"2. Reiterates the appeal to all States, in particular the most heavily armed States, pending the conclusion of agreements on the reduction of military expenditures, to exercise self-restraint in their military expenditures with a view to reallocating the funds thus saved to economic and social development, particularly for the benefit of developing countries;

"3. Requests the Disarmament Commission to continue at its session to be held in 1982 the consideration of the item entitled 'Reduction of military budgets', taking into account the provisions of General Assembly resolution 35/142 A as well as those of the present resolution and other relevant proposals and ideas, with a view to identifying and elaborating on the principles which should govern further actions of States in the field of the freezing and reduction of military expenditures, keeping in mind the possibility of embodying such principles into a suitable document at an appropriate stage;

"4. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-seventh session the item entitled 'Reduction of military budgets'."

3. Also at the same meeting, the General Assembly adopted resolution 36/91 A of 9 December 1981. The operative part of the resolution, relating to the Disarmament Commission, reads as follows:

"4. Requests the Secretary-General, in accordance with paragraph 4 of resolution 35/156 A, to submit a final report to the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session."

4. The Disarmament Commission met at United Nations Headquarters on 10 and 11 December 1981 for a brief organizational session. During this period, the Commission held two meetings (A/CN.10/PV.55 and 56). In the course of its deliberations, the Commission considered various questions regarding the organization of its work, in particular the question of the election of the officers of the Commission, taking into account the principle of rotation of the Chairmanship. In this connexion, the Commission elected its Chairman; however, it decided to postpone the election of the Vice-Chairmen and Rapporteur to the substantive session in 1982 (see A/CN.10/PV.55). The Commission also considered the elements of the provisional agenda for its next substantive session, particularly in the light of the convening of the second special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament.
