UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

What is United Methodist Women?

United Methodist Women is a faith-based membership organization of laywomen within The United Methodist Church. We are organized for mission, and our members are committed to growing as disciples of Jesus Christ in community with other women and building the lives of women, children and youth. United Methodist Women has been in mission for more than 140 years.

What is the PURPOSE?

The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

What is the vision?

United Methodist Women is turning faith, hope and love into action on behalf of women, children and youth around the world.

Living the vision

We provide opportunities and resources to grow spiritually, become more deeply rooted in Christ and put faith into action.

We are organized for growth, with flexible structures leading to effective witness and action.

We equip women and girls around the world to be leaders in communities, agencies, workplaces, governments and churches.

We work for justice through compassionate service and advocacy to change unfair policies and systems.

We provide educational experiences that lead to personal change in order to transform the world.
What is the meaning of the logo?

The emblem of United Methodist Women, the cross and the flame, symbolizes our organization. The cross and flame are ancient symbols of the church and appear on The United Methodist Church emblem. Both symbols remind us of the opportunities and obligations of discipleship.

Paul’s words to Timothy have fresh and contemporary meanings, “I remind you to stir into flame the gift of God which is within you” (2 Timothy 1:6, New English Bible). As United Methodist Women members, we give our gift of God with others through mission.

As parts of our emblem, the cross and flame remind us of our PURPOSE of growing in our understanding of and willingness to participate in the global ministries of the church. They remind us of our heritage of women who pioneer in service for the church at home and in other countries.

The overall shape of the emblem is also symbolic. Fluid and free flowing, the shape suggests change and mobility. The women who came before us were at the forefront of movements for change. Always aware of the times, we move with ever changing circumstances rather than feeling overwhelmed by them. We are a group of Christian women with many gifts who are unified by one Spirit. We participate in God’s mission in all areas of life.
THE MEMBER

Who is a member?

Any woman who wants to belong to and participate in the global mission of the church through United Methodist Women and who commits herself to the PURPOSE can become a member of United Methodist Women.

What does it mean to be a United Methodist Women member?

United Methodist Women is a community of women committed to mission. Membership provides many opportunities, including the following:

- Prayer, Bible studies and spiritual retreats.
- Hands-on missions in local communities.
- Mission education experiences.
- Leadership development and training opportunities.
- Supporting work with women, children and youth.
- Partnership with women in mission in the country and around the world.
- Advocacy for social justice issues, including those pertaining to the environment, domestic violence, immigration and the many other concerns that impact the lives of women, children and youth.
- Engagement in racial justice issues.

What are the opportunities for joining locally?

_The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church_, 2012, states, “In every local church there shall be an organized unit of United Methodist Women” (256.5). However, not every church has a local unit. When the number of women at a single church are too few to organize a unit, a unit may be formed by women from multiple churches.

A unit may be formed by women from different churches who choose to meet in locations other than a local church, such as a college or university campus, retirement community or local business area. A woman may become a district member if there is no active unit in her church, if there is no possibility of continuing or reorganizing a unit.

See local bylaws for more information.
ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS

Biblical Background

Tabitha was a disciple in the city of Joppa. “She was devoted to good works and acts of charity” (Acts 9:36b). Widows wept and Peter traveled to mourn the death of this woman mentioned in Acts. She was not only a believer but also a do-er as the mourning widows attested when they showed Peter what she had done for them. We do not know what moved him to do what he did next, but God saw fit to use Peter to raise Tabitha from the dead so that more would believe.

Our belief is shown through what we do. Tabitha is an example of this as are Esther, Rahab and the Samaritan woman. The widowed women showed Peter evidence of Tabitha’s faithfulness through what she did for them. As members of United Methodist Women, we are called to not only believe but also to do. Just as Tamar took what could be considered drastic action to stand up against injustice (Genesis 38), we are also called to boldly speak out against injustice in our society.

Overview

United Methodist Women depends on laywomen who use their God-given gifts to engage in God’s mission in the world. United Methodist Women is committed to developing strong leaders through education and training that equip women with leadership skills.

We offer women opportunities to develop a deeper understanding of mission, grow spiritually and have the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of women, children and youth.

As a member of United Methodist Women, you have the opportunity to serve at the local, district, conference, jurisdiction and national levels. Learn more about that leadership in the handbook.

While any woman can join United Methodist Women as a member, United Methodist Women elected leaders must be laywomen who are willing to commit their talents, time, energy and effort to serve God’s mission. Presidents at all levels of the organization must be members of a United Methodist church.

Our work is inspired by our PURPOSE and turning faith, hope and love into action. Making this statement a living reality is our goal. Commitment to God’s calling, sensitivity to others, openness to new ideas and a heart for mission are all needed to foster the values that are at the core of the PURPOSE.
LOCAL UNITED METHODIST WOMEN ORGANIZATION

United Methodist Women is organized according to the group’s need and size. Most United Methodist Women groups relate to a local church.

Organizational Options and Opportunities

SUBGROUPS AND CIRCLES
Forming subgroups or circles allows members an opportunity to focus on special mission interests in smaller groups. They provide greater flexibility and freedom for participation, nurture and leadership development. Some women find that their circle is their primary connection for prayer, study and spiritual growth.

Subgroups and circles may relate to the local organization by selecting representatives to be members or connect with the leadership team and/or other committees, as appropriate.

CLUSTER OR CHARGE GROUPS
Smaller groups in a local church may be strengthened by joining with United Methodist Women members in other churches to form a charge, cluster or other regional group.

ONLINE CONNECTIONS
Social networking through UMWOncial.org provides yet another way to organize and connect with others with a passion for mission. The primary purpose of the United Methodist Women Social Network is to enhance the ways in which we connect and communicate with one another.

DISTRICT UNITS
Districts may provide additional membership options. District groups may be formed when women from different churches meet in locations other than a local church, such as a college campus, retirement community or workplace.
ELECTED LEADERSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

Leadership
Accepting a leadership role requires a commitment of time, energy and effort. But in return, you develop a deeper understanding of mission, grow spiritually and are sustained by the knowledge that you are making a difference in the lives of women, children and youth and in unjust systems.

Leadership Team, or Executive Committee
The local organization should be structured so that the work of administration, finance, program planning, planning for mission, record keeping and nominations can be carried out. A member must be named president, and she or someone named by the team must serve as the contact person for the district organization and serve on the local church council.

The leadership team assigns responsibilities for all basic functions. It includes the following persons:
- President
- Vice president
- Treasurer
- Secretary
- Chair, committee on nominations
- Member at large
- Pastor (ex-officio)

Other persons may also be recruited to plan programs of spiritual growth, mission education and advocacy work according to the needs of your group and community. Others might organize programs for individual study and hands on mission. Each organization should recruit leaders needed to make sure that opportunities for spiritual growth, mission education, leadership development, service and advocacy are available to members throughout the year.

The president, treasurer, secretary, and the committee on nominations of the local organization each have a counterpart in the district and conference organizations of United Methodist Women. Your district counterpart will be available to give you practical advice about how to carry out your duties and will be a source of support as you learn more about being a leader of United Methodist Women. She will provide training and give advice.

Term and Tenure of Elected Leaders
Leaders are elected for terms that are determined by their local or district unit. It is advisable to fill a vacancy within a period of three months. Tenure, or the maximum amount of time a woman may serve, is described in the bylaws of United Methodist Women.
