GUIDANCE NOTES:

1. In the online video library, you will find a section entitled 'ADVANCED: EQUIPMENT REQUIRED'. This contains all of the workouts above.
2. Always consult your doctor before starting any new fitness regime. If you are new to fitness, follow the modifications provided. This will allow you to build up your fitness gradually without pushing yourself too hard.
3. The schedule above has been designed to allow for maximum muscle recovery time, but feel free to rearrange the workouts/rest days to suit your schedule. Just ensure all workouts are completed within the week.
