22-076	2	Home Energy Score for Real Estate Professionals	2
22-077	3	Saving Home Energy for Real Estate Professionals	3

All course/s listed on the attached letter are approved through November 15, 2022, providing the online course/s maintain current certification from ARELLO and comply with North Dakota Administrative Rules 70-02-04-23 and all other North Dakota real estate laws and rules.

Unless exempted or updated by new rules, active resident licensees must complete 9 hours of commission-approved continuing education from November 16, 2020 through November 15, 2021, the current continuing education cycle. During this CE cycle, there is NO mandatory course topic. All courses are elective.

Please issue certificates to licensees completing the course/s, and submit to the commission a list of licensees receiving certificates for the class/es and, if available, course evaluations. To receive a certificate and real estate continuing education credit, licensees must meet the attendance requirement in 70-02-04-21(1) of the Administrative Code, which is built into online course completion:

Continuing Education Certificate of Attendance

All schools, seminars, and workshops shall provide an individual certificate of attendance to each licensee upon completion of the educational program or training session under the following conditions:

1. No certificate of attendance shall be issued to a licensee who is absent for more than ten per cent of the classroom hours.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact me at 701.328.9737. Thank you for offering this continuing education.
