SHIVELY FIELD AT CLIFF HAGAN STADIUM

The Kentucky baseball team calls Shively Field at Cliff Hagan Stadium home since 1979, with renovations done in 2002 and again following the 2006 Southeastern Conference Championship season that saw the only two NCAA Lexington Regionals ever played at the facility.

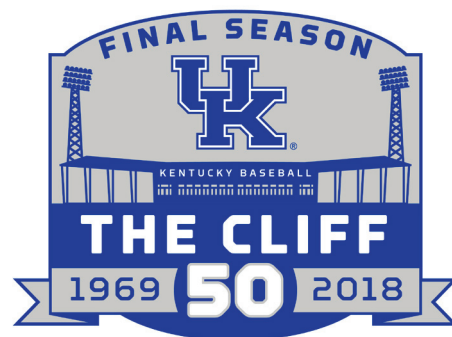

A new era began in Kentucky baseball history in 2002 as then head coach Keith Madison and the Wildcats moved into their new lair, the $4.2 million Shively Field at Cliff Hagan Stadium. The state-of-the-art baseball complex replaced the twice-renovated facility that UK baseball had called home since 1969, when it was built as part of the Bernie A Shively Sports Center. In 1990, the facility underwent a $520,000 renovation to refurbish the stadium.

After the 2006 SEC Championship season, the UK athletic administration decided to invest in exterior improvements of Cliff Hagan. Among the improvements which debuted during the 2007 season, was a new state-of-the-art video board, which enhances the viewing experience for fans.

Also added during the 2007 offseason was a 150 capacity deck in the parking lot behind right field. The outfield fence was also lowered and padded to give fans a clear view of the diamond from anywhere in the outfield parking lot.

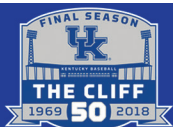

In 2017, the Cats earned the opportunity to host an NCAA Regional and were rewarded with record crowds at the stadium. In the winner-take-all showdown with NC State on June 5, a single-game record 5,005 fans poured into the stadium, waiting out a thunderstorm that dumped torrential rain and included heavy lightning and thunder. The Cats staged a come-from-behind victory to advance to the program's first-ever Super Regional.

While Cliff Hagan Stadium is a beautiful place to call home, in Fall 2018 the Wildcats will move into a new $49 million state-of-the-art facility on par with its peers in the Southeastern Conference. The new stadium – which is yet to be named – will be located off Alumni Drive between the new Kentucky Football Training Facility and the Wendell and Vickie Bell Soccer Complex, adding to the cluster of UK Athletics facilities in the area.
