NEED TO KNOW

Kentucky is tasked with replacing 94.0% of its scoring from a season ago, the most of the John Calipari era

The NCAA committed to a 27-game schedule for all men's basketball teams, which includes one multi-team event. The Wildcats will play just 14 home games in 2020-21, the fewest since hosting 13 in 2003-04

UK was picked to finish second in the SEC by the league's media. Brandon Boston Jr. was picked to the All-SEC First Team and Olivier Sarr was tabbed to the second team

Kentucky will begin the year ranked in the top 10 for the 11th time in 12 seasons under Calipari in the AP Top 25

Four Wildcats were named to positional award Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame preseason watch lists: Brandon Boston Jr. (small forward), Terrence Clarke (shooting guard), Isaiah Jackson (power forward), Olivier Sarr (center)

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials will open 14 days prior to the contest and close 7 days prior to game day online at sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Communications and Public Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media via Zoom. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews via Zoom.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The Communications and Public Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player speaks to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's Zoom press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are available via Zoom.

Bluegrass Showcase Schedule Adjusted

The schedule for the Bluegrass Showcase was adjusted after Detroit Mercy had to pull out of the multi-team event due to COVID-19 safety protocols.

As previously scheduled, UK will play Morehead State on Wednesday at 6 p.m. in Rupp Arena (SEC Network) and Richmond on Sunday at 1 p.m. in Rupp Arena (ESPN). Friday's game vs. Detroit Mercy has been postponed. The Titans will not participate in any games this week.

The teams, in coordination with the Gazelle Group, will attempt to reschedule the games later in the season between the participating schools. The schedule for this week's Bluegrass Showcase is now as follows:

Wednesday at 6 p.m. – Morehead State at Kentucky (SEC Network)

Friday at 6 p.m. – Richmond vs. Morehead State

Sunday at 1 p.m. – Richmond at Kentucky (ESPN)

Current tickets for Kentucky's games on Wednesday and Sunday will remain in place. Ticket information for Friday's game between Richmond and Morehead State will be announced once those details are finalized, and ticket holders will receive further communication by email regarding the status of Friday's tickets.

Welcome Back, Coach Spradlin

A familiar face will roam the opposing sideline when Kentucky takes on Morehead State on Wednesday in the opening game of the Bluegrass Showcase.

Morehead State head coach Preston Spradlin was on Calipari's staff for five seasons, first as a graduate assistant (2010-11) and then as the assistant director of basketball operations (2012-14). His duties included film breakdown, creating and maintaining playbooks, assisting with opponent scouting, and day-to-day operations.

In four seasons as the head coach at Morehead State, Spradlin is 46-69 overall and finished second in the Ohio Valley Conference during his first season at the helm.

It will be the first time Calipari and Spradlin have gone head-to-head in a regular-season contest. The two met Oct. 30, 2017, for an exhibition game for charity. UK won that game by a 92-67 margin.

Kentucky in Season Openers

Now in its 119th season of college basketball, Kentucky is 97-20 all-time in season openers entering 2020-21 (the Wildcats did not have a schedule in 1952-53 due to NCAA suspension).

UK has won 10 of 11 in season openers under John Calipari and the program is a perfect 11-0 in home openers in Rupp Arena under Calipari. Kentucky's lone season-opening loss in the Calipari era was in 2018-19, which snapped a nine-game winning streak that began when Calipari took the job. Prior to that loss, Calipari-coached teams had won 14 straight regular-season openers dating back to his time at Memphis.

Included in Kentucky's 97-20 all-time season-opening record was a 34-game winning streak from the 1927-28 season to the 1961-62 season.

Calipari Does Not Expect Brooks to Play

Sophomore forward Keion Brooks Jr. -- the only returning scholarship player who played a season ago -- is officially day-to-day with a leg injury, but Kentucky head coach John Calipari all but ruled him out on Monday in a videoconference with reporters.

"I do not believe he'll be here the first week," Calipari said. "It's day-to-day kind of stuff, but he hasn't done live stuff yet. So, we've gotta get him doing live stuff even though he's conditioning and all the other stuff. Until he's in there, I don't feel comfortable."

With 10 new players and Riley Welch and Brennan Canada -- both walks-ons -- serving as the only other two players who appeared in a game last season, Kentucky will likely trot out an entirely different team than a season ago this week.

Brooks averaged 4.5 points and 3.2 rebounds in 31 games, including six starts, in 2019-20.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky will have an opportunity to add to its impressive record vs. local competition under John Calipari when it takes on Morehead State in the season opener.

UK is 19-2 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm, including an 11-2 mark vs. Louisville. Two of the victories over the Cardinals were in postseason play. UK's four-game winning streak was snapped in 2016-17 but the Wildcats have won all six meetings played in Rupp Arena, including a 29-point blowout in 2017-18, the third-biggest margin of victory in the history of the series. Louisville's two wins are by a combined six points.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Calipari took over at UK:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 31, 2010 - UK won 78-63 at the KFC Yum! Center
- Dec. 31, 2011 - UK won 69-62 at Rupp Arena

- Dec. 28, 2013 - UK won 73-66 at Rupp Arena
- March 28, 2014 - UK won 74-69 at Lucas Oil Stadium (NCAA Sweet 16 in Indianapolis)

Boston, Sarr Tapped Preseason All-SEC by Media, Coaches

Kentucky men's basketball newcomers Brandon Boston Jr. and Olivier Sarr were selected to the two preseason All-Southeastern Conference squads by league and national media and the SEC coaches.

Boston and Sarr earned identical honors from the league and the coaches. Boston, a freshman, was an All-SEC First Team pick and Sarr, a senior transfer from Wake Forest, was an All-SEC Second Team selection. Boston picked up votes for SEC Player of the Year in the media poll.

While noteworthy, preseason honors don't always tell the story of the season. Neither Immanuel Quickley nor Nick Richards were picked for the preseason media All-SEC teams or the coaches' All-SEC picks a season ago. Quickley played his way to the coaches' 2020 choice for SEC Player of the Year while making the media's All-SEC First Team, and Richards was an All-SEC First Team selection by both.

Kentucky has featured at least one player on one of the two end-of-the-season All-SEC teams (media or coaches) since 2006-07.

Wildcats are Underdogs?!

For just the second time in 12 seasons under John Calipari and the first since 2010-11, a season that culminated in a Final Four berth, the Wildcats were not picked to win the regular-season league crown. That preseason honor this season goes to the Tennessee Volunteers, who the media predicted will unseat the Wildcats, the defending SEC champions, in 2020-21.

In most seasons, UK has lived up to the high expectations, having won six regular-season SEC crowns in the Calipari era and a league-high 49 overall after posting a 15-3 record last season. The Wildcats also own six SEC Tournament titles under Calipari.

Each school selected media members that cover their team and additional media from across the nation were selected by the conference office to comprise the voting panel. Points were compiled on a 14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. Ties were not broken.

Four Players on National Watch Lists

Four Wildcats -- Brandon Boston Jr., Terrence Clarke, Isaiah Jackson and Olivier Sarr -- are on major national watch lists to begin the season.

Boston and Clarke are two of 50 players on the Naismith Trophy preseason watch list, awarded annually to the national player of the year by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. Boston is also one of 20 players on the National Association of Basketball Coaches' national player of the year honor.

Four Wildcats are on preseason watch lists for the positional player of the year awards presented by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Boston is on the list for the Julius Erving Award (best small forward), Clarke is nominated for the Jerry West Award (best shooting guard), Jackson is tabbed to the Karl Malone Award watch list (best power forward) and Sarr is among the candidates for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar award (best center).

Kentucky Starts Season in Top 10

Despite having the most inexperienced roster in the John Calipari era, Kentucky will begin the season among the preseason top 10 in both the Associated Press Top 25 and the USA Today Coaches Poll. The Wildcats were tabbed No. 10 in the AP Top 25 and No. 9 in the Coaches Poll.

Calipari has had a team ranked among the top 11 in the two preseason polls in all 12 seasons at the helm.

Five Kentucky opponents enter the 2020-21 season ranked in one of the two major polls. Kansas, Tennessee, UCLA and Texas are ranked in both polls, and Alabama made the cut in the USA Today Coaches Poll. Other UK opponents receiving votes in at least one of the polls are Louisville, Florida, LSU, Richmond, Arkansas and Auburn.

Based on the two preseason polls, UK will have seven total matchups in 2020-21 against opponents ranked in the top 25 of either the AP Top 25 or USA Today Coaches Poll.

Gonzaga will begin the season at the top of the AP Top 25 and Baylor is ranked No. 1 in the USA Today Coaches Poll.

Kentucky is the Southeastern Conference's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats are the most dominant team in the league, recording a 1,012-284 mark (.781) in regular-season conference play. Only two other teams have won more than 750 regular-season SEC games (Alabama and Tennessee), and no other team owns a better winning percentage.

- Kentucky has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.3 losses per season in 87 seasons in the SEC
- UK has won 49 SEC regular-season titles and 31 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 16 of the last 28 SEC Tournaments
- Kentucky has captured at least a share of six of the last 11 SEC regular-season championships under John Calipari
- UK has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in eight of Calipari's 11 seasons, winning six times (the 2020 tournament was not played due to the COVID-19 pandemic)
- Kentucky won its 1,000th game in SEC regular-season action vs. Alabama on Jan. 11, 2020. Kansas has won 1,000 conference games when combining its records in the Big 6, Big 7, Big 8 and Big 12, but no other team in the country had won 1,000 or more regular-season league games in one conference alone
- Seven teams made the 2019 NCAA Tournament field, tied for the second most of any league in the country
- The SEC had two teams in the Elite Eight, one in the Final Four and went 12-7 in NCAA Tournament games in 2019
- The SEC has held its own in the annual Big 12/SEC Challenge. The conferences are 20-20 over the last four seasons in the yearly January showdown
- Twelve SEC schools ranked in the top 100 and six in the top 50 in the final 2020 NCAA Net Evaluation Tool rankings

NOTES

Kentucky's Schedule Packs a Punch

Kentucky's schedule is always among the toughest in the country and this season will certainly be no different.

UK's nonconference slate alone will see the Wildcats play Kansas in the Champions Classic, features non-conference games against Atlantic Coast Conference foes Georgia Tech (Dec. 6 in Atlanta), Notre Dame (Dec. 12 in Rupp Arena) and Louisville (Dec. 26 at the KFC Yum! Center), UCLA (Dec. 19) as a part of the CBS Sports Classic, and sees the Wildcats host Texas on Jan. 30 in the SEC/Big 12 Challenge.

Four Kentucky opponents enter the 2020-21 season ranked in the Associated Press Top 25, including three nonconference opponents in Kansas (No. 6), Texas (No. 19) and UCLA (No. 22). Louisville and Richmond sit just outside of the top 25 and are receiving votes to begin the season.

Tennessee, at No. 12, is the other Southeastern Conference program ranked among the AP Top 25 to begin the season. Four more teams in LSU, Florida, Alabama and Auburn sit just outside the top 25 and received votes. Kentucky plays Tennessee, Florida, Alabama and Auburn twice. Based on preseason polls, UK will have five total matchups in 2020-21 against top-25 opponents.

UK's 2020-21 opponents combined to go 399-286 last season, a .582 winning percentage. Eight of the Wildcats' 22 total competitors ranked in the top 50 of the NCAA Evaluation Tool.

Adhering to the NCAA Division I Council's framework for scheduling, UK will play in 24 regular-season games with one three-game multi-team event, resulting in 27 total games (pending a rescheduling with Detroit Mercy) before postseason play. The Wildcats will play nine nonconference opponents to go along with 18 SEC matchups. SEC play begins Dec. 29.

The league has built-in make-up dates scheduled for March 5-7 in case games are postponed due to COVID-19 safety protocols.

UK Won 49th SEC Regular-Season Crown in 2019-20

Kentucky won the 2020 Southeastern Conference regular-season championship in 2019-20, the 49th in school history and the sixth in 11 seasons under head coach John Calipari.

The Wildcats wrapped up the title on Feb. 29 with a victory over Auburn and with three games to spare. With a season-ending victory at Florida, UK finished the season three games ahead of second place.

Kentucky's 49 SEC titles are 38 more than the next-closest school (LSU with 11) and nearly as many as the rest of the league has combined (53). It's worth noting UK would have 50 titles had the 1988 championship not been vacated by the league due to violations.

Although it was UK's sixth in 11 seasons under Calipari, it snapped a minor two-season drought. The last regular-season SEC title was in 2017.

The championship marked Calipari's 16th all-time regular-season conference crown, including his time at Memphis and UMass. Including his 15 league tournament titles, Calipari has 31 combined conference championships in his career. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (35 titles) among all active coaches. All-time, only the great Adolph Rupp (41) and Few have more.

Had there been an NCAA Tournament, Kentucky would have surely made its 59th all-time appearance and done so as one of the tournament favorites. The Wildcats were one of the hottest teams in the country down the stretch. Although no one will ever know what the bracket would have looked like on Selection Sunday, there's a good chance UK would have been a four seed are better.

Kentucky finished at No. 21 in the NCAA Evaluation Tool's final rankings, but the Wildcats had an impressive 9-3 record vs. quadrant one teams, including solid wins vs. Michigan State at a neutral site, Louisville and Auburn at home, and Texas Tech and Florida on the road. UK's 14-5 record vs. both quadrant one and two teams was among the best winning percentages in the country. Kentucky was also 4-2 vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams at the time of the game.

The Wildcats were in every game in 2019-20, something few other teams can say. UK lost its six games by a combined 32 points, an average margin of 5.3 points. Of UK's six losses, five were to teams in the top two quadrants.

What could have ultimately separated UK from its competition was its impressive play on the road. Kentucky finished the season 8-2 in true road games, including 3-1 during a gauntlet that included four straight Saturday road games vs. Arkansas, Texas Tech, Auburn and Tennessee and an 18-point comeback victory at Florida. UK's .800 winning percentage on the road ranked as the sixth-best mark in the country. The only five teams with better winning percentages were ranked 1-5 in the final NET.

Although the NCAA doesn't use the a team's recent record as a measuring tool when evaluating teams, Kentucky was 8-2 over the last 10 games and 17-3 over the last 20.

Even by UK Standards, This is a Major Roster Overhaul

With an unmatched ability to prepare and produce players for the NBA Draft, Kentucky is used to major roster overhauls on an annual basis. But the one the Wildcats are facing in 2020-21 may be their most challenging yet.

UK said farewell to nine players, five starters and eight of the top nine scorers from the 2019-20 roster. Nick Richards, Immanuel Quickley, Ashton Hagans, EJ Montgomery and Tyrese Maxey all forfeited their remaining eligibility and declared for the NBA Draft, with three of them earning selection in the Nov. 18 draft. Nate Sestina's college eligibility expired, Johnny Juzang transferred, Ben Jordan returned to baseball full time and Kahlil Whitney departed for a professional career midseason.

That leaves the Wildcats with just one scholarship player who played in 2019-20: Keion Brooks Jr., who averaged 4.5 points and 3.2 rebounds in 31 games, including six starts. And even he might not be available for the opening week with a leg injury suffered this preseason.

UK will be tasked with replacing 94% of its scoring from last season, 98.6% of its minutes, 84.4% of its rebounds, 92.0% of its assists and 91.5% of its blocks. It's the highest loss of points and assists production of the Calipari era, and according to a recent NCAA survey of communications directors across the country, UK is replacing a higher scoring percentage than any other school in the country. Only the 2012-13 Kentucky team, which went to the NIT after the 2011-12 won the national title, had to replace more minutes.

Dontaie Allen, a highly touted signee in the 2019 class, is also back but redshirted last season as he recovered from a knee injury from high school. Zan Payne is fully recovered from a high school knee injury that prevented him from playing his first two seasons.

Walk-ons Brennan Canada and Riley Welch will also return.

The good news: Help is on the way ...

UK Freshman Class Ranked No. 1

If it's not an annual certainty at this point, it's at least become a yearly expectation for John Calipari to reel in a top-ranked recruiting class every season. He's only done it in every year at Kentucky.

This year's group is no exception.

The seven-man class includes guards Devin Askew, Brandon Boston Jr., Terrence Clarke and Cam'Ron Fletcher and forwards Isaiah Jackson and Lance Ware and walk-on Kareem Watkins. The Wildcats also added three high-impact transfers (more on them to follow), but they are not included in the official signing class rankings.

As for those rankings, UK finished atop them all. ESPN, 247Sports and Rivals each tabbed the Wildcats' haul the No. 1 class in their final team rankings. The Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking, also ranked it the top class in the country.

With two players rated consensus top-10, five-star prospects and all six of the scholarship signees tabbed four- or five-star players, UK formed its 12th straight top-three signing class under Calipari. Of those 12 classes, eight have been tabbed No. 1 in the final rankings by at least one of the three major recruiting services, the best mark of any team and coach.

Boston, a consensus five-star prospect, is ranked the highest in UK's class. The 6-foot-7 guard out of Norcross, Georgia, is tabbed as high as No. 5 in the Rivals rankings. Boston is

NOTES

UK's highest rated signee since Skal Labissiere in 2015 (No. 1 in Rivals, No. 2 in ESPN and 247Sports).

Clarke, a 6-7 guard, is just behind Boston in the rankings. The Boston native is also a consensus five star and is ranked as high as No. 8 by Rivals.

Also picking up five-star ratings by at least one of the three major services were Askew, who earned the elite status from ESPN, and Jackson, who earned the distinction from Rivals Fletcher and forward Ware were consensus four-star prospects.

Three (Transfers) is More

Kentucky's reinforcements won't just be freshmen; the Wildcats have added three high-impact transfers.

UK added Wake Forest forward Olivier Sarr, Creighton guard Davion Mintz and Rhode Island forward Jacob Toppin. Mintz will have immediate eligibility as a graduate transfer and waivers for Sarr and Toppin for immediate eligibility were both granted by the NCAA.

Sarr, at 7-feet, 255 pounds, enjoyed a breakthrough season in 2019-20 at Wake Forest, averaging 13.7 points, 9.0 rebounds and 1.2 blocks per game. He shot 52.7% from the floor, made the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Third Team and was the runner-up for the 2020 ACC Most Improved Player award.

Sarr is widely regarded as one of the nation's top transfers. He totaled 664 points, 496 rebounds and 81 blocks with 31 starts in three seasons at Wake Forest. He considered entering the NBA Draft before the coaching change in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Sarr should provide UK with an elite rim protector with considerable size and good athleticism.

A native of Bordeaux, France, Sarr blossomed in his third season with the Demon Deacons. He led the team with 11 double-doubles and 33 blocks, scored in double figures in 23 games and was a two-time ACC Player of the Week. Sarr was particularly good late in conference play, finishing on a six-game double-figure scoring run with three double-doubles.

A 6-3 guard out of Creighton, Mintz played in 97 games with 79 starts for the Bluejays. He is expected to add valuable leadership, experience and depth, having totaled more than 100 assists in each of his last two active seasons -- 259 total in his three-year career -- with a 35.0% mark from behind the 3-point line.

Mintz redshirted in 2019-20 after battling an ankle injury in the preseason and then re-aggravating it in practice upon his return, but he started all but one game in the previous two seasons. He started all 35 games for Creighton in 2018-19, averaging 9.7 points, 3.0 assists and 3.0 rebounds in 28.8 minutes per game. Mintz was regarded as the Bluejays' best defender and ranked second on the team with 40 steals.

In his junior season, Mintz scored in double figures in 16 games with a career high of 21 points vs. No. 21 Marquette. He also played all 45 minutes vs. No. 14 Villanova and totaled 19 points, eight rebounds and four assists. He was expected to be a key part of the 2019-20 Creighton squad that went 24-7 and won a share of the Big East title. As a sophomore, Mintz led the Big East and ranked 15th nationally with a 2.83 assist-to-turnover ratio. In 10 games vs. ranked opponents in 2017-18, he totaled 38 assists with just 10 turnovers.

Toppin, a 6-8 forward, is the brother of Dayton's Obi Toppin, the consensus national player of the year in 2019-20. Like his brother Obi, who averaged 20.0 points, 7.5 rebounds and 2.2 assists per game as a redshirt sophomore, Jacob possesses a high upside with good size and great athleticism.

Originally from Brooklyn, New York, Toppin became an immediate contributor for a Rhode Island team that went 21-9 on the season and finished 13-5 in the Atlantic 10. He scored in double figures five times in his freshman season, highlighted by 12 points and eight rebounds vs. Richmond, a potential at-large NCAA Tournament team this past season, and 12 points in 11 minutes vs. Saint Joseph's. He also performed well vs. his future SEC foes Alabama and LSU, scoring 11 points and 10, respectively, in nonconference play.

Toppin showed an ability to stretch the floor with 13 3-pointers, including three vs. Alabama. He shot 42.6% from the floor.

Combining the seven-man freshman class with the three transfers, UK will welcome 10 new players to the roster this year, among the most in college basketball.

With New Assistants, Calipari Builds 'Staff of the Future'

Kentucky's bench will look significantly different this season with the additions of Bruiser Flint and Jai Lucas and the departure of Kenny Payne.

Payne, UK's longtime associate head coach and assistant since 2010-11, accepted an assistant coaching position with the New York Knicks in August on Tom Thibodeau's staff. He joins former UK players Julius Randle and Kevin Knox in New York.

The departure of Payne offered Calipari the opportunity to alter some responsibilities and create a new position.

Tony Barbee has moved to a new position, the associate to the head coach, where he will play a central part in helping Calipari run the program. Barbee, who played a key role in Kentucky's game management and Xs and Os as an assistant, will take on increased responsibility in game planning, scouting opponents, and helping Calipari formulate the team's approach in practices and in games.

In terms of additions, Calipari first brought in Flint, a former Calipari assistant with more than 30 years of coaching experience, to fill Payne's assistant void and hired Lucas, a Texas assistant coach, to be an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator.

Joel Justus will remain in the other assistant role and longtime Calipari right-hand man John Robic will remain a special assistant to the head coach with basketball operations duties.

Calipari looked to NBA coaching staffs as a model for his changes. He has called this new setup "a staff of the future."

With a blue-collar background and an infectious personality, Flint is well known in the college basketball fraternity for his success in both recruiting and developing players. His honest, engaging approach has been the consistent variable behind 20 successful seasons as a Division I head coach at Drexel (2001-02 to 2015-16) and UMass (1996-97 to 2000-01), plus several prominent assistant coaching stops, including seven seasons at UMass under Calipari. He served the last three seasons as an assistant at Indiana.

Flint won 331 games as a head coach during his 20 seasons at the helm at UMass and Drexel. Four times he was named Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year (2002, 2004, 2009 and 2012) and National Association of Basketball Coaches District Coach of the Year (1998, 2007, 2009 and 2012).

Flint was a member of Calipari's staff at UMass from 1989 through the 1995-96 season, helping build a national program in Amherst, Massachusetts, after 11 straight losing seasons. With Calipari and Flint on staff, the Minutemen made five NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 1996 Final Four run, to go along with five Atlantic 10 regular-season and five A-10 Tournament titles.

Lucas is a former McDonald's High School All American and now a highly respected coach. As an assistant, Lucas has been tasked with taking a lead role in Kentucky's recruiting efforts while filling the traditional on-court roles of an assistant, including helping with game and practice preparation and playing a key role in player development through practice and individual workouts. Additionally, as recruiting coordinator, he manages official and unofficial visits and is responsible for the recruiting strategy for the program.

Lucas spent the previous eight seasons at his alma mater on the athletics who also served as the basketball administrator, was named director of athletics at DePaul in August. A longtime confidant of Calipari's, Peevy was in charge of Kentucky's schedule. Kevin Sergeant, associate athletic director of compliance, is the new basketball administrator. Sergeant and Robic will now oversee scheduling.

Brooks Leading On and Off the Court

Keion Brooks Jr. was one of 11 Division I men's basketball student-athletes selected to serve on the newly-formed National Association of Basketball Coaches Player Development Coalition. The group is a diverse collection of players who are tasked with providing valuable perspective and feedback on college basketball-related issues.

In addition to creating a vehicle for student-athletes to address current issues, the Player Development Coalition will also provide members with numerous professional and personal development experiences. The coalition will meet quarterly and have regular opportunities to address the NABC Board of Directors and NCAA committees.

"The importance of the coalition is to make sure the players' voices are heard because the players are what make the NCAA go," Brooks said. "I also believe it's important to educate players beyond basketball, with social justice issues and how to carry yourself as a professional."

Members of the initial Player Development Coalition are North Carolina's Armando Bacot, Colorado's Evan Battey, Brooks, Harvard's Kale Catchings, Villanova's Collin Gillespie, Gonzaga's Corey Kispert, Michigan State's Joshua Langford, Duke's Wendell Moore Jr., TCU's RJ Nemphard, Syracuse's Bourama Sidibe and High Point's John-Michael Wright.

Big and Tall

In limited viewings of this Kentucky team for fans and media, a consistent impression that emerged was this team's length. They certainly pass the eye test.

A closer analysis of the numbers reveals that people's eyes aren't deceiving them. The 2020-21 group has length at every position.

Ten of the 15 players on the roster are 6-foot-6 or taller, including nine of the 12 scholarship players.

The team has an average height of 77.7 inches, just a touch less than 6-6 per player. That's among John Calipari's tallest teams at Kentucky. Only the 2009-10 (79 inches), 2010-11 (78.6), 2017-18 (78.1) and 2019-20 (77.9) squads averaged more height. Remove UK's three walk-ons of Brennan Canada (78 inches), Riley Welch (72 and Kareem Watkins (68) and the average height goes up to 78.9 inches, about 6-7 per scholarship player.

Senior forward Olivier Sarr is the 10th 7-footer in UK history and the first since Isaac Humphries in 2016-17.

But length isn't just measured by height. Wingspan is perhaps the most important factor of all, which this team has plenty of. Five players feature a wingspan of seven feet or more, led by Sarr at 87.5 inches, almost 7-4.

Measurable-wise, sophomore forward Jacob Toppin has the best maximum vertical leap on the team at 42.5 inches. Cam'Ron Fletcher checked in at 40.0.

Also of note, 6-9 freshman forward Isaiah Jackson ran the fastest 3/4-court spring at 3.21 seconds, and sharpshooting redshirt freshman guard Dontae Allen has a hand width of 11.5 inches, tops on the team.

Wildcats Ink Three in Fall Signing Period

In a year where a lot has changed, one thing has remained a constant: Kentucky head coach John Calipari and his staff have once again begun to build one of the strongest recruiting classes in the country, singing three of the nation's top players in the early fall signing period. Highly rated prospects Daimion Collins, Bryce Hopkins and Nolan Hickman have all inked national letters of intent with UK.

All three players are consensus four- or five-star prospects and all are ranked in the top 50 by at least one major national recruiting service. They will join the program for the 2021-22 season.

"Our fans have heard me talk a lot about what it means to be 'Built Different.' When you talk about this fall class, you've got three kids who are built to play here at Kentucky," Calipari said. "They wanted to be a part of this culture. They wanted to play against other really good players. They didn't need any promises or guarantees – only the promise that this is going to be the hardest thing they've ever done and that we will challenge them to become the best version of themselves."

"This place isn't for everybody and it takes a certain type of player – a 'Built Different' mentality – to come here and be in this competitive environment. These three are ready to take that step."

With the spring signing period still to go, UK is going to be in the mix for one of the top classes in the nation yet again. Rivals and 247 Sports ranked UK No. 3 with the three fall signees.

In every season in the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking. With the fall additions, Kentucky has signed 61 top-50 recruits, 47 top-25 players and 26 top-10 players (according to Rivals) in what will now be Calipari's 13 recruiting classes at Kentucky.

UK can only comment on prospective student-athletes who have signed official paperwork to play at Kentucky.

Three More Wildcats Drafted

Although Kentucky men's basketball's "Graduation Night" – as

NOTES

dubbed by head coach John Calipari – came months later than normal, three more Wildcats heard their names called in the NBA Draft on Nov. 18

Tyrese Maxey (No. 21, Philadelphia 76ers), Immanuel Quickley (No. 25, Oklahoma City Thunder) and Nick Richards (No. 42, New Orleans Pelicans) were selected during the 2020 NBA Draft, which was done virtually this season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

In 11 seasons with Calipari at the helm, Kentucky has churned out three No. 1 selections, 31 first-rounders, 21 lottery picks and 41 total players in the NBA Draft. The 41 draft picks are 14 more than the next closest school (Duke). With two first-round picks, Kentucky has more first-round selections (41) than any other school in the NBA lottery era (since 1985).

Maxey was the first Wildcat off the board and the first UK player selected by Philadelphia since Mike Flynn in 1975.

Quickley was traded to the New York Knicks where former UK associate head coach Kenny Payne is now an assistant and former Kentucky players Kevin Knox and Julius Randle are on the roster. Richards was traded to Charlotte. He joins Wildcats Malik Monk and PJ Washington with the Hornets.

The Wildcats have had more top-10 picks, more lottery selections and more first-round picks in the Calipari era than any other team in the country. UK has had multiple first-round selections in every draft during Calipari's tenure.

Kentucky has had 132 players drafted 134 times in its illustrious history with 55 players selected in the opening round.

It is the 11th consecutive NBA Draft that UK was represented by multiple players in the first round of the draft. Kentucky is the only program since the draft went to two rounds in 1989 to have multiple players selected in the first round in 11 straight years. Calipari is the only coach to have multiple players selected in 13 consecutive NBA Drafts, dating back to his time at Memphis. This marked the first time the Wildcats did not have a lottery pick in the Calipari era. Kentucky previously had at least one lottery pick in 10 straight drafts and multiple lottery selections seven times. Calipari's streak of first-round picks dated back 12 seasons to his time at Memphis.

The Wildcats' three total picks tied Arizona and Duke for the most selections in the 2020 NBA Draft.

Of the 28 players at UK in the Calipari era who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, 26 have been first-round draft picks after Maxey's selections. All previous players (not including Maxey) have played in an NBA game.

Although not confirmed by the individual team yet, Ashton Hagans reportedly inked a two-way deal with the Minnesota Timberwolves, EJ Montgomery signed with the Milwaukee Bucks and Nate Sestina got a deal with the Brooklyn Nets.

La Familia Dominates NBA Bubble

Kentucky's collegiate success and the NBA's infusion of young and talented superstars have been synonymous for the last decade.

In the John Calipari era, 41 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 31 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Anthony Davis, Karl-Anthony Towns and John Wall) and 21 lottery selections. A staggering 29 players from Kentucky were on 2019-20 NBA opening-day rosters (including two-way and inactive lists).

As it turns out, the NBA domination could get even stronger. Much stronger.

Former Kentucky players were one of the central storylines of an unforgettable and unique postseason setup at the ESPN Wide World of Sports at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida. Whether it was four players currently vying for an NBA championship in the NBA Finals, record-setting scoring performances, early 20-something-year-olds quickly becoming stars or Wildcats making game-winning plays, UK players had their fingerprints all over the NBA Playoffs.

The postseason began with 13 Wildcats on rosters for the NBA Playoffs, the most of any school in the country. But that was only the beginning of the story.

Jamal Murray ascended to superstar status with mind-blowing scoring performance after mind-blowing scoring performance. He led the Denver Nuggets to back-to-back series wins and into the Western Conference finals after starting in a 3-1 hole, making all types of history in the process. Among the most noteworthy, he scored 142 points in a three-game stretch. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two other players have scored more points over a three-game span in the NBA Playoffs: Jerry West (1965) and Michael Jordan (1988).

Then there was Bam Adebayo's unforgettable block in game one of the Eastern Conference finals. Already being hailed as one of the game's best big men after a breakthrough season and a do-it-all run through the NBA Playoffs, Adebayo came up with one of the best blocks in postseason history when he stuffed Jayson Tatum at the rim in the final seconds of the first game of the series, which Adebayo's Miami Heat would go on to win.

Just a couple of nights later, Anthony Davis would add to the Kentucky highlight reel by checking off one of the few remaining things he had yet to do his career: a game-winning shot in the postseason. With the Nuggets giving the Los Angeles Lakers everything they could handle, Davis -- a 6-foot-10 forward -- popped out to the 3-point line and drilled the shot at the buzzer to give the Lakers a 2-0 series lead. They would ultimately advance.

And then there was Tyler Herro, who captivated NBA fans with an unwavering confidence seen in few rookies. He hit clutch shot after clutch shot during the postseason run, highlighted by a 37-point night vs. the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals. According to StatMuse, he became the youngest player in NBA history to drop 30 points in a playoff game off the bench.

When Adebayo would later go on to score 30 points in that series, UK became the first school with four former players to score 30 or more points in the conference finals. And before the NBA Finals had even started, Kentucky alumni had already scored more points in this NBA Playoffs run than any other school in NBA postseason history.

The NBA Playoffs culminated with Davis and Rondo's Lakers defeating the Heat's Adebayo and Herro 4-2 in the NBA Finals. In winning his first NBA championship, Davis became just the eighth player all-time to win an NCAA title, an NBA ring and an Olympic gold medal. It was Rondo's second NBA championship.

On top of the four players in the NBA Finals, which was tied for the most of any school in NBA history, the Lakers are also coached by Frank Vogel, a former manager and video coordinator at UK, and Pat Riley, a UK Athletics Hall of Famer and All-American, leads the Heat as team president. Riley is one of only two people to win an NBA title as a player, as a coach and as an executive.

UK Continued SEC Awards Dominance in 2020

Kentucky has dominated the weekly Southeastern Conference awards under John Calipari. UK has won more SEC honors (108) than any school during the Calipari era, including 83 SEC Freshman of the Week honors and 25 SEC Player of the Week awards.

Kentucky won eight total SEC honors in 2019-20 with five SEC Player of the Week awards and three SEC Freshman of the Week honors. When Immanuel Quickley won on March 2, he became the first Wildcat in school history to win consecutive SEC Player of the Week honors (dating back to the 1984-85 season).

Quickley won three total SEC Player of the Week honors (Jan. 13, Feb. 24, March 2) this season and Nick Richards was a two-time SEC Player of the Week winner (Dec. 30, Jan. 27). Tyrese Maxey won SEC Freshman of the Week three times (Nov. 11, Dec. 30, Jan. 13).

The Wildcats won four national honors this season. Richards was named the U.S. Basketball Writers Association Oscar Robertson Trophy National Player of the Week after the win over Louisville and the NCAA March Madness National Player of the Week after back-to-back wins vs. Georgia and at Texas Tech. Maxey took home both NCAA March Madness National Player of the Week and USBWA Wayman Tisdale National Freshman of the Week honors following the U of L game.

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

Kentucky is 281-8 (.972) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest.

Ironically, two of the last four instances UK has let a double-digit lead slip away came on the road at South Carolina. The Wildcats led by as many as 14 in Columbia, South Carolina, on Jan. 15, but the Gamecocks rallied behind a buzzer-beating 3-pointer for the 81-78 win. It was the first time UK let a double-digit lead slip away since Auburn rallied for an overtime win in the 2019 Elite Eight. Prior to that, UK's last loss was another 14-point advantage at South Carolina during the 2017-18 season.

Seven of the eight losses are to conference opponents.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 71.0% of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 85.2% of Calipari's 330 career wins at Kentucky.

NOTES

Cats Don't Count on the Long Ball

New rules that moved the 3-point line to the international basketball distance of 22 feet, 1.75 inches had an impact on college basketball last season. The Wildcats were not immune. Kentucky shot 34.3% from behind the arc, ranked 122nd in the country. Those numbers were a stark improvement from the first half of the season when UK ranked in the bottom third of the country.

The Wildcats ranked near the bottom nationally in both 3-point field goals per game (ranked 336th with 5.1 per game) and 3-point scoring distribution (only 20.4% of UK's points came from 3s, which was 349th out of 353 teams) and took 236 fewer 3-pointers than the opposition. Additionally, the Wildcats made four or fewer 3-pointers in 12 games.

But, if you've followed John Calipari's teams over the years, Kentucky has never relied on the 3-point shot. While teams nationally are taking more 3-point shots than ever before, UK has bucked the trend and played to the style that's best suited for that particular group.

The highest percentage of 3-point shots taken under Calipari was the 2010-11 Final Four team that lofted 32.4% of its shots from beyond the arc. No surprise, that team consisted of Brandon Knight and Doron Lamb on the perimeter is also Calipari's top 3-point shooting team at Kentucky.

Calipari typically likes his teams to take between 20 to 24 3-point attempts per game but averaged 14.8 attempts from long distance per game last season.

Not relying on the 3 certainly doesn't hurt the Wildcats. UK is 10-1 all-time under Calipari when making one or fewer from long range. Extended to three or fewer 3-pointers.

Oddly enough, Kentucky shot the ball from deep considerably better in hostile territory last season. The Wildcats made 47.2% from long range in true road games but only 28.9% at home and 25.9% in their three neutral-site games.

Taking Advantage of Free Points

One of Kentucky's strengths last season was its success at the free-throw line, which was one for the record books.

The Wildcats shot 79.7% at the charity stripe, crushing the previous school record of 77.6% in 1978-79. The mark also ranked second in the country.

UK earned 24.3% of its points at the free-throw line, had a free-throw rate of 40.8% and connected at 79.7%. All were among the national leaders.

Kentucky's free-throw distribution percentage of 24.3% ranked third nationally and its free-throw rate of 40.8% rated 18th, according to KenPom.com. Five players made 75% or better (with a minimum of 30 attempts), led by Immanuel Quickley's 92.3% (144 of 156). The Wildcats concluded the season by making at least 75% in 14 straight games.

Kentucky's strong performance at the line wasn't relegated to its success rate of makes, but also the frequency in which the Wildcats got to the line and the number of makes per game. UK took an average of 22.7 free throws a game and made an average of 18.1. The opposition averaged 12.9 makes on an average of 18.8 attempts a game. Opponents shot only 23 more free throws than the Wildcats made.

UK made its free throws when they mattered the most. The Wildcats were 99 of 114 (86.8%) at the line when it was a two-possession game (six points or less) or less with three minutes or less to play (including overtime). Quickley was 30 of 31 (96.8%) on the season.

Hold Them to 55 Points, 40%

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. UK is a perfect 77-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer, including 3-0 this season.

The Wildcats are 185-7 (96.4%) under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less. UK was 12-0 last season in the category. Kentucky's 61-59 loss to Tennessee in 2017-18 snapped a 60-game winning streak when holding the opponent to 63 or less.

Kentucky also fares well when it keeps the competition to 40% or less from the floor. UK is 202-19 (91.4%) vs. opponents under Calipari when its field-goal percent is 40% or less. The Wildcats were 15-3 this season.

Big-Game Cal, Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky own a 63-33 record (.655) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams under John Calipari, UK is 7-4 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five.

All-time, Calipari is 13-8 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 86-56, including a 55-29 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 27-19 record, including 16-12 at UK.

Kentucky answered the bell of big-time showdowns again in 2019-20. UK was 4-2 vs. AP Top 25 teams, including 2-1 vs. top-five teams at the time.

By defeating top-ranked Michigan State to start the 2019-20 season, UK knocked off the No. 1 team in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Kentucky downed Tennessee on Feb. 19, 2019. With the win over MSU to begin 2019-20, the Wildcats has nine victories over the No. 1 team in 25 tries in program history.

Calipari improved to 6-4 vs. the No. 1 team in his career with the win vs. Michigan State, including 3-2 at Kentucky. According to ESPN, Calipari is the only coach with a winning (.600) percentage against No. 1 ranked teams with a minimum of 10 games faced against the No. 1.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 63-33 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 267-44 vs. unranked competition, an .859 winning percentage.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Season	Offense (Rank)	Defense (Rank)	Overall
2019-20	112.7 (24)	95.1 (52)	29th

2009-10	116.1 (15)	86.2 (6)	3rd

Bounce Back

Kentucky doesn't lose often during the John Calipari era, but when the Wildcats do, they almost always bounce back. UK is 55-13 under Calipari following a loss (record does not count end-of-season losses).

The Wildcats did it once last season, losing two straight in Las Vegas, but UK bounced back in a big way by closing the regular season with wins in 17 of its final 20 games, including the Southeastern Conference regular-season championship.

Kentucky has only lost more than two games once under Calipari losing four straight during the 2017-18 season. Previously, the last time UK lost four games in a row was in February 2009, when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season. It was the first time Calipari had lost four straight since the end of the 2004-05 season at Memphis.

UK has never lost back-to-back home games under Calipari.

Mercer and Turner Selected to UK Athletics Hall of Fame

Kentucky basketball greats Ron Mercer (1996-97) and Wayne Turner (1996-99) are two of six former UK stars in the 2020 Hall of Fame class.

The UK Athletics Hall of Fame was started in 2005 to recognize and honor persons whose participation and achievements enriched and strengthened the University's athletics program. The charter class included 88 individuals who had previously had their jersey retired by UK.

There is a five-year waiting period after leaving UK to be eligible for inclusion into the Hall of Fame. A committee consisting of Hall of Famers, media members, campus representatives and current coaches and administrators elects new inductees each year.

This year's honorees will be inducted during a Hall of Fame Weekend at a date to be determined.

Mercer was a member of the 1996 national championship team as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He was an NCAA Consensus All-America First Team member in 1997 and a two-time NCAA Tournament All-Final Four Team selection.

After making the SEC All-Freshman Team in 1996, he was one of the top players in college basketball in 1997. In that season, he was named the NCAA Tournament West Regional Most Outstanding Player, SEC Player of the Year by both the league's coaches and the Associated Press, and the 1997 SEC Tournament MVP. He scored 725 points in his sophomore season, at the time the fifth most in a season in program history

Mercer is a member of Kentucky's 1,000-point club (1,013). He declared for the 1997 NBA Draft after his sophomore season and was drafted sixth overall by the Boston Celtics. He played eight seasons in the NBA.

Turner was a member of the 1996 and 1998 national championship teams as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He finished his career as UK's and the NCAA's all-time games played leader with 151 games (no-w ranks second), UK's all-time steals leader with 238, and a member of UK's 1,000-point club (1,170).

During his career, Turner helped the Wildcats to two SEC regular-season championships and three SEC Tournament titles.

Turner was named to the 1997 NCAA Tournament All-West Regional Team, the 1998 NCAA Tournament All-South Region Most Outstanding Player and the 1998 SEC Tournament MVP. He was also selected for the All-SEC Third Team and the SEC All-Tournament Team in 1999. He played one season in the NBA.

Success Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2020 for placing in the top 10% of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a 994 out of a 1,000.

It's the sixth straight year the men's basketball team has received the award and the seventh time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2015-16 through 2018-19 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in six of the last seven single-year APR rates. Teams scoring below 930 can face consequences intended to direct additional focus on academics. Those penalties can include practice restrictions and playing-season reductions.

Game-Day Changes in Effect During COVID-19 Pandemic

After receiving guidelines from state health officials, UK Athletics has designed a distanced seating plan to host fans at Rupp Arena in the healthiest manner possible for the 2020-21 season during the COVID-19 pandemic. The plan is focused on the recommended health and safety protocols for the well-being of all student-athletes, fans and staff.

At this point, the anticipated attendance for this season at Rupp Arena is up to 15% of normal arena capacity, which includes participants, essential personnel, media and a limited number of spectators. All plans are subject to change based on evolving information as well as local, state and national public health developments.

UK Athletics has taken advice from the Commonwealth of Kentucky, UK health officials, the city of Lexington and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. In response, UK's plan includes a number of new measures to promote a healthy game-day experience at Rupp Arena. These measures include, but are not limited to:

- Enhanced cleaning and sanitization procedures throughout the arena prior to and during all events
- Mobile ticketing to reduce contact between staff and fans
- Requiring face coverings for all fans at all times, with the exception of when fans are actively eating or drinking while sitting in their seats
- Requiring fans to keep the proper physical distance
- Providing signage in common areas to assist with physical distancing
- Locating hand sanitization and washing stations located throughout the arena
- Increasing physical spacing while using elevators by reducing capacity of each elevator
- Providing concessions featuring cashless transactions
- Discouraging the bringing of bags of any sort. Only small, clear bags will be admitted

A complete list of the new game-day regulations is available at the UK Athletics Gameday website.

Fans with pre-existing health conditions, or those who are at a greater risk, should consider not attending sporting events at this time. Even with these measures in place, UK Athletics can, in no way, guarantee that fans will not be exposed to COVID-19.

The UK Ticket Office and K Fund are communicating directly with season ticket holders on the 2020-21 ticketing process. Tickets will be sold in season packages and K Fund priority rankings will determine the order for ticket assignment. Ticket holders are encouraged to regularly monitor their email for additional updates.

Available tickets will be physically distanced throughout Rupp Arena and will be primarily sold in small blocks of two, three and four seats to maximize attendance opportunities for a greater number of season ticket accounts. All seating will be reserved, and ticket holders will be required to sit in their assigned seats. UK Athletics hopes to accommodate as many ticket accounts as possible, though there is no guarantee that every season ticket holder will be able to purchase tickets due to the limited capacity.

With arena capacity limited to 15%, there will be approximately 300 tickets that students will have access to purchase on a single-game basis, for select games. Ticket allotments may vary for games that are played during holiday or semester breaks. A single-game lottery process will be implemented to provide opportunities for as many students as possible to attend games. Games will be grouped into multiple lotteries throughout the season, and there will be a random draw for each game to determine the students that will receive tickets through their My UK Athletics Student Account.

Rupp Arena Renovations Continuing

Originally announced when UK agreed to a new lease in December 2016 and formalized the agreement last year, upper-level chair-back seating and new club areas were installed to Rupp Arena last season with construction ongoing for club areas.

Two clubs for season ticket holders are on schedule to open for this season with a third scheduled to open in 2021-22. Fans in these new clubs will be able to enjoy first-class amenities before, during and after games. These new clubs are crucial to providing the funds necessary for both the new lease agreement and the ongoing renovation of Rupp Arena.

Club membership does not include a ticketed seat and club members may have seats throughout Rupp Arena. Season ticket holders may purchase club memberships to accompany their season ticket package. Club membership pricing and amenities will be announced as soon as details are finalized, and sales will begin shortly thereafter. Memberships will initially be offered to season ticket holders based on K Fund priority ranking.

This latest phase of Rupp renovations comes on the heels of the addition of a new center-hung scoreboard, ribbon boards, new sound system and lighting that have created a more dynamic game experience in Rupp.

The chair-back seating that was installed last season was undertaken in response to years of feedback from fans asking for more comfortable seating in the upper level. The seating was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234.

After the seat renovations, Rupp Arena now seats 20,500.

Givens Joins UK Sports Network

Heralded as one of the greatest players in program history, Jack "Goose" Givens has joined the UK Sports Network.

Givens, who scored 41 points in the 1978 national championship game before embarking on a career in professional basketball as both a player and broadcaster, will co-host the Don Franklin Auto Countdown to Tipoff pregame radio show alongside Dave Baker, who returns for his 34th season with the UK Sports Network. Baker previously co-hosted the show with another UK Hall of Famer, Rex Chapman, who will now work with JMI Sports on new media content.

Givens will also provide analysis on television for the UK Sports Network as a featured guest on BBN Gameday and BBN Tonight.

The Don Franklin Auto Countdown to Tipoff pregame show airs 90 minutes prior to all Kentucky men's basketball games on UK Sports Network affiliates and is also available through the UK Athletics app. A stream of the show is also available on UKAthletics.com and on the Kentucky Basketball Facebook page, where fans can ask questions and interact with Baker and Givens.

Once the ball tips, Big Blue Nation will again be guided through game action by The Voice of the Wildcats, Tom Leach, and UK Hall of Famer Mike Pratt. The 2020-21 season marks the 19th season together for the duo, who also host the Ruoff Mortgage Wildcat Wrap Up post-game show, where they are joined each game by a UK basketball player and head coach John Calipari.

Cats Rock at Rupp

The Wildcats are 610-71 (.896) in Rupp Arena. Among the most notable marks of dominance as the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- School record 54-game winning streak to begin the John Calipari era
- Kentucky is 329-42 (.887) in regular-season SEC games in Rupp
- The Wildcats set a program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- UK has gone undefeated at home in five of Calipari's 11 seasons
- Kentucky has a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 44 seasons

600 Wins at Rupp in Record Time

With a victory over Fairleigh Dickinson on Dec. 7, 2019, Kentucky reached the 600-win mark at Rupp Arena faster than any other program in NCAA Division I level history. UK needed just 670 games to reach win No. 600 in Rupp Arena.

It took UCLA, which previously owned the fastest pace to 600 wins, 689 games in Pauley Pavilion. Only one other team, Kansas, achieved win No. 600 in fewer than 700 games at its home venue. The Jayhawks reached the significant win in their 699th game.

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career home winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

New Chairbacks, Fewer Seats

After receiving a $16 million upgrade over the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons that enhanced the fan experience with the likes of a new Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, ribbons boards, new corner video boards and a new audio system, Rupp Arena is undergoing an additional transformation as a part of UK's new leasing agreement with the Lexington Center.

Chair-back seating in the upper-level sideline was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234 for the 2019-20 season. Club areas will be available to season ticket holders starting with the 2020-21 season.

The new seating reduced Rupp Arena's capacity to 20,500.

Pack the House

Until reducing capacity for the 2019-20 season, Kentucky had led the nation in average home attendance in 20 of 24 seasons. That number included a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

Kentucky averaged 20,160 fans during the 2019-20 season, the first season with a reduced capacity at 20,500. UK averaged 23,000-plus fans in seven of Calipari's first 10 seasons.

After receiving guidelines from state health officials, attendance for this season at Rupp Arena due to the COVID-19 pandemic will be up to 15% of normal arena capacity, which includes participants, essential personnel, media and a limited number of spectators.

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just four times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just three times in Rupp Arena. Prior to the losses to Evansville (Nov. 12) and UCLA (Dec. 3, 2016), both by three, the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 54-3 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coch Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat Kentucky in Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 183-11 (.943) in Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- Kentucky is 22-5 (.815) vs. Associated Press Top 25 opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- UK is 161-6 (.964) vs. unranked teams in Rupp under Calipari
- The Wildcats are 94-4 (.960) at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari
- Calipari notched his 100th career win in Rupp Arena as Kentucky's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari 104 games to reach the century mark, the fastest of any UK coach

Cal Passes Hall for Rupp Record

With a 101-70 victory over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, 2016, John Calipari passed former UK head coach Joe B. Hall for wins in Rupp Arena. Calipari currently has 183 wins inside the historic venue. Hall won 122.

Calipari Named SEC, USBWA District IV, NABC District 20 Coach of the Year

Unflinching to early growing pains when his team stumbled out of the gate and resolute in his belief in his players and the annual process of preparing young teams for March, John Calipari was recognized for another stellar coaching job in 2019-20 by winning Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, U.S. Basketball Writers Association District IV Coach of the Year and National Association of Basketball Coaches District 20 Coach of the Year honors.

It was Calipari's fourth SEC Coach of the Year award at Kentucky and his 10th conference coach of the year honors in 28 seasons as a college head coach.

Calipari was also a semifinalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year for a second consecutive season. He is one of just two coaches to win the Naismith Coach of the Year three times (Duke's Mike Krzyzewski is the other).

Calipari guided the Wildcats to a 25-6 regular season in 2019-20 that included a 15-3 league record, an SEC regular-season championship, an 8-2 record on the road and a top-10 national ranking.

Calipari Ahead of the Pack at Kentucky

Through 11 years at Kentucky, John Calipari's time in Lexington has been every bit as successful -- and more -- as fans hoped it would when he agreed to become the head coach at Kentucky in the spring of 2009.

By just about every measure, he's the most successful coach in college basketball during the last decade. Among schools who have been to at least two Elite Eights and a Final Four since 2009-10, Calipari ranks:

- First in NCAA Tournament wins (31)
- First in Final Four appearances (four)
- First in Elite Eight appearances (seven)
- First in Sweet 16 appearances (eight)
- Second in league tournament titles (six)
- Third in wins (330)
- Third in regular-season conference titles (six)
- Fourth in NCAA titles (one)

Calipari Named Coach of the Decade

Underscored by more victories than any other coach or program in his first 10 seasons at the helm at Kentucky, more Final Four appearances, a record number of NBA Draft picks, and the 2012 national championship, John Calipari was named the College Basketball Coach of the Decade by Sporting News in January 2020.

In a piece penned by national writer Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News credited Calipari for changing the college basketball landscape. Detailing Calipari's success -- what DeCourcy described as a "college basketball revolution" -- DeCourcy wrote that "no one defined the 2010s in the same way as Calipari ... nor achieved the same degree of consistent success."

In an era where kids can enter the NBA Draft at 19 years old, Calipari masterfully balances the priority of players' long-term professional dreams with individual and team development, leading to on-court success that no other team has matched.

"I knew we were going to make the program -- and I said it at the press conference -- it was going to be a players-first program," Calipari told Sporting News. "We were going to make decisions based on them and their needs. And it's not just about the name on the front. It'll be about the name on the back. That's how we're going to do this."

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport. The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White.

Moving Up the Kentucky Career Wins, Games Coached List

With an 80-53 victory vs. Auburn on Feb. 23, 2019, John Calipari moved past Joe B. Hall for the second-most wins in program history. Calipari trails only the legendary Adolph Rupp (876 wins) for the most wins at UK and earned win No. 300 at Ole Miss on March 5, 2019. When Calipari tied Hall with his 297th win at Missouri on Feb. 19, 2019, he did so 32 games faster than Hall and just two games slower than Rupp.

Although he's still climbing the charts, he's doing it nearly as fast as anyone else in NCAA history. With the aforementioned win over Ole Miss, Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 300 wins (369 games) at one program in NCAA history. Only Bill Self (358 games at Kansas), Claire Bee (359 games at Long Island) and Rupp (366 at UK) got there faster.

Calipari also passed Hall for the second-most coached games at UK. Hall's 13-year career with the Wildcats ended with his 397th game. Calipari and Kentucky's win over Mississippi State on Feb. 4, 2020, marked his 398th career game at the UK helm. Rupp is first in games coached with a 41-season tenure spanning 1,066 career games.

700 Victories and Counting

With Kentucky's win over UIC on Nov. 26, 2017, John Calipari reached 700 on-court wins. At the time he was one of just 41 coaches, regardless of NCAA level of classification, to reach that barrier. Only 29 coaches have done it with at least 10 seasons at the Division I level.

Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 700 on-court wins ever. Only Adolph Rupp (836 games), Jerry Tarkanian (876 games) and Roy Williams (879 games) did it faster.

Calipari is currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

ON PACE WITH THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to four NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure. John Calipari is just behind pace with Rupp to begin his career at UK in total victories. Calipari (.811) is slightly behind Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 16 league regular-season championships (including six Southeastern Conference titles) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Bruce Pearl has eight). Calipari has won six SEC Tournament championships at Kentucky and owns 15 conference tournament titles in his career, 11 more than his closest competitors (Ben Howland, Kermit Davis).

Calipari has tallied a 359-107 (.770) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 151-41 (.786) record since joining the SEC. In his 11 seasons at UK, his 151 total conference wins are tied for the most among Division I coaches since 1996-97 over their first 11 seasons with a program, while his winning percentage ranks third. Only Adolph Rupp (.847) had a better winning percentage through his first 11 seasons in league play in Kentucky's history.

Although he's been publicly outspoken against conference tournaments -- only because he doesn't favor playing three or more games on consecutive days to win the tournament -- his teams have gotten up for them. Calipari's teams at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky have been to 19 conference championship games in his 28-year career, winning a remarkable 15 of them. Calipari is 57-12 (.826) all-time in conference tournaments, including 23-4 (.852) at UK. Calipari ranks fourth in SEC Tournament wins.

Calipari in Elite Company with Conference Championships

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari added another first to his Hall of Fame career in 2017.

When Kentucky clinched at least a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship by beating Vanderbilt on Feb. 28, 2017, he became the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times. He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, '93, '94, '95 and '96, Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, '06, '07, '08 and '09, and Kentucky has captured the SEC six times in 2010, '12, '15, '16, '17 and '20.

Perhaps more impressive is that Calipari has 31 combined regular-season and tournament championships after clinching the SEC regular-season crown in 2020. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (35 titles) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41) and Few.

30 is the new 20

After defeating Ole Miss 67-62 on Feb. 15, 2020, John Calipari secured his 26th consecutive on-court 20-win season. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski (24), Bill Self (22) and Mark Few (21) who all hit the plateau last season as well.

COACH CALIPARI

With a Sweet 16 win over Houston in the 2019 NCAA Tournament, Calipari and the Cats clinched a 30-win season for the fifth time as UK's head coach. Calipari has 11 seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Krzyzewski (15) and Roy Williams (12) have more 30-win seasons as an active head coach. Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 wins in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

There's No Place Like Home

Since his 1991-92 season at UMass, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 392-33 (.922) record at home. At UK, Coach Cal is 183-11 (.943) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's 11 seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opened in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games (which ended at 42).

	Coach	Streak (Yrs)
1.	John Calipari	54 (2010-13)
2.	John Calipari	42 (2014-17)
3.	Rick Pitino	33 (1992-94)
4.	Joe B. Hall	30 (1981-82)
5.	Rick Pitino	27 (1995-97)

Life Away From Home Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're pretty good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 108-47 (.697) record on the road. At neutral-site venues, Kentucky is 78-23 (.772) under Calipari.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking. Calipari has led seven of his 11 UK teams to the No. 1 ranking and eight of his last 13 teams to the top (he's done it 10 times overall). When Coach Cal's teams are at the top, they're difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-13 (.894) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-8 (.896) when his team is atop the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass at No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis
- He (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (219) in active coaches with victories at No. 1
- Calipari has coached 123 career games as a No. 1 team, fourth most in NCAA history, trailing Krzyzewski (254), John Wooden (228) and Adolph Rupp (127)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .894 trails only Wooden (.952) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (.862)
- Calipari is 6-4 vs. the AP top-ranked team in the land, including 3-2 at Kentucky after defeating Michigan State on Nov. 5
- According to ESPN, his .600 winning percentage against the No. 1 ranked team is the best for any head coach

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100% of the players (20 of 20) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Brad Calipari, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, Kentucky has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in six of the last seven single-year reports. UK's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May 2020, was a 994 out of 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the sixth year in a row for finishing in the top 10% of Division I men's basketball programs.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, John Calipari has helped 52 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 41 in his first 11 seasons at Kentucky, more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than three No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era
- Churned out 41 NBA Draft picks, 31 first-rounders, three No. 1 selections, seven top-five picks and 21 lottery picks at Kentucky

- Of the 28 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, 26 have been first-round picks. All previous players (not including Maxey) have played game in the NBA. He is 30 for 32 in that regard when including his players from Memphis

COACH CALIPARI

A “players-first” coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 52 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 28-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up nearly 800 on-court victories, 20 NCAA Tournament on-court appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

From UMass to Memphis and now Kentucky, Calipari’s career has been successful throughout, but his most recent run in Lexington has been the best stretch of his career. During Calipari’s first 11 seasons at UK, he’s led all coaches in NCAA Tournament wins (31), Final Fours (four), Elite Eights (seven) and Sweet 16s (eight). He’s in the top three in total wins (330) in that time span.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball’s first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport’s greatest program at Kentucky, he totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari’s on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped more than 50 young men realize their dreams and reach the NBA level with 52 players earning NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari’s help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are more than any other coach, and he’s had 41 players drafted during his first 11 years at Kentucky, including 31 first-round picks.

Calipari’s players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 23 All-Star selections, with Anthony Davis winning the game’s MVP honor in 2017. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Five of his players have been tabbed All-NBA, three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year, and 14 players from Calipari’s first 10 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80%, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor’s degrees, and all 18 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including four players who earned their degree in just three years. Calipari’s teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Calipari has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and beyond. He has had a particular passion to assist those impacted by natural disasters. For instance, in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with telethons in 2012, raising $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, and in 2017, for victims of Hurricane Harvey.

Calipari launched his foundation in 2012, and since then the foundation has worked with several key partners and donated more than $1.5 million, a figure that does not include matching funds that have been contributed from individuals and corporations. In 2013, Calipari initiated hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend has generated millions of dollars for charity since its inception.

In 2019, when federal workers were without pay due to a government shutdown, he, his wife and his foundation assisted workers with financial help and grocery gift cards. He and his wife, Ellen, teamed up with Fayette County Public Schools to help families in need during the COVID-19 pandemic.

His latest efforts include spearheading the creation of the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a nationwide coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship. Participants in the initiative will be known as MLI Future Leaders.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men’s U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller “Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out,” Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that “it’s never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it’s about how high you bounce back.”
