Wynford FFA Performs Well Over Shutdown

The Wynford FFA sent sophomores Logan Richardson, Blake Beckley, and Trent Vaughn to the district Ag Mechanics contest at West Holmes. They received 3rd place at the District contest. Thank you to Brian Vaughn, Bryton Vaughn, Eric Langston, and Dale Richardson for their help coaching this team.

The Wynford FFA also had several members compete in the sub-district public speaking contest. Allison Scott competed in advanced prepared speech, placing second. Cameron Moone competed in Extemporaneous speech, placing second. Hannah Feldman competed in beginning prepared speech, placing third. Kyla Martin competed in the creed contest, placing fourth. Allison, Cameron, and Hannah moved on to district public speaking. At districts, Allison placed first, Cameron placed fifth, and Hannah placed fourth. Allison moved onto to the state speaking contest and placed fourth overall.

On May 4-8, Ohio FFA hosted the State Convention via Social Media channels. Many Wynford FFA members earned awards. Kearston Hulsmeyer, Addie Wood, Levi Hartschuh, Riley Lusk, Allison Scott, Lyndie Williams, and Thomas Rindfuss earned their State FFA Degree. Thomas Rindfuss and James McCurry were selected for State FFA Band. Levi Hartschuh ran for a State Officer position. Connor Miller won the state in Specialty Animal Production proficiency with his family bee business. He will represent Ohio to compete at nationals for a top 4 spot. Connor was also an Ohio Star in Agricultural Placement finalist. Lyndie Williams placed third in the state in Nursery Operations proficiency working at Carmar Gardens. We are so proud of how well all of our members did. Thank you to everyone who watched the State Convention and congratulated our members on their awards.
