PROJECTED STARTERS

Hyland earned All-SEC after tying for the second-best second-session score on the vault with a 9.9. That score was good enough for a fourth-place finish. Hyland competed in every event, going 39.1 in the all-around. She scored on the beam with a 9.8, and went 9.725 on the bars and 9.675 on the floor.

Korth tied Hyland with a vault score of 9.9, handing her All-SEC honors. Korth's 39.325 in the all-around placed her seventh overall. Korth scored in every event for UK after putting up a 9.850 on the bars, a 9.825 on the floor and a 9.750 on beam.

Kentucky in the National Rankings

Kentucky will finish the regular season ranked No. 12 in the nation with an RQS of 196.800. UK finished with the fifth-best RQS in the SEC.

First Night Session Ever

Since the Southeastern Conference Gymnastics Championships went to two sessions, the same four teams – Alabama, Florida, Georgia and LSU – have earned the top seeds in the championship event. This year, after finishing fourth in the SEC with a regional qualifying score of 196.800, Kentucky will join the evening session for the first time in program history.

Impressive All-Around Score

Mollie Korth won the all-around at the New Hampshire Quad Meet with a 39.625, matching her best all-around score ever. Korth tied the seventh-highest score in program history and holds the highest score from any Wildcat other than NCAA Champion Jenny Hansen. Junior Alex Hyland finished second in the all-around with a 39.400.

First Career Event Win

Hailey Poland came up with a 9.875 on the beam to earn the first event title of her career. She tied her career best at Illinois State with a 9.875.

Senior Night Career High

Katie Carlisle made her last meet in Memorial Coliseum count. She tied her bars career high against Ohio State with a 9.875, and has hit that mark two other times.

Another All-Around Win

In Kentucky's team win over Ohio State, Mollie Korth picked up her 11th career all-around title in just her second season at UK. Korth posted a 39.475 and also earned wins on vault (9.875) and bars (9.925).

Hyland Season High on Beam and Another Beam Win

Against the Buckeyes, Alex Hyland won her 17th beam title of her career with her 9.925. Hyland also split the floor title with Mollie Korth after a 9.875.

Tying the Second-Best Score Ever

In an SEC win over Missouri, UK hit above 197 for just the third time in program history. Kentucky's score of 197.100 tied the second-highest score in program history and was matched against Auburn last season at home. UK's highest score is a 197.475 in a home win over Alabama in 2017. The Wildcats' previous high score this season was a 196.950 at Arkansas. That score still remains tied for the highest score on the road.

Impressive All-Around Night for Hyland

Junior Alex Hyland won the all-around as the only competitor for UK with a 39.575 against Missouri. Her all-around score was the eighth-best all-around score in program history. Only former NCAA National Champion Jenny Hansen and sophomore Mollie Korth have hit that mark or higher. Hyland earned event wins on the vault (9.875), beam (9.875) and floor (9.925) and finished second the bars (9.9).

All-Around and Beam Wins

At Alabama, Mollie Korth earned her 10th all-around title of her career and her second against Alabama with a 39.550. Korth's all-around score was tied the ninth-best score in program history. Alex Hyland won her 15th beam title against the Crimson Tide with a season high score of 9.925.

Individual Titles

Mollie Korth won her second-straight all-around title at Florida after coming up with a 39.5. Korth also won the vault title with a 9.925, splitting the title with Rachel Slocum of 9.925.

Tying the Third-best Score in Program History

Kentucky posted a 196.950 at its win at Arkansas, the third-best in program history and third-best in SEC competition. UK

HEAD COACH TIM GARRISON

Tim Garrison enters his seventh season as the University of Kentucky gymnastics head coach after leading the team to unprecedented success in his first six seasons.

In Garrison's most recent season, he led the Cats back to a NCAA Regional once again and secured a No. 2 seed for the first time in program history after a historic Regional Qualifying score of 196.845 to finish No. 12 in the nation. Garrison coached freshman Mollie Korth, who won SEC Freshman of the Year and became an all-around All-American at the NCAA Championships. Korth, along with sophomore Alex Hyland, earned regular season All-America honors as well. Hyland added an SEC Beam title to her regular season All-America honors.

Kentucky's impressive regular season saw wins over multiple SEC opponents, including Alabama. The Cats put up a program record score of 197.475 in the first ever win over Crimson Tide. The win was paced by a great 49.475 on the floor.

In 2016, Garrison took the Wildcats to the NCAA Tuscaloosa Regional, where the Wildcats finished fourth as a team with a score of 195.725. Garrison saw two student-athletes move onto the NCAA Championships in Alex Hyland and Sidney Dukes. Hyland was the all-around champion of the regional after posting a meet-best 39.175 for the title, while Dukes scored a 39.125, earning the final all-around spot.

At the NCAA Championships, Garrison coached his first All-America nominee. Dukes executed a nearly flawless routine en route to a 9.8875, which was the fourth-highest in the session, giving her All-America status. Dukes score was the third highest score on the beam for a UK gymnast all-time at the NCAA semifinals, just behind UK great Jenny Hansen.

Garrison continues to post impressive scores. The Wildcats two top-five scores in program history during 2016, including a 196.65 inside of Memorial Coliseum in a meet against Florida.

In 2015, Garrison led the Wildcats a 5-3 home record while posting some of the best scores for UK to date. On Mar. 6, 2015, Garrison led the team to post a 196.575 team score - good for second all-time in Kentucky history. The Wildcats flourished during 2015 in both uneven bars and beam, with Garrison guiding the team to the second and fifth best results in school history, respectively.

Under Garrison's tutelage, Sydney Waltz and Cori Rechenmacher became Kentucky's first two SEC All-Freshmen team selections. Additionally, Waltz became the first Wildcat to compete in the NCAA Championships as an all-arounder since Aronda Primault did so in 2002. Waltz finished 15th overall, while taking 11th place on floor. Garrison also added two All-SEC selections in Waltz and then-sophomore Taylor Puryear during the 2015 campaign.

In 2014, Garrison led the Wildcats to a 6-1 home record, its best mark at Memorial Coliseum since 1991, a school-record NCAA Regional score for the second consecutive season and an individual appearance at the NCAA Championships.

With an upset win over No. 11 Auburn, UK scored a 196.275, the fifth-best team score in program history. The Wildccats totaled two scores that mark in the top 10 all-time and four in the top 20 in school history.

Along with a school-record NCAA Regional score of 195.925, senior Audrey Harrison tied for the win on balance beam. The win qualified Harrison for the NCAA Championships, marking UK's first appearance at the national championship meet since 2010.

HEAD COACH TIM GARRISON

Kentucky had a record-setting 2013 campaign that saw numerous school records fall. UK earned a ninth-consecutive NCAA Regional bid with a school-record regional qualifying score of 196.06 after breaking the team best score twice. A 196.775 in the regular season finale at Penn State bested the previous high score, set earlier in the season at Ball State.

The Wildcats notched three wins against SEC opponents, the most in program history and earned a 3-3-1 league mark, also a school best. All three wins were against teams ranked in the top 15, with two over top-nine foes. In postseason play, UK tallied the program's highest-ever NCAA Regional team score of 195.575 and finished fourth at the regional.

The Kentucky gymnastics team wrapped up a historic 2013 season by claiming the prestigious "Team of the Year Award" at the annual CATSPY Awards along with two individual awards. Garrison was named Coach of the Year alongside baseball coach Gary Henderson and rifle coach Harry Mullins, while sophomore Shannon Mitchell picked up the Scratch Award, given to the top non-scholarship student-athlete.

The Wildcats finished 2012 with three consecutive scores of 195.875 or higher, Kentucky's best-ever three meet stretch. UK also sealed the first winning regular season since 2008 in Garrison's first campaign.

Garrison guided the Wildcats to a final No. 25 ranking with a National Qualifying Score of 390.240 in 2012. The ranking made Garrison the first head coach in school history to take his team to a top-25 final ranking in his first season.

The Wildcats earned back-to-back victories over top-25 teams when UK took down Southeastern Conference foe Auburn at home and highly ranked Illinois on the road midway through the season. The Wildcats also posted just the 10th score of 196 or higher in school history with a 196.025 against George Washington and Ball State during Garrison's inaugural season.

Garrison arrived at UK after helping the Huskers reach new heights with two NCAA Super Six appearances and two Big 12 Conference championships. The native of Conroe, Texas, served as the Huskers' vault, floor exercise and strength and conditioning coach, while also helping in all facets of recruiting.

In his five years at Nebraska, Garrison was responsible for producing 10 NCAA All-Americans, while his vault and floor teams consistently ranked as one of the top-10 teams in the nation. In 2011, Garrison helped lead the Huskers back to the NCAA Super Six Finals, where they matched their best finish in school history, finishing fourth. Two of Garrison's vault performers ended the individual finals in the top five, while two other gymnasts were in the top 12 on floor.

In his first year on the job in Lincoln in 2007, Garrison's vault team finished sixth in the nation, while the floor squad was in the top five of the final rankings. In 2009, Nebraska was ranked sixth nationally on floor and in 2010 the Huskers were fifth on vault. Garrison's vault and floor teams had an excellent season in 2011 with the Huskers finishing among the nation's best on vault (third) and floor (seventh). Nebraska made the NCAA Tournament in each of Garrison's five years, advancing to nationals three times.

Prior to Nebraska, Garrison developed a reputation as one of the most successful club coaches in the country, serving as a head coach for SCEGA Gymnastics in Temecula, Calif., for 10 years. SCEGA Gymnastics is one of the largest and most thriving gymnastics teams in the nation. While with SCEGA, Garrison produced 27 national champions, 10 Junior Olympic National Team members and four Elite National Team members. For his efforts, Garrison was named Coach of the Year for Southern California by USA Gymnastics a impressive five times, including four consecutive from 2001-04.

In 2001, Garrison coached Rachel Tidd to the World Championships in Ghent, Belgium, where she captured a team bronze medal and finished eighth on beam. A year earlier, Garrison coached Tidd to a 10th-place showing in the 2000 U.S. Olympic Trials.

Garrison spent three years at SCATS Gymnastics in Huntington Beach, Calif., where he was responsible for conditioning and meet preparation for a group of optional and compulsory gymnasts. During his time there, Garrison produced a national qualifier every year at both the Junior Olympic National Championships and the Elite Classic competitions. Garrison also coached at Karolyi's Gymnastics in Houston, Texas, alongside famed former U.S. Olympic Team coach Bela Karolyi.

Garrison and his wife, Rachel, served as the directors for the Nebraska School of Gymnastics during their time in Lincoln. The duo successfully increased the enrollment in the program from 40 participants to over 170 members. Garrison also was named the USAG Coach of the Year in 2009 for Nebraska.

Garrison graduated from California State University at Fullerton in 1995 with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

ASSISTANT COACH CHUCK DICKERSON

Chuck Dickerson enters his 11th season with the Kentucky gymnastics program, where he coaches vault and floor as a key component of head coach Tim Garrison's staff.

Dickerson was retained as an assistant coach when Garrison arrived in Lexington before the 2012 season.

Dickerson, who was the 2010 Gymnastics Assistant Coach of the Year for the central region by the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches, has enjoyed eight very successful seasons as an assistant coach for Kentucky.

In Dickerson's most recent season, he helped Kentucky set multiple records and win several awards. He played a key role in helping freshman Mollie Korth win SEC Freshman of the Year and become an all-around All-American. The team's vault Regional Qualifying Score was 49.245, the eighth-highest in the nation. At Maryland, the team put up a 49.425 on the vault, the highest in school history.

In 2016, Dickerson was instrumental in helping the Wildcats score the second and third best scores in program history. At Arkansas, the team put up a score of 196.700, helped by a 49.175 on vault. Two Wildcats tied career best marks en route to the highest team vault score. Katie Stuart tied her career-best 9.9, and Aubree Rosa tied her all-time best at 9.875. At Florida, UK put up a 196.65, helped by a season-best 49.325.

In 2015, Dickerson continued to play a key role in Kentucky's success, as he helped guide UK to a top-10 finish for the program all-time with a 49.300 team score on floor at the SEC championships. Dickerson also continued to be instrumental on the vault, helping NCAA qualifier Sydney Waltz achieve the fifth highest vault score in Kentucky's history.

In 2014, Dickerson helped lead the Wildcats to a 6-1 home record, its best mark at Memorial Coliseum since 1991, a school-record NCAA Regional score for the second consecutive season and an individual appearance at the NCAA Championships.

With an upset win over No. 11 Auburn, UK scored a 196.275, the fifth-best team score in program history. In the win, Kentucky's floor team, which Dickerson oversees, scored a 49.650, the highest score on the event in program history. One of the best teams on floor in the country in 2014, Dickerson coached UK to three scores on floor that rank in the top four in program history.

Dickerson previously coached vault and uneven bars for the Wildcats, guiding UK to a school-record team score on vault of 49.4, while the Wildcats tied a school record team-score on bars with a 49.325.

Dickerson helped the UK gymnastics team steadily improve its efforts on the vault apparatus since his arrival in Lexington in 2008. Kentucky has ranked among the top 18 schools on the event each season under Dickerson. The Wildcats set a school record with a 49.150 regional qualifying score on vault in 2009 while in 2010 then-sophomore Whitney Rose (Frisco, Texas) became UK's first gymnast to qualify for nationals since 2006 when she scored a 9.900 to tie for first place.

In 2009, Dickerson coached the vault squad to top-20 status all year long, peaking at No. 7. It was the second year in a row the vault line-up finished the year top 15. One of the lead vaulters, Emily Green, earned a 9.950, the first mark of that caliber on vault since 2003. Green dominated the event averaging a 9.85. Also grabbing recognition for her talent was Whitney Rose who also became solid vault worker and was named the SEC Freshman of the Year.

With over 25 years of coaching experience, Dickerson is able to assist the Wildcats in recruiting top talent. In 2008, Dickerson helped sign fellow Tyler, Texas, native Storey Morris, Rose of Frisco, Texas, the 2008 Texas State vault and all-around champion, and three-time national bar champion Jennifer Taylor of Tulsa, Okla.

Since 2004, the Tyler, Texas, native had been working in his hometown at Texas East Gymnastics where he coached former UK gymnast, Storey Morris. In both 2006 and 2007, he qualified a gymnast for the USA Championships to go along with his numerous national qualifiers in his four-year span.

Prior to his time at Texas East, Dickerson spent eight years at Rowland/Ballard Gymnastics in Kingwood, Texas. While there, he had seven athletes receive Division I scholarships and sent 15 on to the national championships. In 2002, he earned the great honor of being voted the Texas USA Gymnastics Coach of the Year by his peers.

Early on in his career, Dickerson spent 10 years working under famed coach Bela Karolyi. In his coaching career, he has coached three national champions.

Dickerson resides in Lexington.

ASSISTANT COACH RACHEL GARRISON

Rachel Garrison is in her third year at the University of Kentucky. She joined the Kentucky gymnastics staff in 2015 as an assistant coach following a four year period volunteering with the program, working with UK since 2011.

Garrison's coaching experience spans 20 years, where she developed gymnasts ranging from beginners to level 10 and elite status gymnasts.

Prior to her time as a volunteer assistant for the Wildcats, Garrison served as a program director at the Nebraska School of Gymnastics in Lincoln, Neb., for five years. While in Lincoln, Garrison guided gymnasts to qualify for Junior Olympic nationals in each of her five years. Garrison also produced a regional beam champion during her tenure with the School of Gymnastics. She also played a critical role in recruitment, successfully increasing the enrollment in the program from 40 participants to over 170 members.

Before heading to Nebraska, Garrison spent over a decade coaching at multiple clubs across California, with the most prominent being SCEGA in Temecula, Calif.

Garrison is a graduate of San Diego State University, where she earned her Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology in 1999 while specializing in pre-physical therapy.

Rachel is married to and resides with Kentucky gymnastics head coach Tim Garrison.
