GIVE THANKS!

A mother was trying to teach her daughter to pray, but the little girl didn't want to learn. Her mother tried to motivate her to pray by putting her on a guilt trip. "You have so much to be thankful for. Think of all the children who don't have food, don't have clothes, or don't have parents to provide for them like you do." The girl replied, "Well, then, they're the ones who ought to be praying."

Some never lose that childish attitude about prayer, thinking that it is nothing more than a "wish list" that we provide to God on a semi-regular basis.

A careful examination of scripture, however, demonstrates that much of prayer should be comprised of thanksgiving. Surely as we mature spiritually, more and more of our prayer life should be gratitude and not just requests.

"Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, (then) let your requests be made known to God" - Philippians 4:6.
