drive of the day. And early in the fourth quarter, Johnson hit Dorian Baker in the corner of the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown, cutting Tech's lead to 23-10 with 13:40 left in the game. Kentucky went 75 yards in 12 plays in 3:33 to score its first touchdown of the game.

Tech responded with a 12-play, 68-yard drive, covering 7:18 and ending with a 26-yard Butker field goal, extending the lead to 26-10.

But Kentucky was not finished. The Wildcats drove 75 yards in nine plays, culminating in a 21-yard scoring scamper by Johnson. Kentucky converted on a two-point conversion when Johnson hit C.J. Conrad, cutting the lead to 26-18 with 3:57 left in the game.

The Wildcats needed a stop on Georgia Tech's next drive, but the Yellow Jackets drove for a touchdown by Dedrick Mills to seal the game.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL HISTORY

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its most recent, Jon Toth; from Professor A.M. Miller to Coach Mark Stoops; from old Stoll Field to Commonwealth Stadium; from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference; and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first African-American player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest - vs. Ole Miss in 1967, and in 1969 Wilbur Hackett became the first African-American captain for any SEC team. Then, in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 126 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 1,255 contests. UK football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in 16 bowls.

UK football has had 16 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 24 first-team All-Americans (selected 28 times), 17 Academic All-Americans (selected 20 times), 77 firstteam All-SEC players (selected 104 times), and 620 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, who the students asked to coach despite his admitted limited knowledge of the game. Miller began the 1892 season, then graciously stepped aside later in the year for John A. Thompson, who had more experience with the sport.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easily for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage took the reins of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

Coach Bear Bryant guided Kentucky to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games from 1946-53.

HISTORY & TRADITION

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. Bryant quickly grabbed the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first national championship and Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with defending national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

In the 1990s, research by Jeff Sagarin, who compiles the Sagarin Computer Ratings for USA Today, indicated that UK is the national champion for the 1950 season under that ranking system.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the task of following in Bryant's footsteps. He stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his term at UK came in 1964, a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss in Jackson, Miss.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, in Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Common-wealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Art Still earned consensus first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1977.

Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) in University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) in Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) in Athens, Ga., and beat Florida (14-7) in Gainesville, Fla.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white. In all, Curci worked nine years, the longest term of any UK head coach.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

After an 0-10-1 mark in Claiborne's first season, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1 and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 win over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Claiborne won 41 games during his eight seasons with the Wildcats. Claiborne and Bryant are the only two UK coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a then-league record of 17 players named to the 1989 honor roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's second-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

After Claiborne's retirement, Bill Curry took over as head coach in 1990. The highlight of Curry's term came in 1993 as the Wildcats played in the Peach Bowl.

All-America quarterback Tim Couch led Kentucky to its first New Year's Day Bowl appearance in 47 years in the 1999 Outback Rowl

In 1994, the Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a then-record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky has claimed one national championship, won two SEC Championships and appeared in 16 bowls.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the second-highest single-game total in NCAA history.

The arrival of Coach Hal Mumme in 1997 unleashed a lightning bolt of enthusiasm for Kentucky football. Mumme's dynamic "Air Raid" offense put UK among the national leaders in passing yardage and total offense and the '97 team broke or tied 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records.

Kentucky returned to the bowl scene in 1998 when the Wildcats won seven games. Quarterback Tim Couch was a first-team All-American, SEC Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Heisman Trophy while rewriting NCAA, SEC, and UK record books. Wide receiver Craig Yeast became the leading pass catcher in SEC history. The Wildcats capped their season by playing Penn State in the Outback Bowl, the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 47 years.

Following the Outback Bowl season, Commonwealth Stadium was expanded. UK enclosed both end zones and added personal suites in time for the 1999 season, boosting seating capacity to 67,606.

The Wildcats celebrated the stadium expansion with another bowl season. All-America tight end James Whalen helped lead UK to the 1999 HomePoint.com Music City Bowl, marking the school's first back-toback bowl appearances since 1983-84.

Guy Morriss coached the Wildcats in 2001-02. He guided UK to seven wins in '02, but the Wildcats could not go to a bowl game because of NCAA probation. Derek Abney returned six kicks for touchdowns, more than any player in one season in NCAA history, and was named first-team All-America along with punter Glenn Pakulak. Pakulak emerged as the best punter in school history and won the Mosi Tatupu Award as National Special Teams Player of the Year.

Inheriting a roster weakened by probation was the major obstacle for Rich Brooks when he took over as head coach in 2003. Brooks' rebuilding efforts began bearing fruit in 2006. The Wildcats had their best season in 22 years by winning eight games, including a 28-20 upset of highly favored Clemson in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

Led by quarterback Andre' Woodson, tailback Rafael Little, wide receiver Keenan Burton, tight end Jacob Tamme and linebacker Wesley Woodyard, the 2007 season contained some of the most exciting moments in school history.

UK notched its first win over a Top-10 opponent in 30 years with a dramatic comeback victory over No. 9 Louisville. UK reached the Top-10 rankings for the first time since 1977 and the popular "ESPN GameDay" crew made its first visit to campus. UK also knocked off No. 1-ranked LSU -- the eventual national champion -- with a 43-37 triple-overtime thriller. The campaign was capped with another Music City Bowl win, this time over traditional power Florida State.

Kentucky capped the 2008 season with a win over East Carolina in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, the first time in school history that UK won bowl games in three consecutive seasons.

Brooks retired following the 2009 season, handing the reins to former Wildcat player and long-time assistant coach Joker Phillips. Sparked by All-America receiver Randall Cobb, Phillips became the first head coach in UK history to take the Wildcats to a bowl game in his first season, completing a school-record streak of five-straight postseason appearances. Another highlight of Phillips' term was ending the 26year losing streak vs. Tennessee with a 10-7 win over the Volunteers in 2011.

A new era began in 2013 with the hiring of Mark Stoops as head coach. Stoops and his staff are making a huge impact and returned the Wildcats to bowl action in 2016.

WILDCAT TRADITIONS & LEGENDS

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 126 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A And 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

Blue and White

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and vellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

Rich Brooks

Rich Brooks coached the Wildcats from 2003-09 and became the first coach in school history to go to four-straight bowl games. After enduring three years of rebuilding caused by an NCAA probation, Brooks guided UK to postseason play from 2006-09, winning a school-record three straight bowls following the 2006, '07 and '08 seasons.

Rich Brooks led the Wildcats to an unprecedented four consecutive bowl appearances and three bowl victories during his seven-year tenure (2003-09) as UK's head coach.

Paul "Bear" Bryant

Paul Bryant, one of the greatest coaches in college football history, spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson and Steve Meilinger.

UK Cheerleaders 22-Time National Champions

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented 22nd national cheerleading championship in 2017 at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995-2002, 2004-06, 2008-10, 2012, 2014, 2016 and 2017. They have been the runners-up on six occasions. Jomo Thompson is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 40 students comprise the squad, 16 of whom represent the school at the championship.

Jerry Claiborne

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach.

HISTORY & TRADITION

Coach Jerry Claiborne gets a victory ride following UK's win at Tennessee in 1984. Claiborne was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the SEC Academic Honor Roll than any league school, including a then-record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in Aug. 2000.

CFA Academic Achievement Award

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93, '94 and 2010, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its incoming freshman class.

Blanton Collier And The Staff

Blanton Collier had the challenge of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings and Bill Arnsparger.

Fran Curci

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and downs at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGiuro Scholarship

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 2015 winner of the scholarship was Max Godby.

Forward Pass

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

Goalposts

The Commonwealth Stadium goalposts have been torn down twice since the stadium opened in 1973.

They were first toppled on Oct. 4, 1997, following Kentucky's 40-34 overtime win vs. Alabama. It was Kentucky's first victory against the Crimson Tide in 75 years, prompting the UK student body to storm the field. "If I weren't so old, I'd have torn them down myself," said then-UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton.

It happened again on Nov. 4, 2006, after the Wildcats' dramatic 24-20 triumph over Georgia. It was UK's first win over the Bulldogs in 10 years and the crowd brought down the east goalpost.

Citing safety concerns, UK has installed collapsible goalposts, which will prevent repeats of the popular -- but potentially dangerous -- celebration ritual.

Governor's Cup

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

Homecoming Games

As is the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 50-21 record in those 71 contests.

The Immortals

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

The goalposts came down after UK's 1997 overtime win against Alabama.

Cawood Ledford

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats football and basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

Mascots

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 year at Kentucky. Gary Tanner was the original Wildcat, entertaining fans at Commonwealth Stadium, Rupp Arena and Memorial Coliseum during athletic events.

Today, the Wildcat mascot also attends academic functions and generally serves as a friendly ambassador for the University.

Scratch, another costumed mascot, was unveiled in August of 1996. During UK games, the Wildcat and Scratch entertain with enthusiastic dances and cheers.

In the past, UK had a live wildcat mascot that has resided in the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife's Salato Wildlife Center three miles west of Frankfort on US 60. The most recent live mascot was named "Blue." Through the years, UK has had other official live mascots with colorful names. Records indicate that the first wild animal, named "Tom," was given to the University in 1921. Other live mascots followed, including "TNT," "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale" and "Colonel."

Minus Ninety-Three

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, in Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

National Champions

Kentucky is the 1950 national champion, according to Jeff Sagarin, who handles computer rankings for USA Today. Sagarin, who has generated computer ratings since the 1970s, has reconstructed earlier seasons and his computer rates the Wildcats as tops for the 1950 campaign.

At the time, the national champs were crowned after the regular season but before the bowl games. UK finished the regular season with a 10-1 record and No. 7 ranking before knocking off No. 1 Oklahoma, 13-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Four teams can lay claim to the 1950 title, according to the official NCAA record book. Six selectors went with Oklahoma (final record 10-1), six picked Tennessee (11-1), two chose Princeton (9-0), and one – the Sagarin ratings – named Kentucky (11-1).

The First Night Game

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, Bear Bryant's Sugar Bowl champion Wildcats earned the 1950 national title, according to the Sagarin computer ratings.

at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

Night Games

Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1:15 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate live national or regional television.

Nate Northington

Nate Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in an SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game in Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

Northington, who was known as "Nat" during his playing days, has written an autobiography, Still Running, that was published in 2014.

Outland Trophy

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded the Outland Trophy, signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

The Prince of Wales

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles, the Prince of Wales, his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles' first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Prince Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

Red Doc, Black Doc

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc." William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

Russell Rice

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice was recognized as the historian of Wildcats football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats," which details Kentucky football and its history. After his retirement from UK, Rice wrote a weekly historical column for The Cats' Pause magazine and continued to be a rich historical resource for the UK media relations office. He was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012. Rice passed away in 2015.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

The Thin Thirty

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as more than 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty." The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

Wildcats Nickname

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Philip Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

In 1965, Nate Northington became the first African-American football player to sign with an SEC school.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972).

Winning Streak

Kentucky ended one of the longest winning streaks in college football history when the Wildcats faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl.

Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners.

At the time, the 31-game winning streak was the fifth-longest in NCAA history and today it still ranks as the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

The Year (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its fifth NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

The Year (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. Kentucky has been named national champion for the 1950 season by the Sagarin Ratings. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its third national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2.

Kentucky Fight Song

On, on U of K,
we are right for the fight today,
Hold that ball and hit that line,
Every Wildcat star will shine,
We'll fight, fight, fight,
For the blue and white,
As we roll to that goal, varsity,
And we'll kick, pass and run,
'til the battle is won,
And we'll bring home the victory.

My Old Kentucky Home

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corntop's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.
(Chorus)

Weep no more, my lady!

Oh! Weep no more today!

We will sing one song for my old Kentucky home,
For my old Kentucky home far away.
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,

All merry, all happy, and bright;

By-n-by hard times

come a-knocking at the door,

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
Sound her praise with voice united;
To the breeze her colors fling.
To the Blue and White be true;
Badge triumphant age on age;
Blue, the sky that o'er us bends;
White, Kentucky's stainless page.

PIONEERS OF INTEGRATION IN THE SEC

Kentucky Wildcats Nate Northington, Greg Page, Wilbur Hackett and Houston Hogg were the pioneers of integration for Southeastern Conference football. In 1966, Northington and Page became the first African-American football players to enroll at an SEC school and played for the UK freshman team. A year later, Hackett and Hogg followed in their footsteps. On Sept. 23, 1967, Northington played his first varsity game. On Sept. 30, 1967 - a day after Page, his close friend and classmate, passed away following a tragic accident – Northington became the first African-American in an SEC game when UK played Ole Miss. Hackett and Hogg would carry on Northington and Page's trailblazing legacy, with Hackett becoming the first African-American team captain in any sport at an SEC school in 1969.

NATE NORTHINGTON

A native of Louisville and an All-State performer at Thomas Jefferson High School, Nate Northington was recruited by Kentucky Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, University of Kentucky President John W. Oswald and UK football head coach Charlie Bradshaw to break the Southeastern Conference's football color barrier. Embracing the opportunity to be a trailblazer and accepting the monumental challenges that came with it, Northington signed with UK and enrolled in 1966. The defensive back spent his first season as a Wildcat as a member of the freshman team before making his varsity debut on Sept. 23, 1967. A week later - and a day following the passing of Greg Page, his close friend and fellow trailblazer - became the first African-American to play in an SEC game when UK played host to Ole Miss. Northington would later transfer to Western Kentucky, but not before encouraging Wilbur Hackett and Houston Hogg to stay and finish the noble work he and Page started.

GREG PAGE

Greg Page, a talented defensive end hailing from Middlesboro, enrolled at the University of Kentucky in 1966 in the height of the Civil Rights movement. Poised to break the Southeastern Conference color barrier in football, Page played with close friend Nate Northington on the freshman team in his first season before moving up to varsity a year later. Before he could play in his first game, Page suffered a neck injury in a tragic accident in practice on Aug. 22, 1967. Left paralyzed, Page remained in intensive care for the next 38 days - during which Northington often visited Page - before passing away. His passing came one day before Northington became the first African-American to play in an SEC game. Though he was not on the field for the groundbreaking moment, his courage had helped pave the way for it and forever changed the face of sports in the South.

WILBUR HACKETT

Hailing from Louisville, Wilbur Hackett came to the University of Kentucky in 1967 after a standout high-school career at Manual, where he was named All State and a Parade Magazine All-American. Heeding Nate Northington's advice to continue to break racial barriers at UK, Hackett joined the varsity team as a sophomore in 1968. In spite of receiving death threats and needing armed guards for one Southeastern Conference road trip, Hackett remained steadfast and became a three-year starter at linebacker. He received Sophomore All-SEC honors in 1968, honorable mention All-SEC recognition as a junior and was Kentucky's Co-Most Valuable Player as a senior. Even more notably, he became the first African-American team captain in any sport in SEC history in 1969, cementing his legacy as one of the foremost pioneers of racial integration in collegiate athletics.

HOUSTON HOGG

Starting his career in Hazard before finishing high school at Daviess County in Owensboro, Houston Hogg followed in the footsteps of Nate Northington and Greg Page in enrolling at the University of Kentucky in 1967. A running back, Hogg lettered for Kentucky in 1969 and 1970 as one of the first African-American football players in the history of the Southeastern Conference. Hogg faced prejudice throughout his career - played during tumultuous times in America – but did not let the racism of others deter him from completing his career and graduating from UK. Hogg's resoluteness and sacrifice were instrumental in paving the way for equality at the University of Kentucky and in both the SEC and college sports nationwide.

The statue commemorates the playing careers and lives of the first four African-American football players in SEC history. It is located on a pedestal in the plaza between the Joe Craft Football Training Facility and Kroger Field, positioned to remind fans, coaches and players of the incredible contributions made by Northington, Page, Hackett and Hogg to the University of Kentucky, the SEC and college football on a national level.

Kentucky football's 2016 schedule poster (right) paid homage to the trailblazers, with four then-current players (C.J. Conrad-82, Jojo Kemp-23, Marcus McWilson-41 and Courtney Love-42) reenacting the poses from the statue and wearing the same numbers Northington, Page, Hackett and Hogg wore as Wildcats. The theme of the poster was "Make a Stand," a nod to Northington, Page, Hackett and Hogg's resolve in integrating SEC football.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

BRYANT

HEAD COACH (INDUCTED IN 1986)

Paul "Bear" Bryant, a national football legend, coached at Kentucky for eight seasons and compiled a record of 60-23-5 for a .710 win percentage while reaching four bowl games. Not only did Bryant total 60 wins during his time at UK, but he also led the Wildcats to their first bowl game (1947 Great Lakes Bowl), first national championship and first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He also took Kentucky to consecutive appearances in the 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and 1952 Cotton Bowl. Bryant coached eight first-team All-Americans during his tenure at Kentucky.

1946, 1948-49

DEFENSIVE BACK/END HEAD COACH (1982-89) (INDUCTED IN 1999)

Jerry Claiborne lettered three years at Kentucky under Paul "Bear" Bryant as a blocking back, end and defensive back. He set a UK single-season record for interceptions with nine thefts for 130 yards during the 1949 campaign. As an assistant coach, Claiborne spent 10 years at the collegiate ranks of Kentucky (1952-53), Texas A&M (1954-56), Missouri (1957), Alabama (1958-60), and Colorado (1971) before becoming a head coach. He ended his career as a head coach ranked 21st among all NCAA coaches with 179 victories and compiled an overall record of 179-122-8 in 28 seasons as a collegiate head coach. Claiborne's career included stops at Virginia Tech (61-39-2), Maryland (77-37-3) and Kentucky (41-46-3). He was named Coach of the Year in three different conferences - Southern (1963), Atlantic Coast (1973, 1975, 1976) and Southeastern (1983) - in addition to being named National Coach of the Year by The Sporting News in 1974. Claiborne led the Wildcats to a pair of bowl berths with the 1983 and 1984 Hall of Fame Bowls. In 1989, he guided UK to the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate and set an SEC record by placing 17 Wildcats on the SEC Academic Honor Roll. The former head coach received the Neyland Award in 1994 and was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1999.

TACKLE/PLACEKICKER (INDUCTED IN 1980)

Bob Gain played four years at Kentucky, 1947 through 1950, and was a two-way starter at tackle. He also was the team's place kicker, accounting for 38 extra points. In 1950, he blocked kicks against North Texas and Georgia Tech. He recovered both kicks inside the opponents' 20 to set up touchdowns for Kentucky. Gain also served as a powerful blocker on offense, and he won the 1950 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman. This helped Kentucky to a 10-1 regular season record, its first Southeastern Conference title, and a victory over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl. He was a consensus All-America and conference MVP after gaining first-team All-America status as a junior. He played in 1951 with Ottawa in the Canadian League and 1952 with Cleveland in the National Football League. In 1953, he served as a first lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force in Korea. He returned to play with the Cleveland Browns 1954-64.

END/HALFBACK/ DEFENSIVE BACK/ LINEBACKER (INDUCTED IN 2013)

Steve Meilinger gained fame as "Mr. Anywhere" for his versatility and value to the Kentucky football program. He lettered three years for the Wildcats as an end, halfback, defensive back, and linebacker under Hall of Fame head coach Bear Bryant. He also served as the Wildcats' two-year starting punter while returning punts and kickoffs. His career totals include 75 catches for 1,210 yards (16.1 avg.) and 17 touchdowns, a former UK team record. Meilinger had 41 receptions and racked up 576 yards and eight touchdowns during the 1951 season, which led to him becoming a first-team All-American in 1952 and 1953. He was also named first-team All-SEC three times (1951-53) and the Birmingham QB Club Quarter Century All-SEC Team (1950-74). He rushed for 714 yards and intercepted six passes during his college career and was later a first-round NFL Draft choice by Washington in the 1954 NFL Draft. Meilinger played six seasons in the league for the Redskins, Green Bay Packers and Pittsburgh Steelers. He spent the entirety of his non-football life in military or public service. Immediately following his selection by the Redskins, Meilinger served two years as a tank commander in the U.S. Army's 100th Tank Battalion of the 1st Armored Division before embarking on his pro football career. From 1962-83, Meilinger was a United States Marshal, and he was one of the original six marshals who founded the U.S. Federal Witness Protection Program. The Bethlehem, Pa., native is a member of the State of Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame, the University of Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame, the Fork Union Military Academy Hall of Fame, the Lehigh Valley (Penn.) Hall of Fame and the Liberty High School Hall of Fame.

TACKLE/KICKER/PUNTER
(INDUCTED IN 1992)

Lou Michaels played tackle for Kentucky from 1955 through 1957, was a consensus All-America the last two years, and was named the Most Valuable Player in the Southeastern Conference in 1957. This MVP award, given by the Nashville Banner, is decided by a vote of the coaches. It started in 1933 and in its first 50 years only one tackle - Michaels - won it. Also in 1957, the Washington Touchdown Club made him Lineman of the Year. He was fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1957. Michaels was named the outstanding lineman in the Southeastern Conference twice - by the Birmingham Touchdown Club in 1956 and the Atlanta Touchdown Club in 1957. He did some of Kentucky's punting and place kicking. Michaels averaged 39.8 yards per punt, had 122 punts for 4,852 yards, and connected on 13 of 16 PATs and 2 of 3 field goals during his career at UK. Kentucky retired his jersey, number 79, in 1990. Michaels played professionally for 14 years, 1958-1971, with the Los Angeles Rams, Pittsburgh Steelers, Baltimore Colts and Green Bay Packers. His brother Walter, played football at Washington and Lee and then had a 12-year pro career.

QUARTERBACK (INDUCTED IN 1982)

Vito "Babe" Parilli brought Kentucky national recognition as he introduced Bear Bryant's "T" Formation that baffled opponents and spectators alike. Parilli was a great ball handler. Defenders tackled backs not carrying the ball as Parilli's fakes enabled receivers to become wide open for his passes. In 1949 and 1950, Parilli directed teams that ran up 684 points against 115 opposition points. The Wildcats held 10 of 22 opponents scoreless, and all but three to seven points or less. In 1950, while Parilli was breaking a long list of Southeastern Conference records, Kentucky won the Southeastern Conference title. In his illustrious career, Parilli threw 50 touchdown passes, led Kentucky to wins over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl and TCU in the Cotton Bowl, and won consensus first-team All-America honors in 1950. He twice placed in the top-four of the Heisman vote. He ended his remarkable college career with consensus All-America honors again in 1951 and Most Valuable Player citation in the College All-Star Game. After being taken in the first-round of the NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers in 1952, the quarterback played for six years in the NFL, then 10 years in the AFL, culminating with a 1969 Super Bowl championship with the New York

DEFENSIVE END (INDUCTED IN 2015)

Art Still lettered four years at the University of Kentucky as a defensive end and was a consensus first-team All-American in 1977 after he broke the UK single-season record with 22 tackles behind the line. He was also named two-time, first-team All-SEC in 1976 and 1977. Still was honored by the Birmingham Touchdown Club and the Columbus (Ga.) Touchdown Club as the SEC Outstanding Senior Player in 1977. The legendary defensive end finished his career with 327 tackles and was named to the Lakeland (Fla.) Ledger 25-year All-SEC team (1961-1975). A first-round draft choice by Kansas City in 1978, Still played 12 seasons in the NFL with Kansas City and Buffalo.

- The Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® was established in 1992 by the College Football Association, recognizing the extra efforts made by college football players and student support staff off the field. AFCA became the governing body of the award in 1997 and continues to honor college football players who go the extra mile for those in need. Allstate worked to present the award starting with the 2008 season.
- The SEC leads all conferences with 67 selections to the Good Works Team since it began in 1992.
 UK ranks tied for third all-time with St. Thomas (Minn.) in award winners behind Georgia (17) and Nebraska (14).

Jake Lewellen was named to the "Good Works Team" after he spearheaded a group of UK athletes and staff members to pack bags to take to Joplin, Mo., after the town was devastated by a tornado in July of 2011. He got teammates to donate money before he personally delivered 100 bags to Joplin filled with toiletries, pens, pencils, paper and bibles.

Landon Foster was very involved in community service projects during his time at Kentucky. In May of 2014, he represented UK on a week-long community service trip to Ethiopia, where he interacted with residents of impoverished communities, visited imprisoned men, helped widows, cared for orphans, and helped renovate houses. On the trip, he befriended a 14-year-old boy living in the streets of Korah named Dejene. He was so moved by the boy's resilience and character to succeed despite his circumstances that Foster worked through an organization called "Adoption Ministry of Youth with a Mission" to pay out of his own pocket to sponsor Dejene. He sent his own money for four months to help pay for his food, clothing, shelter and schooling until Dejene (now named Joshua) was able to move to America with a family from North Carolina.

Max Godby led UK with over 180 hours of community service in 2014. One of the biggest projects he undertook was creating and developing, with the help of Catholic Action Center, a program called Bucks for Backpacks which provided 150 homeless men and women in Lexington, Ky., with a backpack filled with items essential for survival and dignity. He made phone calls to ask for donations for the backpacks and items placed inside, packed the backpacks and distributed them to the homeless.

RETIRED JERSEYS: RING OF HONOR

#33 George Adams (1981-84): Running Back

As a steadfast running back for the Wildcats from 1981-84, George Adams led the team in rushing and all-purpose yardage as a sophomore, junior, and senior. His great 1984 campaign was topped by being named first-team All-SEC, UK's Most Valuable Senior, and UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Back. Adams helped lead the Wildcats to Hall of Fame Bowl appearances in 1983 and 1984 and was chosen as Kentucky's MVP of the 1983 bowl. He ranks highly in school history in seven career categories and six single-season categories. The persistent back finished his career with 2,468 rushing yards on 638 attempts and played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. Adams was a first-round draft pick of the New York Giants and had a seven-year career with the Giants and New England Patriots.

#2 Ermal Allen (1939-41): Quarterback/ Halfback

Ermal Allen lettered for three years (1939-41) at quarterback for Coach A.D. Kirwan and guided the Wildcats to three consecutive winning seasons. In addition to football, he also played varsity basketball for three seasons under Coach Adolph Rupp and helped pace the Wildcats to a pair of SEC Tournament championships. Following military service, Allen came to Kentucky in 1946 as an assistant coach before playing professionally with the Cleveland Browns in 1947. He returned to UK in 1948 to be an assistant coach until 1961. His assignments included offensive backs coach, head coach of the freshman team, and defensive coordinator. During Allen's time as an assistant, the Wildcats racked up 12 winning seasons. Following his success at Kentucky, Allen spent 22 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1962-83) as an assistant coach and Director of Research and Development. He made five trips to the Super Bowl during his tenure with Dallas.

#73 Sam Ball (1963-65): Offensive Tackle

During his three letter years as on offensive tackle at Kentucky, Sam Ball was named a first-team All-American in 1965 by United Press International, Football Writers, and Sporting News. He was also named first-team All-Southeastern Conference the same year. Ball played in the College All-Star Game, North-South Shrine Game, and the Senior Bowl. He was later a first-round draft choice by Baltimore in 1966.

#21 Calvin Bird (1958-60): Halfback

Calvin Bird excelled as a running back, pass receiver, defensive back, kickoff returner, and punt returner during his three letter years. He set four school records for highest kickoff return average in a season (30.4, 1959) and career (27.05). Bird averaged 8.44 yards every time he touched the ball during his career, formerly a school record (min. 300 plays), and scored a school-record 25 points in one game, vs. Hawaii, in 1958 and tied the school mark for touchdowns in a game with four. A second-team All-SEC selection as a junior, Bird was also a third-team All-SEC selection as a senior and chosen as the SEC's "Sophomore of the Year" in 1958 when he led the league in pass receiving. He led the team in receiving and all-purpose yardage for three consecutive seasons, played in three all-star games following his senior season and was chosen as the Most Valuable Back in the All-American Bowl.

#21 Rodger Bird (1963-65): Halfback

Rodger Bird lettered three years for the Wildcats as a halfback. He was named first-team All-American in 1965 by Time magazine and NBC and a two-time All-Southeastern Conference first-team (1964-65) by the Associated Press and United Press International. Bird played in the College All-Star Game, North-South Shrine All-Star Game, and the Senior Bowl. Later, he was a first-round draft choice of the Oakland Raiders in 1966 and played with the team from 1966 to 1971. Career wise, Bird finished with 1,699 yards and 21 touchdowns at Kentucky. He tallied a season-best 646 yards rushing and 12 touchdowns in 1965. Bird had his career-high game of 157 yards rushing against Virginia Tech in 1963.

#16 George Blanda (1945-48): Quarterback/Punter/ Kicker

During his four seasons at Kentucky, George Blanda led the Wildcats in total offense in 1948 and passing in 1947 and 1948. He threw for over 1,400 yards and 12 touchdowns in his final two seasons. Blanda was the first player in professional football to score 2,000 points (2,002) in a career and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame after 26 seasons. In the pros, he threw for 26,920 yards, 236 touchdowns, played on three American Football League championship teams, and was a member of the All-Time AFL Team and the AFL Hall of Fame.

Paul "Bear" Bryant (1946-53): Head Coach

Paul "Bear" Bryant, a national football legend, coached at Kentucky for eight seasons and compiled a record of 60-23-5 for a .710 win percentage while reaching four bowl games. Not only did Bryant total 60 wins during his time at UK, but he also led the Wildcats to their first bowl game (1947 Great Lakes Bowl), first national championship and first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He also took Kentucky to consecutive appearances in the 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and 1952 Cotton Bowl. Bryant coached eight first-team All-Americans during his tenure at Kentucky.

#69 Warren Bryant (1974-76): Offensive Tackle

Warren Bryant lettered from 1974-76 as an offensive tackle. During his time he was named a first-team All-American by Walter Camp and American Football Coaches Association in 1976, a Jacobs Award selection in 1976 (outstanding SEC blocker), and named to the Lakeland (Fla.) Ledger 25-year All-

SEC team (1961-85). Bryant was a three-time All-SEC selection and a first-round NFL Draft choice by Atlanta Falcons in 1976.

Jerry Claiborne lettered three years at Kentucky under Paul "Bear" Bryant as a blocking back, end and defensive back.

He set a UK single-season record for interceptions with nine thefts for 130 yards during the 1949 campaign. As an assistant coach, Claiborne spent 10 years at the collegiate ranks of Kentucky (1952-53), Texas A&M (1954-56), Missouri (1957), Alabama (1958-60), and Colorado (1971) before becoming a head coach. He ended his career as a head coach ranked 21st among all NCAA coaches with 179 victories and compiled an overall record of 179-122-8 in 28 seasons as a collegiate head coach. Claiborne's career included stops at Virginia Tech (61-39-2), Maryland (77-37-3) and Kentucky (41-46-3). He was named Coach of the Year in three different conferences - Southern (1963), Atlantic Coast (1973, 1975, 1976) and Southeastern (1983) - in addition to being named National Coach of the Year by The Sporting News in 1974. Claiborne led the Wildcats to a pair of bowl berths with the 1983 and 1984 Hall of Fame Bowls. In 1989, he guided UK to the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate and set an SEC record by placing 17 Wildcats on the SEC Academic Honor Roll. The former head coach received the Neyland Award in 1994 and was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1999.

Blanton Collier (1954-61): Head Coach

Blanton Collier served as the head football coach of the University of Kentucky for eight seasons and led the Wildcats to a 41-36-3 record (.531 pct.). Most Kentucky faithful remember his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. Collier had the difficult task of following UK's most successful head coach, Paul "Bear" Bryant, when he accepted the job in 1954, but immediately led the Wildcats to a 7-3 record in his first season and was named the Nashville Banner Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year. He began his coaching career at his prep alma mater, Paris High School, in 1927 and coached all sports there for 16 years (1927-43) including football and basketball. Collier won two Central Kentucky Conference football titles and six basketball championships. After serving his country in the Navy, Collier joined the Cleveland Browns in 1946 as an assistant coach under Paul Brown and remained there until becoming head coach at Kentucky. He led Cleveland to a sparkling 76-34-2 record (.688 pct.), which included one NFL title in 1964 and four division titles from 1963 to 1970.

#40 Sonny Collins (1972-75): Halfback

Sonny Collins was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection for three (1973-74-75) of his four letter years. He is one of the all-time leading rushers at UK with 3,835 yards, 26 touchdowns, and a 4.9 yards per carry average. Collins has led in rush attempts (777), yards rushing (3,835), rushing touchdowns (26) and 100-yard rushing games (18). His best season came as a sophomore in 1973 with 1,213 yards and 13 touchdowns. Named Player of the Year in the Southeastern Conference by the Nashville Banner and Birmingham Post-Herald in 1974, Collins participated in the Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl before being drafted in the second round by the Atlanta Falcons in 1976.

#65 Ray Correll (1951-53): #65 Guard

During his three letter years at Kentucky, guard Ray Correll was named a first-team All-American in 1953 by the Football Writers of America Association and the Chicago Tribune, as well as first-team All-Southeastern Conference by the Associated Press and second-team All-Southeastern Conference by United Press International. He was named Defensive Most Valuable Player in the 1952 Cotton Bowl as Kentucky defeated TCU, 20-7, and earned a spot on the All-Time Cotton Bowl Team. Correll was named a permanent co-captain as a senior in 1953 and went on to play in the East-West Shrine All-Star Game and the Senior Bowl.

#2 Tim Couch (1996-98): Quarterback

A storied name of the Kentucky program, Tim Couch was the team's quarterback from 1996-98. After giving up his senior season of eligibility, Couch was drafted as the No. 1 pick by Cleveland in the 1999 NFL Draft. In 1998, the junior quarterback was named a first-team All-American and consensus SEC Player of the Year. Couch completed 400 of 553 passes for 4,275 yards and 36 touchdowns and led the nation in pass completions while ranked second in completion percentage, passing yardage and touchdown passes, and fourth in total offense. After guiding the Wildcats to the Outback Bowl, UK's first New Year's Day bowl appearance in 47 years, Couch finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting. He was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award as a junior and sophomore. His breakout sophomore campaign featured 363 of 547 passes for 3,884 yards and 37 touchdowns while leading the nation in pass attempts, completions, yardage, and completion percentage. Also during his sophomore year, Couch earned second-team All-SEC honors and finished ninth in Heisman voting. He played in seven games as a true freshman, with two starts. Career wise, Couch completed 795 passes on 1,184 attempts for 8,435 yards and 74 touchdowns. The legend ended his career with seven NCAA records, 14 SEC records, and 26 school records.

#13 Bob Davis (1935-37): Halfback

In his three years at Kentucky, Bob Davis was recognized as the program's career rushing leader in the pre-modern era with 2,083 yards rushing. He was also a former all-time leading scorer at UK with 180 points. Davis twice had five-touchdown games and scored a UK all-time high 30 touchdowns during his career. Additionally, he had high games of 267 yards against Washington & Lee and 246 yards against Maryville. Davis had four rushing touchdowns of over 70 yards.

Dermontti Dawson (1984-87): Center/Offensive Guard

Dermontti Dawson lettered for three years as an offensive lineman for Coach Jerry Claiborne. He played guard and center and was named All-SEC following his senior season. Dawson blocked for three of the top rushers in school history – Mark Higgs, George Adams and Marc Logan. A member of the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl championship team, Dawson went on to have a 13-year career with the Pittsburgh Steelers after being drafted by the team in the second round of the 1988 NFL Draft. The seven-time Pro Bowl selection (1992-98) returned to Lexington and served as an expert on the UKTV Network Telecasts.

#59 Joe Federspiel (1969-71): Linebacker

One of the top linebackers in Kentucky history, Joe Federspiel lettered for three years. During his time in Lexington, the talented linebacker was named first-team All-Southeastern Conference as a senior, UK's Most Valuable Senior, and second-team All-SEC. Federspiel led the team in tackles during his junior campaign with 125 stops and won UK's "Unsung Hero Award" his sophomore and junior seasons. He was named to Kentucky's All-Time Team by both the Lexington Herald-Leader and Louisville Courier-Journal. Federspiel played in both the North-South Shrine Game and the All-American Bowl following his senior year and was later named to the SEC All-Decade Team for the 1970s by the Atlanta-Journal Constitution. He went on to a 10-year career in the NFL, including nine years with the New Orleans Saints (1972-80) and a season with the Baltimore Colts (1981).

Bob Gain (1947-50): Tackle/ Placekicker

Bob Gain lettered four years for the Wildcats as tackle and placekicker. He was a two-time first-team All-American (1949-50) and the first player from the SEC to win the Outland Trophy (1950).

Gain was a three-time All-SEC selection and first-round draft choice by Green Bay in 1951. He played 12 years in the NFL for Cleveland

#55 Irvin "Irv" Goode (1959-61): Center/Linebacker

Irvin Goode, a center and linebacker, lettered three years at Kentucky under head coach Blanton Collier. Permanent team captain of the 1961 squad, Goode was also named a first-team All-American by Time and third-team All-SEC by United Press International the same year. Though most of his notoriety came as a center, Goode did manage a career-high 23 tackles against national champion Ole Miss as a junior. He played in four postseason all-star games - Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game, College All-Star Game and Senior Christian Bowl. After showcasing his talent at the collegiate level, Goode was the number one draft choice of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1962. He was a 13-year veteran of the National Football League and played with the Cardinals (1962-71), Buffalo Bills (1972), and Miami Dolphins (1973-74). Goode was a two-time Pro Bowl selection in 1964 and 1967.

#22 Mark Higgs (1984-87): Tailback

per attempt in 1987) and rushed for, what was then a school-record, 1,278 yards (broken in 1995). Higgs was selected as the SEC Offensive Player of the Week when he rushed for 192 yards in a 35-6 victory over Mississippi. In addition, he was named second-team All-SEC, UK's Most Valuable Senior, and to the SEC Academic Honor Roll. Following his senior season, Higgs played in the Blue-Gray Game and Hula Bowl before being drafted by the Dallas Cowboys. The running back enjoyed an eight-year career in the NFL with Dallas, Philadelphia, Miami, and Arizona.

#80 Tom Hutchinson (1960-62): End

Formerly the all-time leading receiver at UK, Tom Hutchinson earned three varsity letters as a split end under head coaches Blanton Collier and Charlie Bradshaw. He ended his career with then-school-records of 94 pass receptions, 1,483 receiving yards, averaged 15.9 yards per reception and scored nine touchdowns. The end was named firstteam All-Southeastern Conference by the Associated Press in 1960, 1961, and 1962, first-team All-SEC by United Press International in 1961 and 1962, and third-team All-SEC by United Press International in 1960. Despite not earning a starting assignment in any of the 10 regular season games, Hutchinson caught 30 passes for 455 yards as a sophomore and grabbed 32 pass receptions in 1961 and 1962. He played in five postseason all-star games - Coaches All-America Game, College All-Star Game, Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game, and the Senior Christian Bowl. His NFL career began after he was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the draft in 1963 were he played for three seasons before spending one season with Atlanta (1966).

#8 Clyde Johnson (1940-42): Tackle

Clyde Johnson owns the honor of being the University of Kentucky's first All-American in football. He was named a first-team All-American and first-team All-Southeastern Conference by the Associated Press in 1942. Johnson played two seasons (1946-47) in the NFL with Los Angeles Rams.

Wallace "Wah Wah" Jones (1945-48): End

Wah Wah Jones lettered four years at Kentucky as an end and was a two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection. He was also named first team All-SEC by the Associated Press in 1946 and third-team All-SEC in 1948. Jones led Kentucky in receiving in the 1947 and 1948 seasons and had a season-high 19 receptions for 243 yards and five touchdowns during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Wildcats to the Great Lakes Bowl, their first bowl appearance, in 1947 as a junior. The UK legend was also a four-year letterman in basketball and baseball. Jones, also a basketball standout, is the only UK athlete to have his iersey retired in both sports.

#44 John "Shipwreck" Kelly (1929-31): Halfback

John Kelly lettered as a halfback for the Wildcats from 1929-31 and gained approximately 2,100 rushing yards during his career. He accomplished a season-best 1,074 yards rushing in 1931

#66 Ralph Kercheval (1931-33): Punter

Known as perhaps the finest punter in the history of the SEC, Ralph Kercheval lettered in 1931, 1932, and 1933 for the Wildcats. He set SEC season records for most punts (101), yards punted (4,413) and set single-game record for punting average (52.0 avg., min. 10). Kercheval holds one of the longest punts in UK history at a mark of 78 yards. Career wise, he punted 234 times for 9,749 yards and averaged 44.8 yards per punt. He also played quarterback, defensive back and kicker.

#80 Rick Kestner (1963-65): End

As a first-team All-Southeastern Conference offensive end in 1964 and 1965, Rick Kestner was one of the most prolific pass catchers in Wildcat history with 82 receptions in his career. His 42 catches in 1964 set a school record and his best game came the same year with nine catches for 185 yards and three touchdowns as Kentucky upset top ranked Mississippi, 27-21, in Jackson. The 185 receiving yards was the most ever in a game for a Wildcat until 1998. Kestner was placed on the Academic All-SEC team in 1964.

#50 Jim Kovach (1974-76, 1978): Linebacker

As one of the all-time leading tacklers in UK history, Jim Kovach is credited with 521 tackles, including a season high 164 in 1976. He was a four-year letterman who received medical hardship ruling in 1977 because of a shoulder injury, but made a comeback and was voted a consensus first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection in 1978. As an off the field accomplishment, he was named to the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll four times. In addition to being named second-team All-SEC in 1975 and 1976, Kovach was named the squad's Most Valuable Player, an Academic All-American, and received the 1978 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award. He played in the 1978 Hula Bowl and received a 1979 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. The linebacker was a fourth-round draft choice by the New Orleans Saints in 1979 and played there until 1985 when he moved to San Francisco to play for one year.

#24 Dicky Lyons Sr. (1966-68): Running Back

Known as one of the greatest punt and kickoff return aces in Southeastern Conference history, Dicky Lyons lettered three years as a running back, flanker and kick returner at UK. He was named first-team All-SEC as a junior and senior and earned second-team all-league honors as a sophomore. Lyons was the first player in SEC history with 1,000 yards rushing, 1,000 yards in punt returns and 1,000 yards in kickoff returns. He held the SEC record for most return yardage in a game when he racked up 235 yards in punt and kickoff returns against LSU in 1967. Lyons' career punt return average of 15.4 yards per return ranks as one of the best in school history and SEC annals. He has been ranked so highly among the leaders in several other statistical categories at Kentucky and the SEC that he was named to Kentucky's All-Time Team by the Lexington Herald-Leader. He would go on to play for the New Orleans Saints in the NFL.

Charlie McClendon (1949-50): Defensive End/Cornerback/Tight End

Charlie McClendon was a versatile performer for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant and helped lead the 1949 team to the Orange Bowl and the 1950 squad to the Sugar Bowl. He lettered two seasons at UK as a defensive end, cornerback, and tight end. McClendon later became an assistant coach and joined Kentucky in 1951, Vanderbilt in 1952, and LSU from 1953-61 before taking over the reins in Baton Rouge in 1962. He compiled a 137-59-7 mark in 18 years at LSU, took the Tigers to 13 bowl games, and was named National Coach of the Year in 1970 by the American Football Coaches Association. In 1980, McClendon was the Executive Director of the Tangerine Bowl for two years before completing 12 years (1982-94) as Executive Director of the AFCA. He would later receive the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award from the AFCA in 1992 for "outstanding service in the advancement of the best interests of football."

record, including one Southeastern Conference championship (1950) and appearances in the Orange, Sugar, and Cotton Bowls. He was named a first-team All-American in 1951 by the Associated Press and Football Writers Association of America in addition to being a first-team All-Southeastern Conference by the Associated Press and United Press International that same year. Moseley was also a second-team All-Southeastern Conference selection by the Associated Press the previous year. A permanent co-captain of the 1951 Wildcat squad, which posted an 8-4 record and a 20-7 victory over Texas Christian University in the Cotton Bowl, Moseley earned the 1951 Atlanta Constitution Award and played in the College All-Star Game in Chicago.

#11 Rick Norton (1963-65): Quarterback

Rick Norton lettered three years at quarterback for the Wildcats and was named a first-team All-American in 1965 by Time magazine and NBC along with Academic All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1963. Career wise, Norton finished with 4,139 yards of total offense, and completed 298 of 598 (.498 pct.) passes for 4,514 yards and 26 touchdowns. He held UK mark for season passing with 1,823 yards and 11 touchdowns in 1965. Norton owned the Wildcats' single-game mark with 373 yards passing against Houston in 1965. As a result of his accomplishments, he was a first-round draft pick of the Miami Dolphins in 1966 and played with the team until 1969.

#52 Rick Nuzum (1972-74): Offensive Lineman

Rick Nuzum began his career as a defensive end at UK before moving to offensive tackle, offensive guard and center for his last two seasons. He was named a first-team All-American as a center in 1974, second-team All-Southeastern Conference as a senior, and the squad's Most Valuable Player in 1974. Nuzum participated in the 1974 Hula Bowl and East-West Shrine Game. After being coached at Kentucky by John Ray and Fran Curci, he was drafted in the fifth round by the Los Angeles Rams in 1975 where he played one season (1977) before playing his final two with the Green Bay Packers (1978-79).

Vito "Babe" Parilli (1949-51): Quarterback

A two-time first-team All-American in 1950 and 1951, Babe Parilli also finished third and fourth in Heisman Trophy voting his junior and senior seasons. He lettered three years at quarterback for the Wildcats and set a UK career record for touchdown passes with 50. Parilli completed 331 of 592 passes for 4,351 yards in his career and the team posted a 28-8 record, claimed an SEC title along with spots in the Orange, Sugar, and Cotton Bowls under his leadership. After being taken in the first-round of the NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers in 1952, the quarterback played for six years in the NFL, then 10 years in the AFL, culminating with a 1969 Super Bowl championship with the New York Jets.

#12 Derrick Ramsey (1975-77): Quarterback

Derrick Ramsey, a quarterback, lettered three years for the Wildcats. He was named to the first-team All-Southeastern Conference and third-team All-America by the Associated Press and United Press International in 1977. Ramsey was also named the Outstanding SEC Quarterback following his senior campaign by the Birmingham Touchdown Club. He led the Wildcats to 9-3 and 10-1 records as a junior and senior, including a 21-0 victory over North Carolina in the 1976 Peach Bowl. The star quarterback finished off a successful career with 3,417 yards of total offense, 1,764 rushing yards, 1,653 passing yards, 25 rushing touchdowns, and 14 passing touchdowns. Ramsey played in the East-West Shrine All-Star Game and later went on to play for three different NFL teams as a tight end – Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders (1978-83), New England (1983-85) and Detroit (1987).

#45 Jay Rhodemyre (1942, 1946-47): Center/ Linebacker

During his three seasons at Kentucky, Jay Rhodemyre became a first-team ALL-SEC choice as a senior after garnering third-team all-league honors as a junior. He played his final two years for the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant and helped lead Kentucky to the school's first bowl appearance in 1947. Rhodemyre was named to Kentucky's All-Time Team in selections made by both the Lexington Herald-Leader and the Louisville Courier-Journal. Further accolades include: MVP honors of the 1948 College All-Star Game, a spot in the 1947 Blue-Gray Game, and a four-year career in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers. Following his football career, Rhodemyre worked as an engineer and was part-owner of Thermal Equipment Sales Company.

1947 • Great Lakes Bowl // Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback/kicker George Blanda gave Kentucky a 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Kentucky led 10-0 after three from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

1950 • Orange Bowl // Santa Clara 21, Kentucky 13

Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64.816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a 1-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it 14-7 after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT, breaking a personal streak of 18 straight, as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

1951 • Sugar Bowl // Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 in New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record

Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his handoffs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the score. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a 5-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another Oklahoma scoring threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

1952 • Cotton Bowl // Kentucky 20, TCU 7

Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 in Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8-of-20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats ended the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a 5-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-vard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a 3-vard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

1976 • Peach Bowl // Kentucky 21, North Carolina O

Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the postseason bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant.

Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the three TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold UNC to just over 100 yards.

1983 • Hall of Fame Bowl // West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

HISTORY & TRADITION

Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

WVU scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the Mountaineers' 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried an on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside as the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

1984 • Hall of Fame Bowl // Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a ninepoint deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-vard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams' turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-andsix, Gregoire was called on for his fifth field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK sealed the victory.

HISTORY & TRADITION

1993 • Peach Bowl // Clemson 14, Kentucky 13

The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson 2-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceeded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a 2-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive. Kentucky was stopped again at the 1-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a 5-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

1999 • Outback Bowl // Penn State 26, Kentucky 14

Playing on New Year's Day for the first time in 47 years, the Kentucky Wildcats jumped out to an early lead, but the Penn State Nittany Lions rallied for a 26-14 victory in the Outback Bowl in Tampa, Fla.

Although the game was played in Tampa, the Wildcats certainly felt at home. Heavy ticket demand gave the Outback Bowl its first sellout ever, as more than 40,000 UK fans were packed among the 66,005 patrons in Raymond James Stadium.

Kentucky got on the board first with 7:36 remaining in the first quarter. At the PSU 36-yard line, under heavy pressure, quarterback Tim Couch lofted a rainbow into the end zone that wide receiver Lance Mickelsen caught for a touchdown.

Later in the opening period, UK stretched the lead to 14-3 with a 64-yard drive, capped by a 16-yard TD pass from Couch to halfback Anthony White. Key plays on the drive included a 22-yard pass from Couch to wide receiver Kevin Coleman and a 30-yard aerial to Mickelsen.

From the second quarter, however, Penn State chipped away. Quarterback Kevin Thompson hit flanker Joe Nastasi with a 56-yard touchdown bomb. A second field goal from Travis Forney narrowed the UK advantage to 14-13 at halftime.

The Nittany Lions took the lead for good in the third quarter on two more field goals by Forney, giving him four on the day. Penn State put the game away in the fourth quarter with a 19-yard end-around TD run by Chafie Fields.

Meanwhile, the PSU defense shut out the Wildcats the last three quarters. Kentucky continued to move the ball, but three scoring opportunities came up empty - one on an interception, one on a missed field goal, and the other when the Wildcats were held on downs Kentucky actually outgained Penn State, 441 yards to 420. UK might have done even better, but the Wildcats offensive line was missing three senior starters, all of whom were replaced by freshmen.

Couch paced the attack by completing 30-of-48 passes for 336 yards and two TDs, completing his streak of at least 300 passing yards and at least one TD pass in every game of the season. Running backs Anthony White and Derek Homer caught seven balls each. White totaled 101 yards on the day, with eight rushes for 61 yards and seven receptions for 40 yards.

1999 • HomePoint.com Music City Bowl // Syracuse 20, Kentucky 13

Playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time since 1983-84, the Kentucky Wildcats went down to the wire before falling to Syracuse, 20-13, in the HomePoint.com Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn. Kentucky played before a heavily partisan crowd, as almost all of the 59,221 fans were pulling for the Wildcats.

Kentucky blazed to a 10-0 lead in the first guarter. The Wildcats took the opening kickoff and maneuvered 79 yards for a touchdown. Tight end James Whalen set up the TD with a 45-yard reception and Kendrick Shanklin ran it in from the 3-yard line.

The Wildcats held on defense, forcing a punt. Quarterback Dusty Bonner again drove the Wildcats inside the 10-yard line before settling for a 22-yard field goal by Marc Samuel. Whalen, however, was injured during the series and was lost for the remainder of the game. Already having caught four passes for 79 yards midway through the first quarter, his presence was sorely missed.

The Kentucky defense continued to stop Syracuse, including two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal, but the Orangemen got on the board late in the second quarter. The Wildcats led at halftime, 10-7.

A scoreless third quarter led to a dramatic final stanza. Samuel extended the UK lead to 13-7 with a 35-yard field goal. Syracuse countered with two scoring runs by James Mungro, taking a 20-13 lead.

Kentucky got its last chance by taking over on its own 4-yard line with only 1:35 remaining and no timeouts.

Bonner did a great job of moving the team to the Syracuse 41-yard line, but ran out of time, and a desperation heave on the game's final play fell incomplete.

Bonner led the UK attack by completing 30 of 43 passes for 308 yards and he also ran for 16 yards. In his final game as a Wildcat, running back Anthony White caught eight passes for 85 yards - both figures setting UK bowl records.

Linebacker Ryan Murphy led the defense in tackles with a career-high 15 stops. Linebacker Marlon McCree had an outstanding game. He tied his career high for tackles with 10, including two tackles for loss and a quarterback sack, caused two fumbles and recovered a fumble. Defensive tackle George Massey (nine) and free safety Anthony Wajda (eight) each tied his career high for tackles.

The Wildcats blocked two field goals, one each by defensive end Dennis Johnson and another by linebacker Jamal White

2006 • Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl // Kentucky 28, Clemson 20

Kentucky quarterback André Woodson threw for 299 yards with three touchdowns and the Wildcats won their first bowl game in 22 years with a 28-20 victory over Clemson in front of a record 68,024 fans at the 2006 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson, the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 20-of-28 passes and finished the season with 31 touchdown strikes, joining Tim Couch as the only Wildcats in school history to reach 30 TD tosses in a season. Woodson directed an offense that gave the Wildcats their sixth bowl win in school history by setting a UK record for most points scored in a bowl game.

Kentucky, making its first postseason appearance since 1999, used some offensive wrinkles to score its first-half points. The Wildcats quickly got on the board with a one-yard run by Micah Johnson less than four minutes into the game. Johnson, normally a linebacker, was called upon in the short-yardage situation and the 270-pounder bulldozed his way into the end zone for his first collegiate score.

The Wildcat defense gave ground early, but Clemson stayed off the scoreboard after a pair of missed field goals. The Tigers finally tallied and came within one, 7-6, after a 32-yard pass by quarterback Will Proctor to Durrell Barry in the second quarter.

From there, both teams combined for four turnovers on the next seven plays, but UK closed the half with another surprise maneuver. Facing fourth down and four yards to go from his own 20-yard line, Wildcat punter Tim Masthay faked a punt and completed a 10-yard pass to Marcus McClinton for the first down. On the next play, Woodson followed with a 70-yard bomb to receiver DeMoreo Ford to go into the locker room up 14-6.

Meanwhile, the Kentucky defense stiffened, stopping the Tigers on six consecutive possessions in the second and third quarters. The Wildcat offense took advantage, making it 21-6 early in the second half after a Clemson fumble. Woodson found wide receiver Dicky Lyons Jr. on a short sideline pass and Lyons took it the rest of the way for a 24-yard score. UK built its lead to 28-6 with a touchdown pass to tight end Jacob Tamme with 11:29 remaining in the game.

Trading yardage for time, Kentucky gave up a pair of clock-eating scoring drives and clinched the victory when Tamme recovered an onside kick with less than a minute to go. That set off a wild celebration among the Wildcats and the 50,000-plus UK fans who packed LP Field.

2007 • Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl // Kentucky 35, Florida State 28

It was a case of "Deja Blue" as Kentucky defeated perennial national power Florida State, 35-28, in the 2007 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

For the second consecutive year, the Wildcats claimed the Music City Bowl championship, quarterback Andre' Woodson won the Most Valuable Player Award and a heavily blue-tinted record sellout crowd of 68,661 packed LP Field in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson capped his UK career in fine fashion, completing 32 of 50 passes for 358 yards and four touchdowns. And, as was typical of the season, a variety of players contributed to UK tallying its most points ever in a bowl game.

Versatile tailback Rafael Little had one of his best games as a Wildcat, rushing for 152 yards while catching eight passes for 50 yards and a touchdown. Wide receiver Steve Johnson caught seven balls for 124 yards and two TDs. Not expected to participate because of a knee injury, determined wideout Keenan Burton played anyway and also snagged seven passes. Linebacker Wesley Woodyard checked in with his usual solid performance, a game-high 15 tackles.

Kentucky struck quickly and never trailed. Safety Roger Williams blocked a punt on the first possession of the game and tight end Jacob Tamme got the Wildcats on the board with a 14-yard touchdown catch. However, a fumble near the FSU goal line and a missed field goal ruined other UK scoring chances and the teams were tied at 14 apiece at halftime.

Like the year before, Kentucky took control in the third quarter. Woodson directed a pair of 80-yard touchdown drives, with Little scoring on a two-yard pass reception and tailback Tony Dixon running it home from four yards away.

UK made the score 35-21 in the fourth quarter on a 38-yard pass to Johnson, but just like the previous year, the opponent rallied late. FSU drove for a touchdown, got the ball back and was able to throw a bomb to the end zone on the game's final play, but cornerback David Jones knocked down the pass to preserve the victory.

The win marked some big milestones for the Kentucky football program. This was the first time since the 1950 and '51 seasons that the Wildcats notched bowl victories in consecutive years. It was the first time since 1976-77 that UK won eight games in back-to-back seasons.

2009 • AutoZone Liberty Bowl // Kentucky 25, East Carolina 19

Defensive end Ventrell Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown on a 56-yard fumble return as the Kentucky Wildcats defeated East Carolina 25-19 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl and won their third-straight bowl game for the first time in school history.

With the game tied at 19 and less than four minutes remaining, UK defensive tackle Myron Pryor knocked the ball away from an ECU running back. The 6-foot-2, 285-pound Jenkins scooped up the ball, stiff-armed a Pirate lineman, and thundered his way down the sideline towards the end zone. The senior from Columbia, S.C., pulled a double move on East Carolina quarterback Patrick Pinkney with a devastating stiff arm - knocking an earpad out of Pinkney's helmet and a high step. Jenkins said the next thing he remembered was lying in the end zone with his teammates on top of him.

Jenkins' return capped a big Kentucky comeback. East Carolina led 16-3 at halftime, but senior cornerback David Jones gave a huge lift to the Wildcats by opening the second half with a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. It set a record for the longest kickoff return in the 50-year history of the Liberty Bowl.

Kentucky's lone offensive touchdown came minutes after Jones' kickoff return. Sophomore wide receiver Kyrus Lanxter caught a pass from quarterback Mike Hartline, broke a tackle, and made a nice inside move to avoid another defender and get into the end zone for a 19-yard touchdown reception. Lones Seiber's extra point tied the game at 16 and the teams traded field goals before Jenkins' game-winning fumble rumble.

Following Jenkins' TD, Kentucky got a huge break when East Carolina accidentally downed the kickoff on its own oneyard line. With the help of two pass breakups from freshman cornerback Randall Burden, who was subbing for injured All-American Trevard Lindley, the UK defense forced a punt. UK took over with 2:34 to play and senior tailback Tony Dixon clinched the victory with six straight running plays, grinding out two first downs to run out the clock.

David Jones changed the game's momentum by opening the second half with a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, the longest return in the 50-year history of the Liberty Bowl.

Dixon led all rushers with 89 yards on a career-high 28 carries. Hartline completed 19 of 31 passes for 204 yards and a touchdown. Lanxter set career highs with five catches for 46 yards.

Kentucky's defense held up its end of the bargain with several big plays, totaling nine tackles for loss, three quarterback sacks, seven pass breakups and the game's decisive touchdown. Senior linebacker Braxton Kelley made eight tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one sack. Defensive tackle Myron Pryor went out with a bang with a career-high seven tackles, one for loss, the caused fumble and a pass breakup.

East Carolina took an early 10-0 lead in the first quarter after a Ben Hartman field goal and a 28-yard rushing touchdown by Brandon Simmons. Kentucky got on the board midway through the second quarter with a 21-yard field goal by Seiber, but 12 seconds later East Carolina increased its lead with an 80-yard touchdown pass from Pinkney to Darryl Freeney. That gave the Pirates a 16-3 lead at halftime and set the stage for UK's second-half heroics.

Jenkins was named the game's overall Most Valuable player, while Hartline and Kelley were selected UK's most outstanding offensive and defensive players, respectively. After all the bowl games were completed, Jones and Pryor were named to "All-Bowl Teams" by various college football websites in honor of their outstanding performances.

2009 • Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl // Clemson 21, Kentucky 13

The exciting duo of Derrick Locke and Randall Cobb combined for 224 all-purpose yards and senior Lones Seiber kicked two field goals, but Clemson downed the Kentucky 21-13 in what would turn out to be head coach Rich Brooks' final game on the sidelines.

Played at Nashville's LP Field before a crowd of 57,280, the game was primarily dominated by the defenses. Kentucky gained 277 total yards and Clemson's potent attack was limited to 321 total yards.

Kentucky got on the board on its first possession of the game. True freshman quarterback Morgan Newton drove the Wildcats 61 yards, the final 17 on a touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Chris Matthews. Seiber provided the rest of the scoring for the Wildcats, booting field goals of 39 and 44 yards.

Clemson, champion of the Atlantic Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference, gradually moved back into contention. The Tigers tied the score at 7-7 on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Parker to Jacoby Ford, then went ahead 14-10 at halftime with one-yard run by Jamie Harper.

Trailing 14-13 to start the fourth quarter, the Wildcats forced a three-and-out and took over at their own 13-yard line. Newton completed a short pass, but Clemson linebacker Kavell Konnor forced the ball loose and the Tigers recovered the only turnover of the game. All-America tailback C.J. Spiller scored three plays later as Clemson went up 21-13.

Kentucky tried to battle back on the following possession, keeping the drive alive on a fourth-down conversion by punter Ryan Tydlacka. Four plays later, Newton came up inches short on a fourth-and-eight scramble, and the Wildcats turned the ball over on downs. Clemson was able to run out the remaining time on the clock.

Spiller, the ACC Player of the Year, was the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite his gaudy numbers entering the game and Heisman-caliber resume, the Kentucky defense did a solid job on Spiller, allowing him just 67 rushing yards and one TD.

Sophomore linebacker Danny Trevathan led the UK defense with eight tackles, including one for loss, and caused one fumble. Junior cornerback Paul Warford and senior linebacker Micah Johnson added five tackles each.

The loss snapped Kentucky's three-game bowl winning streak, the longest in school history. Following the game, Brooks announced he probably would step down as head coach and turn the headset over to offensive head coach, and selected coach-in-waiting, Joker Phillips. Brooks finalized the decision a week later.

The game marked the second time in four seasons Kentucky played Clemson in the Music City Bowl. The Wildcats won the previous meeting in 2006, 28-20.

2010 • BBVA Compass Bowl // Pittsburgh 27, Kentucky 10

In what would eventually be his final game as a Kentucky Wildcat, UK All-American Randall Cobb earned a game-high 204 all-purpose yards, breaking the Southeastern Conference single-season record as Kentucky fell 27-10 to Big East tri-champion Pittsburgh in the 2011 BBVA Compass Bowl.

The bowl appearance was the school-record fifth consecutive for the Wildcats, who have now appeared in postseason play a total of 15 times with an 8-7 record. The bowl appearance for head coach Joker Phillips marked the first time in school history that a UK coach has gone to a bowl game in his first season on the job.

Kentucky entered the game with new faces on the coaching staff and at quarterback as co-defensive coordinator Rick Minter coached his first game with the Wildcats, while sophomore Morgan Newton gained his first start of the season at quarterback after the suspension of senior Mike Hartline.

Minter's defense performed well in the game, limiting Pittsburgh to 96 passing yards on just nine completions while Randall Burden grabbed a key interception in the first quarter. Danny Trevathan led UK in tackles with 14, while Winston Guy had eight tackles, a tackle-for-loss and a pass breakup.

On the offensive side, Newton was 21-for-36 for 211 yards, while senior Derrick Locke paced UK in rushing and receiving with 12 rushes for 71 yards and six receptions for 61 yards. Cobb ended his UK career with three rushes for 23 yards and five catches for 62 yards.

The game started with Pittsburgh receiving the ball and marching 53 yards down the field before Tino Sunseri was picked off by Burden to swing momentum to the Wildcats. After Newton completed three consecutive passes and Locke had a brilliant 28-yard rush into Pitt territory, the Wildcats made their only turnover of the game and fumbled the ball. The Panthers then went three and out and on the ensuing position, Craig McIntosh drilled a 50-yard field goal to give the Wildcats their lone lead of the game 3-0.

Pittsburgh took the lead late in the second quarter 6-3 after Dan Hutchins hit back-to-back field goals from 21 and 33 yards. The Panthers scored their first touchdown late in the quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak by Sunseri to go up 13-3 at halftime.

The teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. On Pitt's first possession of the half, Sunseri hit Brock DeCicco for a touchdown to give the Panthers their biggest lead of the game at 20-3.

The Wildcats put together a good drive later in the quarter. Newton guided the Cats 74 yards on 14 plays, capped when senior fullback Moncell Allen bulldozed in from oneyard out to cut the lead to 20-10. Pittsburgh tacked on its final touchdown in the fourth quarter.

KENTUCKY RECORDS

2016 • TaxSlayer Bowl // Georgia Tech 33, Kentucky 18

Stephen Johnson passed for 175 yards and a touchdown and rushed for a team-high 49 yards and another score, but Kentucky came up short, falling to Georgia Tech 33-18 in the TaxSlayer Bowl at EverBank Field.

Georgia Tech was able to contain Kentucky's rushing duo of Boom Williams and Benny Snell. Williams carried 11 times for 35 yards, while Snell was held to 34 yards on seven carries.

Kentucky was able to match Georgia Tech's potent offense, as the Yellow Jackets had 371 yards, while the Wildcats had 324. Tech's offense came largely on the ground, as the Yellow Jackets rushed for 266 yards, compared to Kentucky's 149. The Yellow Jackets passed for just 105 yards, while Kentucky threw for 175.

Kentucky got the ball first and the Wildcats moved the ball into Georgia Tech territory. But on a third-and-two from the Tech 49, Johnson was stripped, and Tech's P.J. Davis scooped up the fumble and returned it 38 yards for a touchdown, giving the Yellow Jackets and early 7-0 lead.

After a Kentucky punt, Georgia Tech drove 75 yards in 12 plays, but the Kentucky defense held. Tech got a 23-yard field goal by Harrison Butker, giving the Yellow Jackets a 10-0 lead.

On Kentucky's next drive, the Wildcats drove into the red zone, but the drive stalled, and Kentucky was forced into a 37-yard field goal by Austin MacGinnis, cutting the Georgia Tech lead to 10-3.

The Wildcat defense then forced Georgia Tech into a three-and-out and a punt, giving Kentucky the ball at their own 28 yard line. From there, the Wildcats marched into Georgia Tech territory and when senior running back Jojo Kemp ran right for 25 yards, the Wildcats were in business at the Georgia Tech 14. But on a fourth-and-one from the Georgia Tech five-yard line, Kemp was caught in the backfield and stopped short of the marker, giving the ball back to GT.

Georgia Tech took advantage, driving 94 yards in 11 plays and 4:29, ending with a 21-yard touchdown rush, giving the Yellow Jackets a 17-3 lead just before the half.

Kentucky seemed to have the last possession of the half, but on fourth-and-two, Grant McKinniss had his punt blocked, giving Tech one more possession and 24 seconds. As the half expired, Butker hit a 52-yard field goal to extend the Tech lead to 20-3 at the break.

Neither team could get anything going until late in the third quarter, when Tech got good field position, beginning its drive inside Kentucky territory at the 45-yard line. But after driving inside the Kentucky 25, Tech was forced into another field goal from Butker, who connected from 44 yards to increase the Yellow Jackets' advantage to 23-3.

Early in the fourth quarter, Johnson hit Dorian Baker in the corner of the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown, cutting Tech's lead to 23-10 with 13:40 to go. UK went 75 yards in 12 plays in 3:33 to score its first touchdown of the game.

Tech responded with a 12-play, 68-yard drive, covering 7:18 and ending with a 26-yard Butker field goal, extending the lead to 26-10.

But Kentucky was not finished. The Wildcats drove 75 yards in nine plays, culminating in a 21-yard scoring scamper by Johnson. Kentucky converted on a two-point conversion when Johnson hit C.J. Conrad, cutting the lead to 26-18 with 3:57 left in the game.

The Wildcats needed a stop on Georgia Tech's next drive, but the Yellow Jackets drove for a touchdown by Dedrick Mills to seal the game.

Kentucky finished the season at 7-6, marking the program's first winning season since 2009.

See Moe Go for 429 Yards

Moe Williams enjoyed the greatest day ever by a UK running back on September 23, 1995, in the Wildcats' 35-30 win at South Carolina ... Williams compiled 429 all-purpose yards (299 rushing, 57 receiving, 73 kickoff returns) — the second highest total in NCAA history ... Williams set three SEC records and broke or tied five school records ... He was named National Player of the Week by the National Football Foundation and National Offensive Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated.

TEAM RECORDS

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

Rick Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson in 1964 . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

Darryl Bishop of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 \dots One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

When first constructed in 1973 as Commonwealth Stadium, Kroger Field had a capacity of 57,800 and was completed at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols. The stadium and parking areas rest on an 86-acre plot that was once part of the UK Experimental Station Farm Grounds.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis ran for two touchdowns and threw for another TD to lead the Wildcats.

The stadium was expanded in 1999. Both end zones were enclosed, along with the construction of 40 suites, 10 in each corner of the stadium. The project was handled by HNTB of Kansas City, Mo., and Turner Construction of Cincinnati, Ohio. A total of $27.6 million was allocated for the expansion, which also included the original Mitsubishi Diamond Vision video boards, new scoreboards and additional restrooms and concession stands. The attendance capacity was 67,942 in 2012.

2015

Kroger Field was transformed into a state-of-the-art facility after a $120-million reinvention which was completed prior to the 2015 season. The project was also handled by HNTB. The outside of the stadium underwent a dramatic external facelift, receiving a modern look, but one that remained uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Kroger Field was reduced over the course of the two-year project to approximately 61,000, but the value of all remaining seats were increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses were revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches reaped the benefits of the new Kroger Field as well, as home-team facilities were built, while a new multi-purpose recruiting room hosts future Wildcats on their on-campus visits.

Seating Capacity

61,000, including the Kroger Field Suites.

UK announced its first sellout since 2010 when 62,933 fans attended the season opener vs. Louisiana Lafayette on Sept. 5, 2015.

Attendance

Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 62,382 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance in 14 of the last 16 seasons. Both the single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years.

Playing Field

UK switched from natural grass to synthetic turf for the 2015 season. Other SEC schools with a turf surface are: Arkansas, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Missouri.

The end zones and team sideline areas feature a checkerboard pattern in alternating shades of blue. It was designed to mimic the pattern of Secretariat's silks, which has been part of the football uniforms for five seasons. The school's new interlocking "UK" logo is positioned in the center of the field.

Video Boards

Video boards by Daktronics measuring at 39 by 79 feet, each, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability. The video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage. The interior seating bowl also has LED ribbon boards.

Sound System

Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

Former Kentucky linebacker Terry Clayton, who is deaf, could not hear the roar of the crowd at Kroger Field. "But," Clayton said, "I can feel the rumble!"

COVERING KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

Credential Policies

Media Credentials

Credentials for working media, videographers and photographers for UK's home football games should be requested at this website: www.sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than July 24. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible.

Season-credential privileges may be granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis – i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Credentials are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics and additional requests and affiliations are considered on an individual basis.

Credentials will not be mailed. On game day, credentials may be picked up at media will call at Kroger Field, beginning two and one-half hours prior to kickoff.

Approved parking passes will be mailed in advance.

Internet Credentials

The official site of each participating institution and representatives of contractual rights-fee paying media will be granted access. Other Internet representatives not earning credentials through the criteria listed above will be considered on a game-by-game basis, based on factors such as the length of existence of the site, amount of original copy generated, number of visitors to the site, the number of full-time employees on the site, the journalistic experience of the reporter(s) and space availability. All credential privileges are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics.

SEC Internet Real-Time Policy

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

Monday News Conference

Coach Mark Stoops will conduct a weekly press conference on most Mondays during the season.

The news conferences will be conducted in the Press Room at Kroger Field. To enter, go through Gate 1 and go left. Use the 37/38 ramp and the press room door will be on your left.

There is limited parking available on the apron outside of Gate 1. Media with a University issued parking pass may park in any lot surrounding CWS.

The weekly news conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 28 and continue on Mondays thereafter. News conferences conclude on Nov. 20. No news conference is scheduled for Oct. 9, the Monday prior to UK's open date.

The news conference schedule is generally as follows:

- Lunch is from 11:00 a.m. to 11:50 in the Recruiting Room at Kroger Field
- Coach Mark Stoops from Noon to 12:20

News conferences are live streamed on the Internet. A link is available each week on UKathletics.com.

Quotes from the news conference will be posted on UKathletics.com by mid-to-late afternoon on Monday.

Southeastern Conference Services

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Herb Vincent, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the year.

SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via teleconference. Each coach is given 10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

This is the schedule (Aug. 30-Nov. 22) for the Wednesday teleconferences, all times Eastern:

11:00 a.m.	Ed Orgeron, LSU
11:10 a.m.	Kirby Smart, Georgia
11:20 a.m.	Jim McElwain, Florida
11:30 a.m.	Derek Mason, Vanderbilt
11:40 a.m.	Nick Saban, Alabama
11:50 a.m.	Butch Jones, Tennessee

12:40 p.m.	Mark Stoops, Kentucky

12:50 p.m.Dan Mullen, Mississippi State1:00 p.m.Will Muschamp, USC1:10 p.m.Gus Malzahn, Auburn

The SEC Internet address is accessible for media and public usage at www.secsports.com. The Web site is updated continuously with information on all 14 conference schools and their sports.

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football.

Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

SEC Affiliate Network/XOS Digital

The SEC now offers access to free licensed game highlights and other newsworthy event video, including select live streams, through the SEC Affiliate Network. This annual program is exclusively available to the accredited media. It covers all teams and all sports for both men's and women's teams. Video is delivered through a customizable digital video player immediately after televised games/events conclude. Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@ xosdigital.com or at 407-670-5049.

Depending on class schedules or other commitments, most players are available to the media after practice. Tuesday or Wednesday. Post-practice interviews will be conducted at the Joe Craft Football Training Facility on Alumni Drive or by telephone. On game days, interviews will be granted only after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the studentathlete. Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

The university dormitories, dining halls, team locker and weight rooms, and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

Internet

- 1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:
 - (a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.
 - (b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.
 - (c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed halftime story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.
- 2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.
- 3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularlyscheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

For home games, live in-game statistics are available on the website. After the game, notes and quotes also will be posted on the web.

Football Practice

Other than announced exceptions, Kentucky football practices are closed to the media. Interviews are available after most practices. Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (859) 257-3838, for practice and interview times.

For practices that are open, media may not shoot video or still photos during 11-on-11 sessions of practice. Video is not to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program).

GAME SERVICES

Media Parking

Media parking at Kroger Field is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting media and/or photo credentials. The primary media parking area is Parking Structure #1, at the corner of Cooper Drive and University Drive.

Media Will Call

Approved media or photo credentials can be obtained at the Media Will Call entrance located at Gate 11. Media Will Call opens two and one-half hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

Press Box

The Central Bank Press Box is for working media members only. It is located on the south side (Alumni Drive) of Kroger Field on level five of the press box/ suite complex. Access the elevator and press box at Gate 11.

The radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and other VIP booths are located on the press box level of the stadium. The photo deck is on top of the press box.

Wireless Internet

The Central Bank Press Box offers free wireless Internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided in the press box on game day.

For further questions, contact Susan Lax, UK Associate Media Relations Director, on the second row of the main media area.

Visiting Radio

The official visiting radio broadcast network personnel should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Two phone lines (including one ISDN) will be made available in the broadcast booth, plus one phone line and two dry pair in the locker room area.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting UK Phone Services Department at (859) 257-0712.

The field-level photo area is located on the south concourse of the stadium under the press box complex.

Access from the field to the photo room will be from behind the Kentucky bench.

There will be a pregame meal and soft drinks served in the room. Flip cards will be available. Statistics and play-by-play sheets will be brought to the room during the game.

Wireless Internet and a limited number of hard-wired Internet connections (first-come, first-served) are available. Access instructions are posted in the room.

Post-Game Interviews

UK Coach Mark Stoops will conduct his postgame news conference in the media room located under the west grandstand. Media should enter from the concourse ramp 37/38. If coming from the field, exit through Field Gate 1 and circle around the concourse.

The Kentucky locker room is closed to the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the lobby of the Joe Craft Football Training Facility following the conclusion of Stoops' news conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the game in order for the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the southwest corner of Kroger Field. A press conference room is located next to the visitors' locker room. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their post-game comments from that area.

2018 Schedule

As the media guide went to press, the 2018 schedule is being determined by the Southeastern Conference.

The league schedule format will be similar to previous seasons – Kentucky will play every team in the Eastern Division; play one permanent opponent from the Western Division (Mississippi State); and one rotating opponent each year from the Western Division.

SEC NETWORK

Kentucky Athletics' television coverage was greatly enhanced by the most successful new channel launch in history when the SEC Network debuted in 62 million homes nationwide onAugust 14, 2014.

- SEC Network's television launch was the most successful new channel launch in cable history.
- 20-year agreement between ESPN and the SEC (through 2034)
- SEC Network linear channel and SEC Network + (digital component) comprise the SEC Network
- Intended to televise more than 450 live events on SEC Network each year including more than 45 football games, 100 men's basketball games, 60

women's basketball games, 75 baseball games and contests across the SEC's 21 sports

- Set out to produce more than 550 live events on digital component annually
- The SEC Network is also available in more than 50 countries throughout Europe, Middle East and Africa via ESPN Player, ESPN's sports streaming service in the region
- In addition to long-term deals with 9 of 10 top cable providers, SEC Network is now available in every multi-channel streaming subscription service currently in the marketplace – DIRECTV Now, Playstation Vue, Sling TV, Hulu and YouTube TV
- SEC Now; SEC Network's flagship news and information show hosted by Dari Nowkhah, Peter Burns. Post-football season, Laura Rutledge and Maria Taylor will also host.

- SEC Nation: Saturday morning's traveling pregame show previewing games and storylines from the fandom of game day on SEC campuses. Airs from 10 a.m. noon ET. Laura Rutledge takes over the hosting seat from Maria Taylor and joins Tim Tebow, Marcus Spears and Paul Finebaum. Ryan McGee will be a contributor.
- The venture complements the existing television agreements with CBS and ESPN, which began in 2009 and features every SEC home football and basketball game on CBS or an ESPN affiliate.

Freddie Maggard and Christi Thomas are hosts of the "Texas Roadhouse Countdown to Kickoff."

UK ON THE AIR

On the radio side, UK is in its fourth year working with JMI Sports. JMI Sports was awarded UK's multimedia marketing rights with a 15-year agreement. The JMI Sports Network also handles corporate sponsorships, stadium and arena signage and the official athletics Web site, UKAthletics.com.

- At press time, JMI Sports is finalizing the radio list for 2017-18, with nearly 70 stations expected to be on board.
- For the 2017 football season, the UK radio broadcast team consists of play-by-play announcer Tom Leach (28 years with the network, 20th season on play-by-play), former Wildcat Jeff Piecoro (15th season) as the color analyst and sideline reporter/post-game host Dick Gabriel (28th season).
- For the third straight season, the UK Radio Network is expanding its game day coverage, starting two hours prior to kickoff, in the "Texas Roadhouse Countdown to Kickoff." Christi Thomas and former UK quarterback Freddie Maggard will join Leach, Piecoro and the rest of the broadcast team in the pregame coverage.
- From the Cat Walk to Cat Talk, they will focus on the X's and O's of the game and bring a little fun to pregame in the first 30 minutes of the show.
- The show is broadcast in Lexington on WLAP-630AM, online at UKathletics.com and the UK Radio Network affiliates.
- The two-hour pregame show also will be live streamed on ukathletics.com for fans to not only listen to the "Texas Roadhouse Countdown to Kickoff" but also watch online and on the phone.

Series Record vs. UK	UGA leads 56-12-2

The Cats won seven of their last 11 games in 2016 after beginning the season 0-2, giving them seven wins and a trip to the TaxSlayer Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla.

Linebacker Jordan Jones led the team and ranked third in the SEC in tackles per game in 2016 with 8.4 (109). He also ranked sixth in the SEC in tackles for loss with 15.5.

Freshman All-American Benny Snell Jr. set six UK freshman records in 2016, including most rushing yards (1,091), most rushing touchdowns and most total touchdowns (13), most touchdowns in a game (4), most 100-yard rushing games (5) and most rushing yards by a freshman in a single game (192).

Austin MacGinnis finished the 2016 season ranked second on UK's career scoring list with 257 points. He became the first player in school history to hit two game-winning field goals in the final minute of regulation in the same season (vs. Mississippi State and Louisville).

We're going to earn everything. We're carrying on THE LEGACY. When it's all said and done, you're going to REMEMBER the names. You're going to remember US.
