THE PURPOSE OF LAW

“Is the law sin? Certainly not! On the contrary, I would not have known sin except through the law” (Rom. 7:7).

The law is like a speed limit sign on the highway. If it says sixty miles an hour ... that’s the law. That law cannot make you drive sixty miles an hour ... it just informs you as to the law. In fact, that law means nothing to many people!

However, it validates the fact that if a policeman pulls you over when you’re going 75 or 80 mph, he has the right to do so because you’ve broken a revealed standard. The purpose of the law is to reveal the standard by which sin is to be measured (I John 3:4).

Said another way ... the law of God is like an X-ray. It will reveal a problem but it can’t fix it.

-R. Medlin
