JUST IN CASE!

In the 1963 movie, Lilies of the Field, starring Sidney Portier, there was a businessman in town who was an atheist. He didn't believe in God. However, one day, when the town was coming together to build a new chapel for the nuns, he got involved, working on the chapel.

Sidney Portier asked the guy, "I thought you were an atheist."

The businessman replied, "Yes. I am."

"But I don't understand. You're up here building a house for God."

"Yes, I am."

"Why would you do that if you're an atheist?"

"Just in case," was the man's reply.

That's what many people do. We do some good things from time to time that we think ensures our salvation just in case there is a God and just in case He will hold us accountable.

Some even keep other "gods" in their back pocket, just in case THE God doesn't work out for them. But Jehovah God is never satisfied with partial commitment. We either serve THE GOD or THIS WORLD. There are no other options (Matt. 6:24).
